Executorships

Too great importance can not be attached to the choice of the right Executor to administer your Estate after you are gone.

No man would entertain the idea of insuring his life or property with a private individual. Then why should he place his Estate in the hands of a person who, for any one of a number of reasons, might lose a considerable percentage of its value?

With a most efficient organization, the Dominion Trust Company solicits the management of your Estate now or the appointment as Executor. The cost will be no more than that charged by the individual and oftentimes less.

—PALS BATTALIONS RECRUITED IN LEEDS Assurance of Being Sent to the Front With a Friend Brings Big Enlistment.

Decorated and Illuminated Trolley Car Has Destination Sign "Berlin."

—Mr. and Mrs. Roger D. Westaway announce the engagement of their daughter Belle Lenore to Mr. William Thomas Wellner, the wedding to take place in First Methodist Church Charlottetown Wednesday morning, October 14th, 1914.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—Unusual advertising is playing a leading role in the accomplishment of the giant task which England has set for itself in seeking to enroll 500,000 recruits to answer Earl Kitchener's second call for volunteers. Its keynote is to show how urgent is the need for men at the front, and cities, towns and communities have awakened to the necessity for action. Enthusiasm has been raised in them to fever pitch by great public meetings, and the list of recruits has been carried to high-water mark.

In the city of Leeds, Yorkshire, in particular, the advertising appeal for recruits has been driven home with especial force. Here great stress was laid on the formation of companies in which friends could be assured of going to the front together, and the sympathetic appeal to enroll in "Pals Battalions" brought a great response. It is probable, though, that the appeal could not have been so strongly emphasized if the Leeds recruits had not used novel advertising to show what it meant.

The Leeds advertising device was a beautifully decorated and illuminated double-deck trolley car. It bore on both sides in electric lights a large sign "God Save the King," in front and in back the insignia of England's royalty in electric lights also, and at the front the destination sign "Berlin." Set in the window openings were a series of signs which said: "The Country Calls. Kitchener Requires 500,000 Men. Go Now"; "Wanted at Once, 5,000 Recruits from Leeds British Bulldogs, Airedale or Yorkshire Terriers"; "Go Now. Don't Have to be Fetched. The People of Leeds Will Look After Your Homes."

The car was sent out night after night over the lines of the Leeds Tramway Corporation, with a fine band of music occupying the upper deck, and with public speakers and recruiting officers on board. Immense crowds gathered at all stopping points, and the car had a great success.

The promise of the car that "The People of Leeds Will Look After Your Homes" is one of the strongest appeals to recruits. All who volunteer are assured that their families or others dependent on them will be generously cared for, maintenance being given through the various city committees or through the million dollar Prince of Wales fund raised in one month especially for this purpose.

Contributions marked "Belgian Relief Fund" may be sent to D. J. Riley, Treasurer, 49 Queen Street, who will take delivery of those from outside Charlottetown, and acknowledge same. Everything will be shipped from here early next month. Donations of cash will be gratefully accepted, as the Committee will be enabled to purchase food with the money.

FREEING OF BRITISH TARS STIRS GERMANY.
LONDON, Sept. 30.—A despatch to the Reuter Telegram Company from Amsterdam says that the Cologne Gazette voices German indignation at the attitude of the Dutch in releasing the surviving sailors from the British cruisers Hogue, Cressy and Aboukir. It says: "No legal support for the attitude of the Netherlands Government can be found, either in the Geneva or The Hague conventions."

The paper argues that the men who were rescued after their ships had been sunk by a German submarine and later landed in Holland, should have been guarded to prevent their further participation in the war.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—For the first half of the financial year ending yesterday the British National Revenue amounted apparently to $380,000,000, a decrease of $13,500,000 as compared with last year while expenditures aggregated $670,000,000 showing an increase of nearly $230,000,000 due to the war.
