PRINCE COUNTY GUARDIAN

Offices in Summerside, D. K. Currie, Manager and in Alberton, Herbert Clark, Manager.

—Thomas Hardy, Hingham, Mass., is visiting his former home at Alberton.

—Harry Weatherbie from Roxbury, Mass., is visiting friends in Summerside.

—Guthard Baker, Boston, is visiting his parents T. C. and Mrs. Baker, Summerside.

—Miss Ethel Chapman, Worcester, Mass., is visiting her former home at Alberton.

—Alexander McKenzie, Boston, is visiting friends in Summerside and Charlottetown.

—William Smith arrived by the Empress Friday night from Boston, Mass.

—Charles R. Rogers, Summerside, was a passenger by the Empress Saturday night.

—Allan and Mrs. Parsons, Summerside, were passengers by the Empress Saturday night.

—John Wood was a passenger by the Empress Saturday morning en route to Boston.

—The Dominion Government steamer cutter Davies arrived at Summerside Saturday.

—C. N. Beales was a passenger by the Empress yesterday morning, returning to St. John.

—There were one hundred and twenty passengers going and sixty returning by the Empress Saturday.

—Frank and Mrs. McInnis left Saturday morning on return to Dorchester, Mass., after a two weeks' visit in Summerside.

—Advertisers and subscribers in Alberton and vicinity are asked to hand all matters for The Guardian to Herbert Clark, the company's agent at that place.

—A myxomatosis man will be at the Foresters picnic at Bedque on August 21st. Two dollars in gold if you can detect him.

—At the Police Court, Summerside, Saturday morning, Frank Perry was convicted of two first offences against the Prohibition Act and fined one hundred dollars and costs in each case.

—There are no hotel keepers anywhere more noted for acts of kindness than those of Alberton. They are even so generous that when a guest arrives who is entitled to special consideration they accord him such doing all in their power to aid him in being jolly and comfortable, even refusing to make any charge whatever when they are apparently warranted in taking this course. All possible success to the kind and generous hotel proprietor, Com.

—D. K. Currie, Summerside, left on Saturday for a short well earned holiday. He purposes visiting Charlottetown, Bonshaw and parts east. Mr. Currie has his rod with him and his many friends expect to hear even more thrilling "fish stories" than The Guardian has yet been called upon to publish, on his return. Mr. Currie is accompanied by his daughter Jean.

—There has been a family reunion in the Bedque parsonage. For more than a week the four absent sons, all Island born, have been home. Percy J. left on Friday for St. John; Vernou leaves on Tuesday for Guelph; Arthur returns to town next week; and G. Douglas goes to Harvard later on. It is the first time for over three years that Mr. and Mrs. Steel have had the pleasure of having all their children together. Bedque is an excellent place for a summer holiday.
