CONDITIONS SERIOUS IN ALL GERMANY

Strict Censorship Prevents Authentic News Reaching Outside but it is Known the Country is Divided into Factions. Fights Have Occurred on the Streets and Many Were Killed.

(Special to the Guardian)
LONDON, Nov. 26.—Reports from Berlin from various sources describe Germany as in a most critical state. The censorship is stricter than ever and reports therefore lack confirmation. Stories have been printed of clashes between members of the Spartacus group and the Berlin police on Thursday resulting in fighting in which many were killed and wounded. The returning troops and also all of South Germany are reported as supporting Herr Ebert, leader of the movement, aiming at the calling of a National convention. Vorwaerts warns the Spartacus group not to cause new fights as Berlin will no longer allow the dictatorship of a couple of thousand partisans of Liebknecht.

PREPARING CLAIMS FOR DAMAGES

The Government Directs That all Claims for Damages Through Illegal Methods of Warfare be Filed With Proof.

OTTAWA, Nov. 18.—The Government has directed the preparation of a list of claims by Canadians arising out of the illegal methods of the torpedoing of ships without warning, the aerial bombing of undefended places, and commandeering or requisitioning without compensation, destruction and similar illegal acts on land. The Canadian claims are largely limited to the first class mentioned. The claims relate to loss of life, as well as property. A further list is also to be made covering claims for damages arising out of breaches of contracts with neutrals which were declared illegal because of the neutrals making the claims being on the statutory list of persons in neutral countries commonly called the blacklist. All persons having claims indicated should file them without delay. The making of this list does not imply an undertaking on the part of the Government to put forward the claims at the Peace Conference, or any assurance that if put forward they will be paid. But the list should be completed without delay so as to enable the Government to make a demand if an occasion arises. Instructions showing the methods of filing claims and the proof to be forwarded may be obtained from Thomas Mulvey, Under-Secretary of State, the officer appointed by order-in-council to prepare, examine and report upon the claims. The Navy League of Canada will be pleased to assist the relatives of Canadian Seamen, who have been lost during the war by Submarine or Mine action, in filing claims. Write or call on the Secretary of the P. E. I. Division J. O. Hyndman, 61 Queen St., Charlottetown.

PERU AND CHILE ARE AT LOGGERHEADS

LIMA, Nov. 26.—It is officially announced that Peru has withdrawn her consuls from Chile as a result of the renewal of anti-Peruvian rioting in Iquique and Antofagasta. Peruvian newspapers call upon the Government to request a cessation of anti-Peruvian demonstrations in Chile. They declare that if the demonstrations continue anti-Chilean outbreaks may be expected in Peru. The demonstrations grew out of the differences between Chile on one side and Peru and Bolivia on the other concerning the border provinces of Tacna and Arica.

to the strains of the National Anthem and cheers for Lieut. Murphy, M. C. and Private Riley, M. M.

Following is a copy of the address presented to Lieut. Murphy:—
We, your numerous friends have assembled here this evening for the purpose of expressing our joy at your safe return, and showing our appreciation of your brave deeds on the battlefield.

When the barbarous war broke out you were among the first of the noble sons of this province to go forth to combat for freedom, democracy and civilization, for two long years you have seen active service in the danger zone, exposing life and limb, enduring the horrors of war to defend our fellowmen.

All your superior officers and every man under your command bear testimony to your courage, self-sacrifice and heroism during that period. Several times have you been recommended for bravery on the battlefield. Indeed, our beloved King himself has seen fit to pin upon your breast with his own hands that coveted emblem of distinction, the Military Cross, which proclaims to the world that you are a brave soldier, a world hero. When your fellow citizens note that

DISPOSITION OF RETURNED SOLDIERS

124,000 Do Not Want to Farm; 50,000 Will Return to Former Positions; Over 14,000 are Doubtful.

(Special to the Guardian)
OTTAWA, Nov. 26.—Of 124,000 members of the Canadian Expeditionary forces who do not wish to follow agricultural pursuits after the war, more than 50,000 say that the positions they held before enlistment are open to them on their return. This figure has been made available to the repatriation committee of the cabinet by the analysis of National service cards signed overseas by 230,000 soldiers early in 1917. In addition to 51,380 who definitely stated their positions were being held open for them, 14,422 said they were uncertain or doubtful. There were 13,656 who did not answer the question and 45,154 who asserted that their positions were not open.

SIR ROBERT BORDEN'S MESSAGE TO TROOPS

Immediately on Arriving in England His Message of Congratulations and Admiration Was Transmitted to Canadian Soldiers.

LONDON, Nov. 26.—Premier Borden has sent the following message to all ranks of the Canadian forces overseas: "Having believed before the conclusion of the armistice I take the first opportunity after arriving in Britain to send my warmest congratulations to all ranks in the Canadian forces overseas. Your major task is finished completely and triumphantly. Never have men had greater reason for honest pride of achievement than the soldiers of Canada; never has the country had more just cause for pride in her sons than in our Dominion. The Canadian Army Corps has been selected to share with the other armies of the British Commonwealth the further post of honor in the task of securing the fruits of victory. You will acquit yourselves in this mission as in the past with honor to yourselves and to your country. The Canadian people await your homecoming with a welcome that they hope will in a measure express their unending gratitude and the boundless admiration with which they have followed your course through all the weary years of war."

POLITICAL EVENTS IN OTTAWA

OTTAWA, Nov. 26.—The political sensations of the hour are the resignation of Hon. Clifford Sifton as Chairman of the Conservation Commission and the suit of Sir Charles Ross against the Dominion Government for nearly nineteen million dollars. No reason has as yet been assigned officially for the retirement of Sir Clifford but it is asserted by those who should know that his resignation has no political significance. Sir Clifford has been absent from Ottawa a great deal in the last few years and it is believed he is unable to devote the attention to the Commission is required. The Government proposes to fight to the last the suit of Sir Charles Ross as it believes he received all he was entitled to when he was paid three million dollars for his rifle factory. Quebec City. The exact amount Sir Charles demands is $18,897,724.08.

(Special To The Guardian)
LONDON, Nov. 26.—Canadian troops are preparing for their triumphant entry into Germany, according to a special cable to the Toronto Telegram from Reginald McEvoy. Every battalion and unit to participate will march in with flying colors and bands playing. Consequently there has been a general reclaiming of all the regimental colors which were left in various churches and cathedrals in the British Isles since the beginning of the war when various battalions committed their sacred regimental flags to a solemn ceremony to the safeguarding of the church until they came back from the war.
