

Hair Help

Ayer's Hair Vigor has no effect whatever upon the color of the hair. It cannot possibly change the color in any way. But it promptly stops falling hair, and greatly promotes growth. Ask your doctor first.

What kind of Silver Polish are You Using?

Ever heard of Wellmer's Silver Cream?

If you have not tried it, when you do, you will be surprised how readily it removes the tarnish and makes the silverware look like new.

CHARLOTTETOWN AND QUEEN'S COUNTY

It pays to buy in this province. Any person desiring good board and lodging in this city should leave their name and address at this office at once.

R. N. Cox, M.L.A., and H.D. McEwen, Morell, were passengers returning on the eastern train yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. H. Terrell and daughter, Mrs. Bell, Milton, leaves this morning for East Boston. Mrs. Terrell has disposed of her property at Milton.

Rev. Dan McLean, minister of the Church of Scotland, Charlottetown, P. E. I., preached in St. Mark's Church, Thursday, the 27th inst., at 7.30 p. m. and Friday at the same hour.—Sydney Ex.

Yesterday morning a runaway occurred on Kent Street as a result of which a very nice rubber-tired runabout received some damages. On Thursday evening another runaway occurred on Grafton Street when a truck horse, which had broken clear of the truck, ran up that street at a terrific rate, taking the sidewalk instead of the street. He was captured before he had injured himself.

Arthur J. Enman of Vernon River, who has disposed of his property to O. F. Enman for a handsome sum, leaves about May 1st for Brandon, Man., where he expects to locate. Mr. Enman will be greatly missed in Vernon River, where he has resided since childhood and where his genial manner and integrity have won him a large circle of friends and placed him in the highest ranks of citizenship.

The Friday evening dancing class, which resumed its sessions in Smallwood's Hall one week ago last night, is even better than ever. The second dance was held last evening and there was a splendid attendance and an exceptionally enjoyable evening was spent. Mrs. J. A. S. Baver and Mrs. Weck were the chairwomen. The music, as supplied by Mrs. J. F. Trainor, was a most pleasing feature and quite in keeping with her past reputation as a pianist.

A Montrose correspondent writes:—William Mountain is the owner of a very valuable Parkside mare, half sister to Money Maker sold some time ago. This mare is a beauty and will make some of the speedy ones go some this summer.—David Warbank is doing a rushing business and intends putting up a nice saw mill.

—Mrs. Donald Ramsay who has been very ill is around again. Mrs. Ramsay is a great favorite with young and old and everyone is delighted that she is well again.

As previously announced in The Guardian The Montreal Witness, at a critical time, is calling for assistance to make it possible to continue publication. That journal is meeting with a ready response and among those who endorse and support it at this juncture is Dr. Andrew Macphail, Montreal, a native of Belfast, who besides giving a substantial donation, writes an excellent letter commending the paper which is reprinted in the last issue of the Weekly. Rev. J. A. Gordon, Montreal, father of J. P. Gordon, City, is another who is using his wide influence in this respect. Among those from this city who have expressed their appreciation of the paper is Theo. Moore, City, from whom a letter was received by The Witness and published among others of the same tenor.

A Boston Globe of recent date contains the following regarding the marriage of John M. Myrick, grandson of E. M. Myrick, Tignish:—In the First Unitarian church, West Newton to-night, Miss Sybil S. Berry, niece of Wesley W. Blair of Newtonville and John B. Myrick, son of Edward M. and Mrs. Myrick of West Newton were married by the Rev. Julian C. Jaynes pastor of the church. The ceremony was witnessed by fully 500 guests. The bride was given away by her uncle, Wesley W. Blair and was pined in crepe meteor trimmed with duchess lace, and her tulle veil was caught up with a spray of orange blossoms. She was attended by Miss Rachel Myrick as maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Elizabeth Judkins of Newtonville, Miss Doris Hough of New Bedford and Miss Eva Hamilton of Boston. The best man was James H. Myrick 2d, and the ushers were Frank C. Sherman of Brooklyn, N. Y., Edward C. Tolman of West Newton and Asiline Ward of West Newton. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's uncle at 34 Otis st., at which the couple, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Myrick, parents of the groom and Wesley W. Blair received the guests. The many friends in Charlottetown of the newly wedded couple will extend best wishes.

$100 REWARD $100. The readers of this paper will be pleased to hear that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh of the Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, it requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the cause of the disease, and curing the patient, strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in its efforts to drive out the disease. Have so much faith in its curative powers that you will accept One Hundred Dollars for anyone that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. IN MEMORIAM. The people of Nine Mile Creek and adjoining settlements were shocked on the morning of April 1st, when it was reported that John McQuarrie had passed into the eternal world. Although he had been unwell for about two weeks the neighbors had no idea that his earthly pilgrimage was so nearly ended. All that could be done for him was cheerfully performed, but an all-wise God had decreed that his work was done and called his spirit back to Himself. He has left behind him an unblemished record which is a great consolation to the mourning friends. The funeral was delayed till Wednesday, the 5th, awaiting the arrival of his brother Neil who lived in Providence, R. I. Although the day was disagreeable a great number of people from all the surrounding country came to pay their tribute of respect to a worthy young man. The funeral services were performed at the house by the Rev. D. MacLean, assisted by the Rev. A. Craize and at the grave by the Rev. O. A. by Bro. Paul McPhee as Master and the Grand Chaplain. A lovely wreath was laid on the casket by the members of Derry Lodge and a beautiful casket by friends from Falconwood where Miss Louise, a sister of the deceased, is a graduate nurse. The pall-bearers were Messrs: Alex. MacPhee, Duncan Darrach, Neil MacDonald and Alexander MacDonald, Samuel Elliot and Hugh MacDonald. Bro. McQuarrie was just 29 years of age, having died on his birthday.
