WEDDING BELLS—Dean Lwyd officiated at the marriage at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening, in the Cathedral of All Saints, of Ella May, daughter of A. Fry, 218 Jubilee road, and Norman McLean Swain, a valued member of the staff of the Canadian General Electric Company, two young people who enjoy great popularity says the Halifax Herald. The wedding was a very quiet one, bride and groom being unattended. Richard Fry, cousin of the bride, presided at the organ, giving fine renditions of the wedding marches, the bride being given in marriage by her father. She looked very charming indeed in her going away suit of brown velour, worn with smart brown hat, and necklace of yellow chrysanthemums and roses, whose tones ran from a pure cream to a pale yellow. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Swain left for the wedding trip, upon which they are followed by the best wishes of all who know them. Upon their return to the city they will make their home on Almon Street Extension. During the past fortnight the bride has received many gratifying proofs of the regard which she enjoys, the collection of wedding gifts being a large and valuable one. The above Mr. Swain is a son of Mrs. Swain, 229 Hillsboro St., city.

cully, will apparently fully offset any gain from the improved hill-grades. Eliminating the fall and spring months, during which period we are told the roads must be always muddy, and rough, and the winter months, during which no benefit can be had, there remain only the three summer months in which the much-wanted improvements are of any practical utility, or benefit. Three months out of twelve! And those happen to be
