Georgetown and Vicinity

Mr. Bernard Keenan of Georgetown Royalty has accepted a position at Falconwood Hospital and left a few days ago to take up his duties there.

Plans are being laid to open the Canadian Legion Hall on Monday night by having an open night, at which the general public will be able to attend. An evening of the last night of the winter season and those attending will be able to patronize the sandwich and ginger ale booth.

Mr. J. Alec MacLeod, representing W. H. Thorne and Co., and Mr. William Bears representing various companies, one of which is Vassie-Brook and Manchester were in Georgetown on Wednesday and they reported road conditions as very good.

On Wednesday the 26th, our Georgetown-Lower Montague ferry was still running, despite the season's lowest temperature of around zero on Tuesday night. Last year's January 21st has now been surpassed by a week and our good boat is still going strong. One season in the thirties our ferry made in each month the winter record of the year. Since under command of Captain Henry Larsen the record crossing date was on a January 25th. This record has now been broken with the crossing on the 26th.

Montague Downs Murray Harbour

On Monday night the Montague "Meteors" defeated the Murray Harbour "Black Hawks" by the score of 4-1. The local team played excellent hockey, and showed superiority in passing plays which brought one attack after another to the opponents goal. The visitors fought back gamely but seemed to be overcome by the smooth passing of the local squad. It was also noted that the local team are guarding their own net with more proficiency, so that no one is left loose around the net. The greatest improvement, however, was that elusive finisher around the opponents goal by which scores are made. The coach, Mr. Doug MacGowan, is to be commended in making such a vast improvement in his squad, and the local fans are hoping to see the coveted Taylor's Trophy in Montague this year. Although the league got underway at a late date, the teams hope to be able to play two sections before the playoffs.

Timely Sermon On Sodom And Gomorrah

Following is the text of a timely sermon delivered on Sunday last by Rev. William T. Mercer, pastor of Mt. Stewart and Bristol United Churches:

Matt. II: 1-24.

Mark 6: 11. "It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city."

Matt. II: 23, 24. "And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day."

But I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee."

Subject: "What does Sodom and Gomorrah Mean To Us?"

No historian, other than the Biblical writer, can tell us anything about the supposed ancient cities of Sodom and Gomorrah. It is thought they lie buried beneath the water of the Dead Sea, their remains having been buried by debris brought by the Jordan river from its banks and from the Sea of Galilee, and their secrets preserved in the thick brine. Who knows, the Jews may some day drain the Dead Sea, liberate an inheritance of well-preserved information.

It is thought that the Phoenicians were the descendants of those who fled from parts surrounding Sodom and Gomorrah when these cities were destroyed. The Phoenicians were skilled people in the arts and shipbuilding, and are regarded as having been the inventors of alphabetic writing which might have been due to their experiences brought from Sodom and Gomorrah. It seems probable that the people of Sodom and Gomorrah were progressive, successful and highly civilized people in their day.

In our Bible there are many references to these cities, and it would appear that they were situated with five other cities at the North end of the Dead Sea, and which were destroyed by Abraham lived in Canaan about 2061 B. C. Sodom and Gomorrah are described as being wicked. According to Genesis 18:20 and Romans 9:29, both were types of impiety and wickedness. Their wickedness became proverbial and we find references to them in Deut. 32: 32; Isaiah I: 9, 10, Jeremiah 23: 14.

These two cities, let us say, at the northern extremity of the Dead Sea formed the metropolitan or centre of trade, for the surrounding places and people. You will remember that Lot decided to make his home there, to his future regret. Indeed anyone who pitches his tent in Sodom or Gomorrah is generally regarded as a person of ill-repute who sooner or later meet sorrow.

Indians Oppose Suggested Floor For Ranch Mink Pelts

THE PAS, Man., Jan. 26—(CP)—Northern Manitoba Indians, who have heard rumors of the establishment of a floor price for ranch mink, are against it.

Such a price would permit the ranchers to sell any amount without loss and the sales would adversely affect the wild fur market, the Indians claim.

Their stand was announced at a recent meeting of Indian chiefs, representing tribes at The Pas, Moose Lake, Cedar Lake, Nelson House and Pukwagan, with representatives of the Indian Affairs Branch.

The meeting followed the Fur Advisory Board meeting here at which the Manitoba Government reviewed the annual fur program and plans for the coming year.

The board meeting was told that wild mink are on the upswing after a bad cycle and trappers anticipate a good crop this year.

Last year, 988 mink were taken in the muskrat marshes around The Pas for an average price of $28. First indication that Canadian wild mink were making a comeback was seen in the York and vicinity area, where the York and vicinity Shamatwaga areas of Northern Manitoba.

It was followed by a film about how to get rid of rats, the next was about Atoms, and how it is tested to cure cancer, followed by one on a day's journey with two canoeists, which was very entertaining, and the last film was on hometown paper, how it is edited and printed. All the films were very interesting.

Christ's Words

We note, however, that Jesus speaking to a group of citizens on his day, said: "It would be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the judgment than for Capernaum;" for the people of Sodom and Gomorrah, did not have Him and the great message of love which He revealed, but the people of Capernaum were offered this blessed help.

I wonder how conditions of our own place and day would appear in the sight of Jesus. Would it be more tolerable for the people of Capernaum than for us?

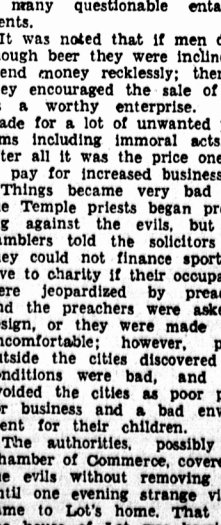

You see, the people of Capernaum knew only the dawn of the morning twilight compared with our illumination. They had some dubious ideas about Jesus being a divine messenger, but at the time they knew nothing about His Cross, Death, Resurrection and Ascension. They stood in the morning light, but you and I stand in the noonday blaze.

It is not necessary for me to go into the details of gambling, the use of alcoholic beverages, social diseases, and the questionable means of making gain. It is sufficient to say that these things destroy character and lead to distress.

We want pleasure not distress, and we want it for our children. If that is so, what are our activities in the community? Are we setting good examples? Do we in our work and our leisure endeavour to build good character by our examples? Or, are we maintaining and abetting the river end of the Street of the Bazaars?

Jesus said: "I am come that they may have life, and have it more abundantly." If we accept His way of life and follow Him, there are so many good and pleas-

European sources said the defence ministry is ready to proclaim a state of emergency and mobilize a citizen force if the situation deteriorates further.

IS THIS NICE OR NAUGHTY?

Claude Marsan, 39, and his red-headed assistant, Barbara Weir, 24, are shown in Los Angeles, as they demonstrated to a jury of nine matrons and three men salient points of lovemaking technique they used during the November 24 lecture that was interrupted by entry of the police department and their subsequent arrest on charges of staging an indecent performance. Marsan self-styled "Crusader for Love" told the jury that his lecture was really an "educational experience for young people. He had nothing but sniffs for the lovemaking techniques of American men. Ten college boys preceded Marsan and Miss Weir to the stand and testified that Marsan's antics on the stage embarrassed them.

WALT DISNEY'S "BAMBI"
RETURNS FOR NEW HONORS

Spectacular and thrilling in its treatment of wild life instincts paralleling those of human beings, Walt Disney's "Bambi," in color by Technicolor, currently makes a return to the screen, aflame with adventure and beauty.

Noted for its appeal to adult interest, it is the emotional content of "Bambi" which gives it its great importance. The hero is a deer, whose life cycle is followed. Birth, growth, romance, anguish, triumph—all are dramatized in the story.

The hero Bambi's friends are Thumper, the captivating little cottontail; Flower, a skunk of engaging personality; Faline, the doe Bambi wins after a life-and-death fight with a rival buck, and many other picturesque woodland characters animated in the Disney manner to perform convincingly on the screen.

Spectacle is handled excitingly in "Bambi." One scene which is a marvel of animation shows Faline's rescue by Bambi from a pack of enormous hunting dogs. The climax of the picture is a vast forest fire, achieving thrilling realism.

Songs heard in "Bambi" are Love is a Song That Never Ends, Little April Showers, Let's Sing a Song About Love, and Looking For Romance.

Employment of the human voice for orchestral effect occurs in "Bambi." A chorus of forty singers directed by Charles Henderson produces organ-like melody without the actual speaking of words. Since "Bambi" is set in a virgin forest of enormous trees, the social accompaniment augmenting a large symphony orchestra, is most appropriate.

ant things to be done that we need not waste our leisure time playing cards, dancing and drinking beer.

"Rise up, O men of God!
Hear me with lesser things;
Give heart and soul and mind
and strength
To serve the King of kings.
Lift high the Cross of Christ!
Tread where His feet have trod:
As brothers of the Son of Man
Rise up, O men of God.
