Mrs. J. S. Allen Dies At S'side - The death occurred at her home in Summerside yesterday morning of Mrs. J. Shepherd Allen at the advanced age of ninety one years. The late Mrs. Allen had been in good health until February 15th when she had the misfortune to fall and break her hip. She was the former Charlotte Dobson of Searle town, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Dobson of that place.

About 65 years ago she married Captain J.S. Allen of Emigrant Point, N.B., and moved to Summerside where she lived ever since; her husband predeceased her three years ago. She is the last of a family of eleven.

The late Mrs. Allen was of a quiet and retiring nature and in the last years of her life she went out very little.

She leaves to mourn one daughter, Mabel, Mrs. W.H. Slackford, Summerside and two sons, W. Arthur with whom she made her home and Dr. H.S. Allen, Summerside.

The funeral will be held on Sunday afternoon with service at the home at 2 o'clock. -S.

HOME FROM ITALY - Mr. Peter Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Mitchell, arrived in the City last night from overseas. Mr. Mitchell enlisted Aug. 22, 1914, and three months later went overseas. He landed in Italy in February, 1944, and after 11 days of action was invalided back to England where he remained until a few weeks ago when he embarked for Canada.

LEGION AUXILIARY MEETING - The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion was held last night in the Legion Hall with the president, Mrs. L. T. Lowther presiding. A letter received from Mr. Norman Lowther, was read which expressed on behalf of the Russian Relief Committee, appreciation for the supplies received from the Women's Auxiliary and for a box of warm clothing received from Mrs. Clark of Mt. Stewart.

With "Let's Double the Quota" as a slogan, and with two weeks still to go, Prince Edward Island last night was 14 per cent beyond its objective in the War Savings Stamp drive.

The response of the public has been so gratifying to the provincial committee that it was decided at a meeting yesterday that the objective of 175,000 stamps had already been purchased and that he had no doubt whatever that the province would exceed its objective in the campaign, which is provincial chairwoman; Mrs. H. F. McPhee, Charlottetown, and Mrs. J. D. McGuigan, chairwoman for Charlottetown.

The campaign ends on March 9.

Mr. Gillis also expressed his appreciation for the loyal cooperation given his and other committees by the retail merchants without whose unflinching interest the campaign would have been a failure. Summerside, is provincial chairwoman; Mrs. H. F. McPhee, Charlottetown, and Mrs. J. D. McGuigan, chairwoman for Charlottetown.

NEW "Y" CENTRE - As a result of the recent visit to Charlottetown of Mr. Samuel Noos, of the Y.M.C.A. Building Bureau of New York, plans for the erection of the new Y.M.C.A. building here have been practically completed and construction will begin May 1st. The new Y.M.C.A. Headquarters will be located on Gravel Street near the Capitol theatre.

TRINITY Y.P.U. - Trinity Y.P.U. held its regular meeting on Friday February 23rd in the social hall with the president presiding. The meeting opened by the singing of one verse of "Onward Christian Soldiers." Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. In place of the regular Bible Study period, Mrs. MacDougal showed a set of slides entitled "Paul the Dauntless." The slides were kindly loaned by the Rev. Mr. Abbott of St. Paul's Anglican Church. Recreation under the direction of Murray Creed was enjoyed by all. A set of slides were shown of the "Influence of Christianity on the Life and Customs of Korea." The devotional period followed under the direction of the Culture Conventions. The service hymns were "Christ whose glory fills the sky" was sung. Scripture lesson was read by Wilma MacDougal. The hymn "Love divine, all loves excelling" Evelyn Matheson led the group in prayer. A very interesting story describing the circumstances leading to the composition of the three Wesleyan hymns was read by the service. The hymn "Adeste Fideles" was read by Mildred Hyde. The hymn "Jesus lover of my soul" and the "Amen benediction" brought the meeting to a close.

PERSONALS - Mr. John K. Falconer, North Granville, was in the city yesterday on business.

Mr. Walter MacKenzie, M.L.A. Springfield, was in the city yesterday.

Knights of Pythias Hold Natal Day - A very interesting and largely attended Natal Day celebration was held by Empire Lodge No. 19, Knights of Pythias in their Castle Hall on Thursday evening. After a very short business session, greetings were extended to all Pythians, both present and absent, by Past Chancellor J. H. Williams.

A solemn memorial service was then held in memory of deceased brothers V. C. Smallwood and Harry McKee.

A tablet was also unveiled in honour of twenty-eight Pythian Brothers who have joined up in defence of their country in various branches of the armed services.

A very interesting ceremony was the presentation of Life Membership Certificates to Past Chancellor J. Harry Williams, Past Supreme Master at Arms Lt.-Col. Leonard Mackay, Past Grand Chancellor B. Roy Holman and Past Chancellor J. Harry Williams, in token of over twenty-five years of continuous active and honourable membership.

All the presentations were fittingly replied to and the program was interspersed with selections by Brothers George Beer, A. F. Gillis and James Calder, with Bro. A. Roy Kendall at the piano. Much credit is due to Chancellor Gordon C. Lord and his able staff of officers and to Past Chancellor B. Frank Tinsley, Master of Ceremonies for the evening.

After the meeting a magnificent banquet was spread by the ladies. God bless 'em.

EXCESSIVE WORRY Saps the Nervous System - Worry over business or household duties, sudden shock, distressing news, the foolish attempt to put a week of normal life into 24 hours all put a strain on the nervous system. Harpist Gives Fine Concert At P. W. C. Hall - A large and appreciative audience attended the concert last night in Prince of Wales College hall given by Miss Ruth Blane, gifted Montreal harpist, ably assisted by two vocal soloists, Ralph L. Douglas and Mr. G. Vincent Patrick.

For her first number, Miss Blane played the Bourree from Parita 1 by Johann Sebastian Bach, a composition more or less familiar to the harp under Miss Blane's skillful touch. The tune is an old dance measure, allied to the gavotte and forms part of one of the loveliest suites in chamber music, "Solemn Air" from Gluck's opera "Orpheus" and the grand old hymn "Adeste Fideles" completed the first group of Miss Blane's selections. In the latter number the opening chords were followed by three beautiful and intricate variations. These were arranged

Floyd F. Johnston, Ernest H. Lord and Duncan A. McPherson of Certificates of Membership of the Harry M. Love Memorial Class.

And last, but by no means least, on the presentation list was the presenting of Veteran's Jewels to Past Supreme Master at Arms Lt.-Col. Leonard Mackay, Past Grand Chancellor B. Roy Holman and Past Chancellor J. Harry Williams, in token of over twenty-five years of continuous active and honourable membership.
