Milk Always Sweet in Summer

SUMMER heat makes no difference to Carnation Milk. It's always sweet and fresh when you need it.

That's because it comes to you SEALED and STERILIZED. Fresh and rich the day it comes to us, part of the water is taken away by evaporation and it is put into new containers and sterilized.

Carnation Milk solves the milk problem. Winter or summer, it is always ready—never late. None is wasted. Use it as cream, or add water and use it as milk.

Carnation Milk adds wonderfully to every milk dish — new flavor and new nourishment. It makes tea and coffee famous and it whips. Order this convenient, economical milk now. Ask your grocer to send you several tall (16 oz.) cans, or a case of 48 cans.

At the same time write for the Carnation cook book. It is new—beautifully illustrated—and the many recipes are tested and delicious. Try this recipe.

CARNATION COOKED SALAD DRESSING.

1 teaspoonful salt, 1 tablespoonful sugar, 1 1/2 tablespoonfuls flour, 3/4 teaspoonful mustard, 2 eggs, 1 teaspoonful onion juice, 1/4 cup mild vinegar, 1/2 cup Carnation Milk, 1/2 cup water. Mix dry ingredients, add beaten eggs, onion juice and milk diluted with the water. Add the vinegar slowly, cook in a double boiler until thick, stirring constantly. Remove from fire, strain and cool. This recipe makes 1 1/2 cups salad dressing.

LOSES MONEY AND TEETH IN HARVESTING CHERRIES

LONDON, July 24.—Despite the fact that sour cherries were not much of a crop throughout the Niagara Peninsula as a whole, all those growers who were fortunate enough to have a crop did not realize a good return from the same. A typical story of losses comes from a summer resident of Niagara-on-the-Lake.

WILL ENTERTAIN LAVISHLY

LONDON, July 23.—Negotiations for the purchase of a new building to be used as Canadian official headquarters in London are on the brink of consummation. Unless an unexpected hitch intervenes, it will be possible shortly to announce the acquisition of a suitable structure on a site quite as central as that of British Columbia House, which the Government was unable to secure.
