"Third Alarm" Is A Thriller

AN EPIC DRAMA OF THE FIRE FIGHTERS
Fire! Fire! An apartment house in flames. Heroic rescue by the firemen of men, women and children trapped in a flimsy structure while at their dinner. And when the walls crashed they buried beneath them only one person—one man who was the best liked member of the entire Fire Department and who was waiting at home for him a motherless young daughter and a baby son.

WANTED — TEACHER FOR HUNTER River School, First Class position. Supplement $200.00. Irene Wedlock, Secretary. 5387-6-19-31.

Fire! Fire! An apartment house in flames. Heroic rescue by the firemen of men, women and children trapped in a flimsy structure while at their dinner. And when the walls crashed they buried beneath them only one person—one man who was the best liked member of the entire Fire Department and who was waiting at home for him a motherless young daughter and a baby son.

WANTED — PRINCIPAL FOR Crapaud School. Supplement $300.00. H. Leard, Secretary. 5392-6-19-31.

Dad Morton had gone into the stove and flame time and again and brought out people unconscious from suffocation. But he went one time too many. He, who found life so good, had laid it down in the line of duty—and left two children to be sent to a Children's Home!

WANTED — EXPERIENCED SECOND Class Teacher for Waterville School. John T. Grimes. 5396-6-19-21.

The story of Dad's children, Milly turning into a beautiful young woman, and Jimmy just a baby, is told in "The Third Alarm" against a spectacular background of fire and heroics. This special production is the attraction now showing at the Capitol Theatre, with Anita Louise playing Milly and James Hall portraying the fireman hero who appoints himself foster father to the children and then discovers he loves Milly and wants her for his wife.

FOR SALE — SMALL COUNTRY Farm Business, with big 140 acre Farm attached. Will sell at Province for tax valuation. Apply Guardian Home! 4650-5-16-fr 3 months.
