The funeral took place on Oct. 2 and despite the heavy rain a large number of friends and neighbors gathered to pay their last tribute of respect to one who spent so many years among them.

The service was conducted by Rev. D. K. Ross, who spoke words of comfort to the bereaved.

The beautiful floral tributes which covered the casket testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held.

WEDDING BELLS—A pretty wedding took place on Wednesday morning, Oct. 25th in St. Simon and Jude Church, Tignish when Miss Mary Adeline Buote, became the bride of Mr. Alphonse Doucette of Palmer Road Parish, Rev. Douglas McNeil celebrated the Nuptial Mass. The bride was charmingly attired in a dress of wine transparent velvet with hat and accessories to match. She was attended by her half-sister Miss Annie Waite while Mr. Jerry DesRoches supported the groom.

Immediatly after the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous dinner was served to a goodly number of friends and relatives. After receiving the congratulations of their friends Mr. and Mrs. Doucette drove to the groom's home in Ebbesfleet, where a dainty supper was enjoyed by about 50 visitors.

The bride was the recipient of many useful and handsome gifts. The happy young couple will reside in Ebbesfleet where their many friends wish them many years of wedded bliss.

DOING NICELY—Little Miss Evelyn Blackbird of Liverpool, N. S., who was taken seriously ill while on a visit to the Island and who has been a patient in the Prince County Hospital, is progressing favourably and it is hoped will soon be able to return to her home.

THE FUNERAL OF the late Mrs. Arthur Orford took place on Saturday afternoon at 2.30 from St. Peter's Cathedral and was largely attended. The Rev. Canon Malone officiated at the Cathedral and at the grave. The pall bearers were, H. R. Stewart, John Hillion, T. E. McNeill, George DeBlais, W. G. Hogg and Everett Ferguson. Interment was in St. Peter's Cemetery.

RECEIVES SAD NEWS—Mr. J. P. McCloskey received a telegram last evening stating the death of his sister, Rev. Sister St. James, Sister of Charity Quebec. Her many friends will remember when she was at the Charlottetown Hospital many years ago.

On Friday next, at 11 a. m. a beautiful bronze tablet will be unveiled in Prince of Wales College, commemorating the service of graduates and undergraduates of the College during the Great War.

Hon. W. J. P. MacMillan, M. D., F. A. C. S., will preside at the function as Premier and Minister of Education. The programme will be as follows:

Singing of "O Canada," Remarks by Chairman. Addresses by Chief Justice Matheson, war-time Premier of the Province.

Words of appreciation on behalf of the student body. Relatives of those who served will proceed to the entrance hall where the tablet will be unveiled by the Hon. Senator John MacLean (Class of 1860) Dean of the Canadian Senate.

Placing of wreath by Major F. F. May, V. S., President Canadian Legion, B. E. S. L., The National Anthem. A special invitation has been extended to the presidents of the branches of the Canadian Legion throughout the Province.

CONGRATULATIONS—Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius McKinnon of Ellerslie are the proud possessors of twin girls which arrived at their home on Saturday.

ROVER "DEN"—The Charlottetown Rovers, the senior branch of the Boy Scout organization, have secured as their "Den" the office in the MacDougall & MacAulay building, Grafton Street, formerly occupied by Mr. Murray. This is a fine, central location for Rover headquarters and the "Den" should be of great assistance in developing and strengthening the Rover movement in the Province. They enter into occupancy at once.

The death of Mr. Malcolm MacLeod, Vernon River, age 78, occurred suddenly yesterday afternoon on the road near Bradley's Mills, Millview. A coroner's jury empanelled to inquire into the cause of death found that death was due to natural causes.

The inquest was conducted by Dr. L. B. McKenna, coroner, and was held in Jenkins Bros. Undertaking rooms. The jurymen were Gordon Crane, Lee Crane, Chester Johnson, Wm. Masters, Leslie MacLeod, Wm. Drake, Edward Stewart.

Four witnesses were called. They were Dr. J. T. Collins, Vernon River, Malcolm MacLeod, Vernon River, Forrest Clow and Albert MacLeod.

Malcolm MacLeod testified that he saw the deceased just before the latter fell on the road. The deceased had changed his course, staggered and fell. The witness had been about 150 yards away. When he got to the body it was apparently lifeless.

Dr. Collins testified that there were no marks on the body, except some bruises on the face, which had been received in the fall.

The effective manner in which the Royal Canadian Mounted Police are enforcing the Prohibition Law of the Province is indicated by the fact that since January 1 to October 31 of this year no fewer than 238 prosecutions were laid under the Act, resulting in 206 convictions, as compared with 143 convictions obtained in the full year of 1931, the last year under which the Act was enforced by the former Provincial Police and Prohibition Force.

Moreover, since January 1, 1933 convictions were obtained under the Highway Traffic Act out of a total of 125 cases brought into Court. This figure does not include investigations, which numbered 216.

In addition 120 investigations were made under the Excise Act and 433 under the Customs Act.

In Charlottetown alone, during the month of September last, 167 searches of suspected premises were made, resulting in sixteen prosecutions and sixteen convictions. In October the searches numbered 101, seizures 13, convictions, 10.

In Summerside the records for the same period also show great activity on the part of R. C. M. P. Forty searches were made in October, resulting in six prosecutions and four convictions. In September the searches numbered 90, the seizures 13, convictions 1.

LAI D TO REST—The funeral service for the late Mrs. Louis Ruprecht was held yesterday afternoon at the residence of her brother Mr. C. H. B. Longworth, Rev. H. D. Raymond and Rev. Canon Malone officiating. Burial was private.

STEAMER IN PORT—The S. S. Jakob Maersk, a Norwegian boat, is at Summerside taking on seed and table potatoes for Buntain and Bell, Charlottetown. There was a thin bar of ice in the harbour near the Marine Wharf when the steamer docked. This is the earliest for some years that ice has been seen in the harbour.

BRIDAL COUPLE HONOUR—The residents of Bedeque surprised the newly married couple, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Gallant, on Friday evening at the pretty new home and extended them a hearty welcome to the community. Their good wishes were accompanied by some very lovely gifts. Mrs. Gallant received the guests in a lovely dress of brown silk lace. Miss Doris Muncey and Mrs. Arno Berg opened the gifts which were very much admired. Mr. Gallant on behalf of himself and his bride expressed sincere thanks for the kind welcome and tangible expressions of goodwill. The ladies then served a dainty lunch. Assisting were Miss Mildred Calbeck, Miss Alice Bagnall and Miss Mabel Miller. The remainder of the evening was spent in music.

BARWISE—MACE DONALD—A wedding of much interest to many friends took place at the New Glasgow Parsonage of the Church of Christ on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 1st, at two o'clock when Ethel Eliza, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alan MacDonal, of Oyster Bedeque was united in marriage to Walter Barwise son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Barwise, of Bedeque. Rev. William G. Quigley officiated. The bride looked charming in a gown of brown satin with brown coat and accessories to match. The bride was attended by Miss Marion Ling, her niece and the groom by Mr. Howard Ling, of New Glasgow. A wedding supper was served at the bride's home, after which the happy couple left for their new home in Bedeque. Many beautiful presents of silver, china, linen and etc. were received and the best wishes of a host of friends go with them to their new home.

SUMMERSIDE'S STREET PAVING—Work has been started on Green Street under the Government project to relieve unemployment. This street is the street on which the school properly is. It was paved from Central Street to Summer Street a year or two ago and is now to be paved as far as Spring Street. Other intersections are to be done which will link up the main paved streets. The contract has been let to the Warren Paving Company, who had the work of paving Spring Street, and who employed five per cent more labour in the building of this street than the town did when Granville Street was laid down. A new street has been opened this year connecting Duke with Central Street. This is to be called Maple Street. This street is in the north part of the town and has some fine building lots on it. This section of Summerside is expanding rapidly and is one of the finest locations anywhere.

Great interest was taken in yesterday's opening of the Prince Edward Island Fox Show at the Provincial Exhibition Grounds. Judging was commenced at noon after classification had been completed. The Black, Dark Silver, and Dark Medium classes were concluded when the light failed rather early in the afternoon. These were the lightest classes in point of numbers which will be included in the whole show, but nevertheless, the judge, Mr. George E. Callbeck had his hands full in making the placings. This careful and efficient work, however, is something to be admired.

The classes coming on today will be the Medium Silver, and Light Medium. All sections of these two classes will be extremely heavy, the entries in each section ranging from 15 to 35. Judging will begin today at 8.30 and will be pushed vigorously in order to get through as early in the week as possible.

One of the big events of the show will be the Banquet to be held this evening at the Canadian National Hotel. This banquet in part takes the place of the official opening held in former years. Addresses will be delivered by the Premier, Hon. Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan, Hon. G. Shelton Sharpe, Minister of Public Works, Hon. Thomas MacNutt, Minister of Agriculture, His Worship Mayor Stewart, Hon. W. M. Lea, Mr. George Callbeck and others. An excellent musical program has been arranged.

REMINDER OF WINTER—The fall of snow yesterday in Charlottetown and vicinity following the unseasonably cold weather of the last few days serves as a reminder that winter is rapidly approaching. Light snow fell for several hours yesterday afternoon. During the evening showers of rain melted most of the snow, and left the streets in a very slushy condition.

The sad news has been received by her niece, Mrs. P. H. Warren of Bay View, of the death of Margaret Cole, beloved wife of the late Lindsay Sadler of Calais, Me., on October 28th after a short illness of four days. Mrs. Sadler was born at North Milton, P. E. I. She leaves to mourn one son, Roy, in Calais, Me., and three brothers, John and George in Saskatchewan and Henry of North Milton, also a host of friends and relatives in this Province who will deeply mourn her passing.

TRANSFERRED TO CALIFORNIA—Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Alford, who have resided for the past two years in Lakewood, New Jersey, have gone to Sunnyvale, California, where Mr. Alford has been transferred to the U. S. S. Macon, sister ship of the ill-fated Akron. They made the trip by motor, stopping at the World's Fair in Chicago, also visiting friends and relatives at Lafayette and Lowell, Indiana, Dallas, Texas and Juarez, Mexico. Mr. and Mrs. Alford were recent visitors to the Island the guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Brown, New London.

Mrs. John F. Kane was hostess on Tuesday evening to members of the Summerside Branch of the C. W. L. at her home on Summer Street.

The occasion was to honour Mrs. Parnell McMahon, who had been the president of the League since it was organized and who resigned recently as she is leaving the province.

There were about thirty-five members present. Upon the arrival of Mrs. McMahon, who was completely taken by surprise, the following address was read by Miss Dawson:

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE—A miraculous escape from death was experienced by Mr. George Paynter of Long River. When hauling turnips from the field Mr. Paynter's seat-gave away, throwing him to the ground beneath his load and breaking his arm. Mr. Paynter in some way got his feet caught in the brace of the pole which made it impossible for him to help himself. Only for the quick action of his hired man, Francis Dunning, in backing the team and getting him from beneath the wheel, he would undoubtedly have been killed. Much credit is due to Mr. Dunning for his quick action. Mr. Earnest Dunning of Long River was first on the scene of the accident and immediately rushed the injured man to the Prince County Hospital where the arm was set. His many friends will regret of his serious accident and look forward to his complete recovery.

ROGERSON—MACDONALD—A wedding of more than passing interest was solemnized at St. Teresa Church, Oct. 25th, when Miss Lina MacDonal, daughter of Mrs. Pius MacDonal of Peakes, was united in marriage to Mr. Leo Rogerson, of St. Patrick's Road, the Rev. Basil Croken, P.F., officiating. The bride who was becomingly attired in brown was attended by Miss Marcella MacDonal, garbed in green, while Mr. John MacDonal, brother of the bride, capably performed the duties of groomsmen. Following the marriage, the happy couple drove to the home of the bride, where a sumptuous breakfast was served to a number of intimate friends and relatives. The party then motored to Charlottetown where they spent the day. On their return they were tendered a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rogerson, where upwards of one hundred and seventy guests gathered to do honor to the newly wedded couple, Rev. Father Rooney of Morell being among the guests. While supper was being served, dancing was indulged in, until the "wee sma" hours of the morning. Excellent music was furnished by Messrs. Danny Norman, Alfred and Sammy Birt of Pisquid, accompanied by Miss Isabel MacDonal of St. Stewart on the guitar, and Leonard MacDonal and Joseph Gillan on the mandolin. The many and valuable presents bear testimony to the esteem in which they are held by their friends.—(Patriot, please copy).

RETURNED FROM AMHERST—Premier MacMillan and Hon. G. Shelton Sharp, have returned from Amherst, N.S., where the former participated in the conference of the three Maritime Premiers.

CONGRATULATIONS—A number of old friends called on Mrs. Alexander McKay at her home in Summerside on the occasion of her 85th birthday to extend their heartiest congratulations. Among the visitors were her nieces, Mrs. Howatt, Mrs. Leigh and Miss Fanny Rogerson of Victoria, S.

ENJOYED VISIT—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Owen of Pemaquid Beach, Maine have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Wood, Port Howe for the past week and will leave for their home on Tuesday next. Made the trip by motor. Mr. Owen belongs to P. E. I. but Mrs. Owen was formerly from Port Howe. It is 22 years since Mr. Owen has been East and sees many changes in that time.—Amherst News.

DEATH OF MRS. JOHN MCKENZIE—The death of Angelina, widow of the late John McKenzie, occurred at her home on Notre Dame Street, Summerside, on Tuesday, November 7th, at 11 p.m. There are left to mourn two daughters, the Misses Viola and Katie, and one son, Mr. M. L. Frank McKenzie. One daughter, Devona, predeceased her mother some time ago. Many friends throughout the Province will sympathize with the family in their loss. The funeral will take place on Friday from St. Mary's Anglican Church, Summerside, at 2 o'clock. Interment in the People's Cemetery.

MURRAY HARBOR NORTH PRESBYTERIAN Church celebrated on Oct. 25th its Golden Jubilee of its present edifice. The Murray Harbor North congregation came into being on July 6, 1806, when Rev. James MacGregor, D.D., landed at Murray Harbor North, coming from Pictou to (Three Rivers) now known as Georgetown and thence to Murray Harbor. On this occasion he preached two sermons in the home of Mrs. James Irving, a Dumfrieshire Presbyterian. Rev. Neil MacKay mentions in the memoir of the Rev. James MacGregor that at the time of Mr. MacGregor's first visit to Murray Harbor there were only three actual settlers, besides a number of fishers employed in the fishing industry, established in 1805 by Mr. Cambridge. The fishers at that time were living in Mr. Cambridge's store. This point is now known as Murray Harbor North.

WEDDING BELLS—A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday, November 8th at 8 p. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Pickering on Convent Street, Summerside, when their eldest daughter, Miss Marjorie Isabella, was united in marriage to Mr. Alfred Edison Colwell, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Woodland Colwell of Northam. The drawing room was tastefully arranged with yellow and white chrysanthemums and autumn leaves. The ceremony took place under an arch of autumn leaves and chrysanthemums of the same shades. Rev. C. J. St. Clair Jeans was the officiating clergyman. Miss Helen Peters played the wedding march as the bride entered the room with her father, who gave her in marriage. The bride was charming in a love-line gown of white satin; her veil, fastened with a wreath of orange blossoms, hung in graceful folds to the hem of her dress; her bouquet was of white chrysanthemums and maiden hair fern. Miss H. Ruth Pickering, attended her sister, and was dressed in a silk crepe dress of canary with a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. Mr. William Hayes of Tyne Valley acted as best man. About seventy guests were present. After the ceremony the young couple were congratulated by the members of their immediate families. Miss Helen Peters played the retiring march as the bridal couple left the room. A dainty wedding supper was served to the guests at which Rev. Mr. Jeans proposed the toast to the newly-wedded couple. A sitting in serving were Mrs. George McCallum; Mrs. W. G. Phillips and Mrs. Kenneth Campbell, of Tyne Valley, aunts of the bride; Miss Alice Gordon, Miss Pearl Yeo of Northam; Miss Amy Bryan of Lot 11; and Miss Violet Gillespie. Besides the groom's parents, the bride's grand-mother, Mrs. Alfred Phillips of Tyne Valley was present. Among the out of town guests were Mr. James Colwell of Moncton, N. B., uncle of the groom; and Mr. Benjamin Rees of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Colwell will reside in Northam. Previous to her marriage the bride was the guest of hon-ur at several showers when she received many lovely gifts. The Guardian joins in heartiest congratulations.—S.

Y'S MEN'S CLUB—At the weekly meeting of the Y's Men's Club held last night in the Y. M. C. A. parlors, Y's Man Ray Pendleton presided, and had as his speaker Dr. George S. Patterson, late of Japan and now of the National Council of the Y. M. C. A. staff in Canada. Dr. Patterson gave a very interesting review of the Japanese situation in regards to their military activities in China. Y's Man George Craig gave a very creditable report on the Hallowe'en dance which was well received. Y's Man Gordon Hutcheson then presented Y's Man Claude Smith with the club daddy in honor of an arrival in Claude's home lately. The following guests were present and introduced to the club: Mr. Alexander Scott, Mr. Manning Archibald and Mr. W. E. Bentley.

MUCH ENJOYED PARTY—A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Reeves, Kensington on Monday, Nov. 6th, when their many friends gathered from far and near to make merry the birthday party tendered Mr. E. H. Burt. The evening was spent in games, singing and dancing, music being furnished by Anthony Bernard which sure made them step. A buffet lunch was served by the ladies. Many jokes were passed which caused much laughter, especially when Mr. Burt was bounced and left his toe marks in the ceiling. After singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" they all left for their different homes thanking the hostess for her hospitality and the pleasant evening spent, and hoping they would have many more together.
