THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block--Charlottetown.

The latest news, first of all.

The Rev. John Gillis, will preach next Sabbath at Bradalbane at 3 p. m.

The tide will be high this morning at 8.51 and tomorrow morning at 8.34.

Another big carnival at the Arena Friday night. Admission only 15 cents.

Miss Hattie Drake, Corawall, is dressmaking with Mrs. Alex Stevenson Corawall.

The charity Social to be given by the Knights of Columbus has been postponed until after Easter.

The date of the big carnival at the Arena is Friday the 19th. Get a costume ready for this date.

On account of the heavy snow storm yesterday the winter steamers did not leave port, nor did the ice-boats cross.

Everyone should remember the big carnival, Friday night in the Arena. Get a costume ready, the admission is only fifteen cents.

Rev. Edwin Smith, Cardigan, came to the city yesterday and proceeded to Hunter River, where he was to have lectured last night on Newfoundland.

A nice lot of literature including one hundred books has just been received at the Dodd Public Library and are now being made ready for circulation.

Hear and see Miss Holcomb in the famous "Mirror Song" tonight at New Wonderland. It is her own original song, and one of the most fetching ones of the day.

Have you seen the "Minon Song" demonstrated as it should be? If not come to New Wonderland tonight and see Miss Holcomb. Hear her sing "Carrissama" which is one of her selections for tonight.

When forwarding to this office coupons, also subscriptions for votes, some persons address to News Department, others to Advertising Department, others merely to The Guardian but all should be addressed "Tour Editor, The Guardian, Charlottetown."

H. Binns, New Glasgow, has the sole agency of this Province for "Vol-Peek" a preparation for repairing holes in enamelware, tinware, aluminum, iron, granite and agate. The advertisement appears in another column and should be read by every thrifty housekeeper.

Telephone subscribers please add to their directories:—249-J. H. H. Crossman, painter; 360-J. Prince House; H. Hooper, Prop; 44-L. E. T. Higgs' residence; 234-L. Dr. J. S. Bagnall's residence; 201—Free Dispensary for the Poor; 368-L. K. H. Ferguson's residence; 35-L. P. Burke's residence; 346-J. Jas. Callaghan's residence.

Horsemen will read with interest the letter which W. S. McKie of this City has received from Benjamin Pope of Boston, which appears elsewhere, and in which he says Oakesley Baron colts are high priced in New England, one for instance, if entered in the regular futurity stakes, would demand a price of five thousand dollars.

The usual South African memorial service will be held in St. James Church at 11 o'clock a. m. next Sunday. All officers and men of the different units are requested to meet in the schoolroom in uniform at 10.45. After the service which will be conducted by the Rev. T. F. Fullerton, the veterans will repair to the monument, where a short service will be held.

At a meeting of the executive of the Teachers' Association of Prince Edward Island, held recently in this City, it was decided to appropriate a considerable amount of the grant from the Provincial Legislature in prizes for Freshman drawing. The schools are to be divided into three groups. The first group consisting of the schools of Summerside, Charlottetown and Hillsboro Consolidated Schools. Second, first class and graded schools and third the primary schools. Three prizes are to be given to the schools of the first group. Five to the second and seven to the third. It is hoped that by holding out some such inducement teachers may give more attention to the teaching of drawing. Further details will be announced later. Teachers should begin at once to prepare their pupils for the contest.

"See Bob Bixely in black face comedy tonight at New Wonderland. He is the best black face comedian on the stage today.

Rev. Mgr. Gillis, Indian River, was in the City yesterday.

Dr. Murphy, Tignish, is in the City attending the Medical Convention.

Miss Mary McEwen, City, leaves tonight on an extended trip to Salem, Mass.

Dr. McGrath, Bloomfield, came to the city yesterday to attend the Medical meeting.

Persons desiring information by phone about the Guardian's Big Free Trip are requested to ask Central for 132-2.

The excellence of the program to be put on at New Wonderland tonight, can be seen by the reader on page four.

The program of the entertainment in St. Paul's School-room appears in this issue and should be read by everyone.

Frank Riggs, City, while skating on the river on Saturday afternoon, had the misfortune to fall, badly cutting his forehead.

The Bridge whist at the Armories tonight will start at 8.30 in the offices and N. C. O's mess rooms. The dancing will start at the same hour in the orderly rooms.

A Sunday School Teachers' Bible Class, taking up the study of next Sunday's lesson will meet in the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday evening. Henry Smith will preside. All are invited.

Any person in this Province who fishes flounders or flatfish as they are commonly known, should correspond with J. P. Hood of The Guardian at once.

It is understood that Walter S. Grant of Truro, N. S., at present District Superintendent of the Nova Scotia Telephone Company, has accepted the position as manager of the P. E. I. Telephone Co. in this City. Mr. Grant, who has been the guest of his brother C. Leonard Grant of this City, is now at Georgetown en route to his home.

On Monday evening, the folks of Strathcona gathered at the home of Sam Burhoe and after welcoming back their old neighbors Mr. and Mrs. Burhoe, a very enjoyable evening was spent. The time was occupied in playing games, greatly enjoyed by young and old, and in vocal and instrumental music, which was well rendered by one of Strathcona's talented ones. Then came the refreshments which were eagerly partaken of, and as the midnight hour was approaching, the guests arose and departed feeling that they had been royally entertained.—Com.
