Farewell Gathering

On the evening of Monday, September 2nd, a large number of the members and adherents of the Presbyterian Churches of Clifton, Long River, French River and Granville assembled in the Presbyterian Church, Clifton, for the purpose of saying farewell to Mr. John Fleck, student catechist, who has been in charge of these four churches for the past upwards of two and a half years.
 Rev. R. Hensley Stavert, Moderator of the Sessions of these congregations presided and conducted a short devotional service. Following this service came the reading of the following address by Rev. Mr. Stavert.
 Mr. John Fleck,
 Dear Mr. Fleck—
 For several months we the members and adherents of the Presbyterian churches of Clifton, Long River, French River and Granville have been hearing from time to time that it was altogether likely that you would be going away to attend college during the coming term. While we realized that it is absolutely necessary that young men should attend college in order to be properly equipped for their great life's work yet we found ourselves sort of hoping against hope that you might in some way arrange your plans as to be able to remain with us a while longer, but of late we have come to know that any such hope is not to be realized. We now know that you have decided to leave us, that is at least for the present, and that too in the very near future.
 Having come to realize that you were indeed going away we felt that we could not allow you to go, until we had tried to tell you in some imperfect way how much we have enjoyed having you minister to us in the sacred things of life during the past two and a half years and how much we have appreciated what you have done for us. As you no doubt know when you came to us we were as sheep without a shepherd.
 For several years we had been without a pastor. While we were given stated supply of quite a high order during a good part of our vacancy yet we felt the need of one who would go in and out among our homes, one to whom we could go at any hour of need, one in whom we could always find a kind and sympathetic friend.
 Although you were only young in years we learned that you had had several years in the work of the christian ministry and as the time went by we soon came to realize that in you we had found the one who was able to meet our long felt needs.
 When you came before us on the Sabbath day or at the prayer meetings during the week we felt that you always had a message for us. That message we felt came to us out of hours of deep study meditation and prayer and when delivered it seemed to us at times as if your lips had been touched as if by a live coal from off the very altar of the living God. It is needless to say then that these messages were to us the source of much inspiration and comfort.
 When you shall have gone and we no longer have anyone to speak to we shall sorely miss your many inspiring and comforting sermons. And we shall also miss you in our homes. It mattered very little at what hour of the day or of the night you came to us you were always welcome. There have been ministers of whom their people sometimes stand in awe. It was not so in our attitude toward you. By your genial manner and ever cheerful spirit you have endeared yourself to all.

 And while we shall thus miss you in a general way under ordinary circumstances in our homes, when the days of sorrow and of trial shall come as come they will from time to time into every home, we then shall feel your loss more keenly. Those of us who have known sorrow and trial since you came into our midst have come to realize what a strength and comfort you have been to us in our hours of deep need. When these days shall come again as they may at any time into any of our homes we shall then long but in vain for your inspiring presence and your comforting words.
 Thus under these various circumstances and throughout these various experiences in our lives we shall feel our need of you. But knowing that your going away is necessary in order that you might be the better fitted to meet the needs of others in days to come we shall not murmur nor complain. We shall bow in submission to what we believe to be God's plan for your life and shall all join in wishing you God speed as you go out to take up your studies.
 Before saying farewell to you we would ask you to kindly accept this small gift as a slight token of the esteem in which you are held by us. We would ask you to value this not so much because of its intrinsic worth but rather because of the expression of admiration and of good will conveyed by the giving of it from us to you.
 And now farewell. May God's richest blessing ever follow you. May happiness and good fortune be your constant attendants upon life's way. And should it be that in the near or in the not far distant future you should come to spend a while in our Island Province always remember that a hearty welcome into all of our homes will be found awaiting you.
 Signed on behalf of the people of Clifton, Long River, French River and Granville.
 Shortly before the closing of the reading of the address Mr. Robert McKay the Senior Elder of the Clifton Session came forward and presented Mr. Fleck with a well filled purse. In a short address Mr. Fleck told of the great kindnesses shown to him by all of the people and thanked them for their generous gift. Short addresses were then made by Messrs. Robert McKay, Andrew McLeod, Hugh Corbett, Angus Green, H.

evening throughout was a very pleasant one and not soon to be forgotten by all who were present.

HAULED CHAMPION LOADS
 Mention was recently made in the Guardian of a champion heavy load hauled on a farm wagon to Kensington. A more surprising example comes from Mr. W. A. Mutch's farm, Hopeton, where a load of 136 bushels of turnips was hauled by two horses right out of the field and another load of 120 bushels of potatoes was hauled by one team. These loads constitute a record of which any farmer might be proud. Prince Edward Island horses are great workers.

Many will be sorry to hear of the illness of Mr. Casley Adams, Darnley.—M.
 About eleven o'clock Wednesday night, the home of Mr. Dan Champion, Darnley, was burned, and as a result of it Mr. and Mrs. Champion and four children are left homeless. The origin of the fire is not certain, but it is thought that it may have been from some oil cans that were near the house.
