TUESDAY

—LIGHTNING'S FREAKS.—The storm of last week caused Mr. A. Huestis of Unionvale, to lose two valuable cows. Mr. Wright the mailman for Campbellton met with the same misfortune. The lightning also struck the house of Mr. W. E. Brooks at Maddock causing damage. On the same evening Mrs. Joseph Dalton of Cape Wolfe received a severe shock while going toward her home.—W.

—RESULTS OF STORM.—During the electrical storm last week two valuable cows belonging to Messrs. H. B. and Alvin Huestis, at O'Leary were killed near a wire fence in the pasture. The St. Edward school was badly damaged. Two corner casings, with shingles were ripped off from top to bottom and post split. The school door was broken, and on the roof large patches of shingles were taken off with the boards left broken and split.

—WEDDING BELLS.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. William MacDonald at Peter's Road, Lot 63, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on the afternoon of Wednesday, July 24, when their niece, Mary Lois Bears became the bride of Mr. Angus W. MacMillan who is to occupy a position on the teaching staff of Murray River school during the coming term. The bride, who was gowned in grey silk and carried a beautiful bridal bouquet, was attended by Miss Luella MacMillan of Wood Islands, while the groom was supported by Mr. Malcolm Blue of Little Sands. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Archibald Sutherland in the presence of the immediate friends of the contracting parties. A dainty supper was served, after which the happy couple left for the groom's home at Wood Islands where they will spend a few weeks before taking up their residence at Murray River.

—WEDDING BELLS.—St. Andrew's Church, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Monday July 15th when Annie Coffin daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Artemas Coffin, Glenroy, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Andrew McInnis of Tracadie. The Pastor, Rev. A. P. McLellan tied the nuptial knot. The bride was gowned in a suit of brown broadcloth and wore a white hat and was attended by Miss Hannah Fisher of Fort Augustus, who wore a suit of blue serge with white hat to match. The groom as ably supported by Mr. J. J. McDonald of Tracadie Cross. After the marriage ceremony the bridal party left the church for the home of the bride where a splendid wedding breakfast awaited them. After spending a few happy hours they left by auto for Fort Augustus to the home of the bridesmaid when dinner awaited them. In the evening they left for the home of the groom where they were heartily welcomed by relatives and friends. An enjoyable dance brought the days festivities to a close. The presents were numerous and costly, showing the popularity of the happy couple.

—ISLANDER CAPTURES MURDERER.—The Boston Post last week contained a lengthy sensational account of the capture after a severe fight of Paul Codispoti, an Italian, wanted for murder, by Patrolman Amos McAulay of the Revere Mass., police force, a native of P. E. Island. Codispoti was wanted for the murder of another Italian, Carriotti, a bar-tender, who was shot in the bath-room of a Howard Street flat. He was shot over the heart and neck. After the tragedy the Italian escaped from the house and ran through the streets. His shouts drew a crowd and soon a mob was in pursuit. Codispoti fired two shots at the crowd as he ran. The mob dispersed and kept back out of range. Codispoti darted into the marsh between Revere St. and Oak Island. Patrolman McAulay came along. He pursued Codispoti across the marsh. At this time patrolman Delaney, a motor-cycle officer on the North Shore road, learned of the murder. He raced his machine from the Point of Pines to Oak Island and, throwing the motorcycle to the roadside, ran across the marsh to head off the fugitive. Delaney wore a khaki uniform and the slayer probably did not know he was an officer. When Delaney caught sight of Codispoti he fired five shots at him. McAulay then came up and Codispoti, who was hemmed in between the officers, opened fire. All three were firing simultaneously and the autoists on the North Shore witnessed the battle. The Italians fired three shots at Delaney and hid in the grass in a ditch. As Delaney drew near he fired into the eelgrass, but none took effect. Codispoti would raise up and shoot and duck down again. He would fire a shot at Delaney and then give McAulay his attention. Delaney had only five shots in his revolver. He fell prostrate to the ground about 40 feet from Codispoti before he fired the last two shots. Both officers had to continually change their positions to avoid hitting each other. As Delaney fired his last shot he motioned to McAulay to draw in closer. McAulay, crouching low, got within 20 feet of the Italian. He fired two shots and one took effect in Codispoti's right shoulder and rendered his arm useless. The other shot took effect in the right side of the neck. Patrolman McAulay referred to as a son of Mr. James McAulay of O'Leary. The Post contains a good portrait of him.

MILITARY MEDAL RECEIVED.—Mrs. John E. Andrew, East Royalty, has received the Military medal awarded to her son Fred for gallantry at the front, to which reference was made in the Guardian at the time. It will be recalled that this brave soldier went to France as a private, won his medal as a private and was recommended for a commission. He has since qualified in England for a Lieutenancy and after a pleasant visit to the former home of his grand parents in Scotland, he is now ready to resume dealings with the Germans. His many friends will wish him continued good.

DR. CREAMER DEAD.—Mr. D. O'M. Reddin yesterday morning received a telegram from New York announcing the death there of Dr. Joseph M. Creamer, son of the late Dr. Creamer formerly of Charlottetown. Information as to the cause of the sad event has not yet been received. The deceased gentleman was a popular physician. He was educated at St. Dunstan's College and was well known in this community. His untimely death will cause his widow and mother—eldest daughter of the late Judge Reddin—much anguish. The Guardian heartily sympathizes with her, and with all other bereaved relatives.

TWICE WOUNDED.—A telegram was received in the city Saturday stating that Gunner Joseph Neil Bradley, Artillery, had been wounded in action, and had been admitted to No. 1 Stationary Hospital. He was wounded in two places—the right shoulder and right thigh. Gunner Joseph Neil Bradley is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bradley, of 28 Spring Park Road, City. He enlisted in the 6th Siege Battery Draft and crossed to France in March, 1918. He also has two other brothers serving their King and country. His many friends hope that his wounds are not of a serious nature, and will anxiously await the good news from him in the near future.

ISLANDER'S DEATH.—A Shasta Springs California paper, of recent date, contains the following reference to the death of Mr. William H. Hazard, formerly of Charlottetown: It is with deep regret we announce the death of our neighbor and fellow townsman, Mr. William H. Hazard, of Clarington Avenue. For many years he has lived in this community, an honor to it. A Canadian by birth, he had made America his home since early manhood, honoring her institutions, moulding his life and actions by her ideally perfect principles. Of a reserved and retiring disposition, his never failing courtesy and kindly smile won him many sincere friends and admirers, who deeply mourn his loss. For years he had been identified with the hotel interests of Southern California, and for the past three years has been general manager of the Shasta Springs Hotel, in the northern part of the state. It was at Shasta Springs, while in the discharge of his duties, and after a brief illness of two days of angina pectoris, death, that irresistible reaper, reached out a hand and claimed him. The sympathy of all who knew them goes out to the bereaved widow.

—SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.—The annual convention of the O'Leary district of the Sunday School Union opened Thursday afternoon in the Methodist church at Maddock, Rev. R. Brodie in the chair. The program was as follows: Devotions led by Rev. R. Brodie; minutes of last convention read by Mrs. A. McNeill; (1) Presidents report; (2) Secretary-Treasurers; (3) Department; Superintendent's report; (4) Charting of schools by the Rev. W. A. Ross which revealed that the Presbyterian school at O'Leary and the Methodist at Maddock had reached the hundred standard. The other thirteen schools showed an advance on that of last year; (5) Committees appointed; (6) Hymn; (7) Address by Mrs. H. Mellock on the home department; (8) Hymn; (9) Conference on Sunday school problems led by the general secretary in which a number took part including Mr. Jardine, the treasurer for the island; (9) Hymn and benediction. Mr. Jardine of Summerside lead the devotions at the evening session after which Mr. W. E. Brooks reported for the nominating committees as follows: President, Watson Silliker; Vice-President, J. R. Dignan; Secretary-Treasurer, W. E. Brooks; Recording Secretary,

You pay the same war tax on a pound of cheap, poor tea that you pay on Red Rose. In other words you pay 10¢ war tax on a cheap tea which will make perhaps 150 cups to the pound and you pay the same 10¢ tax on a pound of Red Rose which easily makes about 250 cups.

You will find today more value, more economy, more real satisfaction in Red Rose Tea than ever before.

It is truly a war time tea.

Mrs. A. McNeill, Elementary Division Supt., Miss May McLennan; Secondary Div. Supt. E. J. Lidstone; Adult Div. Supt., Mrs. G. H. Mellock; Administration Div. Supt., Rev. R. Brodie; Education, Mrs. A. McNeill; Bible Reading, Mrs. R. Murray; Executive, clergyman of the district, Messrs A. J. Matheson, Thos Smallman Sr., John Moreshead and Major Boulter and Mr. E. J. Lidstone reported for the resolution committee in which a vote of thanks to the pastor and the friends of the church was carried. Mr. J. A. Matheson followed with an excellent address on temperance and the General Secretary gave a fine address on his visit to the international S. S. Convention. The convention was the best yet held in the district.—W.

WEDNESDAY

FOX LITTERS.—The Black Fox Magazine for July says: This season the reports to hand show that the average number of foxes born per litter was larger than in any former year. In some localities, however, owing to the very severe winter, a number of young foxes were lost. This was due entirely to the ranchers who were unprepared. The fact that a large number of foxes were born shows conclusively that foxes in captivity do not have smaller litters each year as some have claimed they do.

HOWARD—LEWIS—On Wednesday evening July 17th at the residence of Mr. George Vessey, York, his granddaughter, Miss E. Marjorie Lewis was married to Mr. Hazen Howard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howard of Cornwall. Rev. F. H. Littlejohns was the officiating minister. Favoured by the beautiful weather the ceremony took place on the lawn under a bower of maple leaves. The bride looked charming, leaning on the arm of her father, gowned in a dress of net over white silk. She wore a veil wreathed in orange blossoms. The double ring service was used and little Mary Scott was the pretty and attractive ring bearer. The wedding gifts were numerous costly, chaste and useful, including several cheques. The grooms present to the ring bearer was a bracelet. The bride was a member of the teaching profession and was recently in charge of the public school at Cornwall. Both the young people are much respected in the community and their many friends most earnestly wish them many years of married happiness. About fifty invited guests were present. Miss Mary Howard, sister of the groom played the wedding march.

ST. ANN'S DAY.—On Sunday last at Lennox Island, the feast of the patron saint, St. Ann, was fittingly observed by the Micmac Indians. At eleven o'clock High Mass was celebrated in St. Ann's Church by Rev. John A. McDonald, the pastor. The sacred edifice was crowded to its utmost capacity. The sermon for the occasion was very ably preached by Rev. Leo Herrell of Coleman. Among the congregation were Chief Sark in full regalia and his son John Sark who had been wounded while in service in France, accompanied by his English bride.

WEDDING BELLS.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Todd, Bradalbane, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday, July 24th, when their daughter, Margaret Mae, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Alexander MacDonald, of Springfield, this date being the thirtieth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Todd's wedding. The guests were received by the bride's sister, Mrs. Angus Gillis, Miss Maude Kennedy, and Mrs. H. MacKay. At 8 o'clock the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, walked to an arch of evergreens, ferns and flowers, which had been erected on the lawn, to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, beautifully rendered by Miss Jeanette MacDonald. The bride was assisted by her sister, Miss Eliza, while the groom was ably supported by his cousin, Mr. Walter MacKenzie. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Goodwill, in the presence of about one hundred guests. The bride wore a becoming gown of white crepe de chene, with the usual conventional veil and carried a bouquet of orange blossoms. The bridesmaid was attired in a costume of Nile green crepe de chene, with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of roses. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful pendant set with pearls, and to the bridesmaid a string of pearls. After the ceremony all repaired to the dining room, which was tastefully decorated for the purpose,

The Bious Habit

Some people have bious spells, about every so often until they get to be a habit. The liver is at fault. Get the liver right by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and the bile will not collect in the blood until it poisons you. There is no one organ in the human body which has so great a control of health as the liver. Hence the far-reaching effect of this treatment.

SEVERE RHEUMATIC PAINS DISAPPEAR

Rheumatism depends on an acid in the blood, which affects the muscles and joints, producing inflammation, stiffness and pain. This acid gets into the blood through some defect in the digestive process. Hood's Sarsaparilla, the old-time blood tonic, is very successful in the treatment of rheumatism. It acts directly, with purifying effect, on the blood, and improves the digestion. Don't suffer. Get Hood's today.
