Hawks Once More Leading Big Three

Wolverines Turned Back At Moncton Last Night 1 To Nil In Rugged Game—Gill And Shields Get Major Penalties.

(Canadian Press)
MONCTON, Feb. 1.—The Moncton Hawks regained possession of first place in the Maritime Hockey League here tonight by applying a thin coat of shellac to the Halifax Wolverines. The score was 1 to 0.

Rough Hockey

It was a rough engagement with some dazzling hockey thrown in, but while the teams were shorthanded, which was often, they swung back on the defensive and employed the various stalling methods. The only goal of the game came early in the third period when Walker stopped a Wolverine raid at the Moncton blue-line and raced down the ice. Flanked by Sammy McManus, the big defense drew Lavigne and Graham together before slipping a pass over to McManus, who skated in before rifling the rubber into the upper corner of the net.

Goal Not Counted

The fans put up a mighty roar about midway in the first period, when McManus and James crashed through on Sargeant and in a scramble McManus shoved the rubber into the goal. Sargeant pulled it out and the goal judge apparently did not see it. Lennon, playing at centre, was the outstanding threat for the Wolves tonight, although Ferguson gave him able support. Gordon Kennedy was used sparingly.

Shields and Gill in Fist Fight

High sticks, charging and illegal checking were much to the fore. Shields and Gill tangled in earnest when the Wolves' right winger pushed the Hawk defenseman back with his stick near the Halifax blue-line. The boys laid down their sticks and went at it. Gill had an advantage and pounded Shields heartily as the referees stood by and looked on. They were given ten minute penalties each. The Hawks had the better of the play tonight, but erratic passing and poor shooting cost them additional goals. The Wolves tried hard but seemed unable to solve the blocking tactics of the Hawk rearguard and the relentless back-checking of the Nicklin clan.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

(By "Tec")
Any word from Moncton? How's the game going? What's the score? These and many other questions were fired in rapid succession via local and long distance telephone last night to such an extent that the writer was forced to call it a night, after counting more than one hundred and fifty calls. The deluge of enquiries from interested hockey fans throughout the city and province, began to fall off towards midnight, but calls continued to trickle in as late as two o'clock this morning. One chap in particular gave us a "ring" at exactly 2:30, and when acquainted of the result, thanked the tired Sports Ed. and added—now I'll go to bed. Where was this rabid fan at that hour of the morning, if not in bed?
Oh, yes, what was it all about?
Well, you see, Moncton Hawks and Halifax Wolverines, to give them their correct names, were battling in a Big Three Loop fixture on Moncton ice with the temporary leadership of the second section swinging in the balance. Local fans were pulling—pardon the slang, "Reader"—for a Hawk triumph because a win for the Nicklin, I nearly said clan, would place Abegweit in a more advantageous position, as a Red Shirt victory over Wolverines here tomorrow night will place them on Jack Conn's wheel, or in other words just two points in the rear of a tie for second place position. Therefore, my hearties, let's get together—all together and give Abegweit the biggest hand they've ever received when they battle the Halifax crew tomorrow night.

Travelling Fast

Judging by the form and keenness displayed by the Abbie front line of Jemmett, Kane, Cook and Nicholson yesterday morning, it looks as if the Beaton, Hudson, McArthur line will have to look to their laurels when they clash with Wolves in this coming important fixture. The defence never looked better and "Daddy" Bubar is in championship form. All in all the team is ready for the Halifax squad—and what a battle this will be.

Hockey Rules

The fan from Canoe Cove, who requests a book of hockey rules, is advised to write Mr. J. E. Sterns, City, Vice President M. A. H. A. He has rule books galore.

Playing In Winnipeg

The many friends of young Jack Milford, formerly of this city, who is a son of Mrs. Milford and the late Carl Milford, will be pleased to learn that Jack has a regular berth at centre on the Columbus Club hockey team in Winnipeg. Reports have it that the youthful Islander is playing great hockey for his team.

Believe It Or Not

Bill Gill, Moncton Hawk defenseman, has now 106 minutes to his "credit" with the penalty timers of the "Big Three Loop." Lavigne of the Wolves "boasts" of 93.

ABBIE SISTERS 4 MILLIONAIRES 0

Rangers Increase Lead In Midget League, Defeating Ramblers 2-0.

Stepping onto the ice at the Forum last evening the Abbie and Millionaire Sisters showed plenty of speed and pep in their initial encounter of the season. The wearers of the red and black, showing greater superiority on the attack, registered a four to nil victory. Making sortie after sortie on the Millionaire's net, the Abbie front liners were only prevented from adding to their scoring by the sterling net minding of Anna Bennett, Millionaire netminder, who stopped shots from all angles. On the other hand, Doris Rodd, Abbie net guardian, put in a quiet evening as all Millionaire plays came to a standstill at the Abbie Sisters' defence.

The first counter was marked up when "Moo" Weeks, holding down left lane, got in a nice wing shot to rattle the rubber past Bennett within three minutes of the face off. Vimy Jones, who played a whale of a game in the pivot position, tallied the second marker at the four minute mark when she slipped past the Millionaire defense to shoot a high one past Bennett who sprawled in an attempt to save. S. Cunningham, playing centre position on the second line, got the third Abbie marker near the close of the period.

Vimy Jones scored the last Abbie goal in the first minute of the second stanza on a lone effort. The Millionaires rallied to hold the Abbie Sisters scoreless the remaining twenty-nine minutes, and tried to force the play as they started counter attacks, but their every attempt was frustrated by the fast skating Abbie forwards. The hockey of the evening came in the third period when both teams opened out, especially the Millionaires, who made desperate efforts to prevent a shut out. Both their front lines and defense played hard, but again the Abbie ranks proved impenetrable and they were forced to bend to the above decision. Three penalties were handed out by referee Fred Moore in this session. Amy Wheatley of the Millionaires drew the first forced rest to be followed shortly after by Jones and McInnis of the Abbies.

Chick Williams coached the Millionaires while Jimmie Herrell guided the destinies of the Abbie Sisters.

LINESUPS

Abbie Sisters: Goal, Doris Rodd; defence, Irma Patterson, Marjorie Fraser; forwards, Vimy Jones, Dot Bentley "Googs" MacInnis, Gwen Rogers, Mary Owen, Marjorie Rook, "Moo" Weeks and L. Cunningham.
Millionaire Sisters: Goal, Anna Bennett; defence, Nan McKay, Evelyn McKenzie; forwards, Jean Dillon, Elsie McInnis, Bessie McMillan, Greta Barbour, Theima Currie and Amy Wheatley.
Referee—Fred Moore.

MIDGET GAME

The West End Rangers took a 2-0 decision from the East End Ramblers in a hard fought midget game. Murray scored the initial counter in the second period on a pass from McEachern. "Buffer" Worth clinched the game in the middle of the third session when he grabbed the puck at the blue line to place it behind Pop Doyle.

LINESUPS

Ramblers—Goal, Pop Doyle; defence, Trainor, Richardson, MacKinnon; forwards, Peters, Capt. Flanagan, Roach, Coyle, Kelly, Williams, E. Blanchard, McTague.
Manager D. Hennessey, Coach, Referee—Chester Campbell.

NO EVIDENCE

The Winnipeg syndicate, said Mr. Bennett, "has produced no evidence that it has any agreement with the Soviet Government and no communication regarding the proposal has been received from them."
The Prime Minister's statement which was made in the course of a lengthy review of the trade relations between Canada and Russia, follows: "While returning to Canada from Great Britain, in December last, I received press messages that an agreement had been concluded between Canada and Russia for the exchange of Canadian cattle, hides and other commodities for Russian petroleum and coal. I replied that there was no foundation for such reports. No communication of any kind has been received from the Soviet Government in this regard."

"It would appear that one G. G. Serkau, with certain associates, conceived the idea of doing a barter business with Russia and Mr. Serkau, having seen Mr. Weir, the Minister of Agriculture, at Ottawa, proceeded to New York and later to Moscow in connection with the business. Although he alleges that he had communication with the authorities there, he has produced no evidence that he has any agreement with the Soviet Government and no communication regarding his proposals has been received from them. The mere statement of what the proposals of Mr. Serkau are would be sufficient to indicate that this is an effort to make very substantial profits under circumstances to which I shall presently refer. On the 21st December last, Mr. Serkau wrote Mr. Weir, the Minister of Agriculture, as follows: "Since we aim to obtain for the Canadian cattle producers at least five cents for grade and a much higher price for registered stock, the total amount payable by the Russian Government for 100,000 head of cattle, including freight, etc., will be in the neighborhood of $8,000,000. On the other hand, the prices at Black Sea ports of the commodities that Russia is to give in return are so low that it will require an enormous tonnage of petroleum products, etc."
"Having in mind the time required for marketing and storage facilities in Canada, I am of the opinion that there will be substantial balances owing to our corporation from time to time, unless, of course, we are to renew negotiations with Russia for a much slower delivery of the cattle, say over a period of two or two and a half years, instead of 12 months. This, however, I fear, will militate against our chances of producing the desired effect, i.e., to increase the price of cattle in Canada. Moreover, particularly in the case of western grade stock, you will appreciate that during the months of July to November, we will have to lift enormous numbers of cattle."
"I believe that my associates and myself, with what capital we could muster, and with expected assistance from banks or other sources, could finance the purchase of a cargo or two of cattle, including the freight and expenses to Black Sea ports. This, I estimate, would be about $1,000,000. Therefore, if we could take sufficient quantities of kerosene, lubricating oil and anthracite, we could probably get along without any financial support from your Government. Or, if we spread the deliveries of cattle over a period of two or two and a half years, as I said before, we may be able to market the products received in payment as we deliver the stock."
"But I am firmly convinced that it will be necessary for us to ship

BEAVERS TAKE CAPITALS INTO CAMP 1-0

Steve Estabrooks Scores Orphan Tally. Now Leading Scorer Of League.

(Canadian Press)
SAINT JOHN, N. B., Feb. 1.—Nosing out Fredericton Capitals 1-0 here tonight, Saint John Beavers rose to a position two points beneath the Fredericton team, who are leading the Southern New Brunswick Hockey League.
The lone goal, resulting from front-line combination play, was scored from close in by Estabrooks, assisted by Dickson, at 8:59 in the second period.

While Fredericton did good defensive work, Beavers had the edge in the first two periods, and outplayed their opponents by a wide margin during the final twenty minutes. The ice was very sticky.

FALCONS LOSE TO NAVY

After outscoring the Navy 23 to 16 in the first half, the Falcons wilted badly in the second canto and lost out to the fast travelling Reserves, 50 to 41 in a regular scheduled game of the men's basketball league at the Holy Name Club gym last night.

SUPERIORS WILL MEET WOLVES NEXT WEEK

(Canadian Press)
HALIFAX, Feb. 1.—Fresh from a triumphant march through most of Europe's outstanding hockey aggregations, the Edmonton Superiors will cut Canadian ice again next Monday night. The westerners are scheduled to land here Saturday, and after a week-end rest, will have a chance to shake the wobbles out of their sea-legs, will take on the local Wolverines in an exhibition.
After that they will hurry out to Alberta in time to get into the thick of the amateur playdowns, hooking up in the city series for the right to get into provincial final play.

"Mild Violence" Accompanies Strike In North Ireland

BELFAST, Northern Ireland, Jan. 31.—(Canadian Press Cable)—Spontaneous mild violence and interference with train operation marked the first day of the railway strike in Northern Ireland. Five thousand men walked out last night leaving only a skeleton force to carry on the service. There appeared no prospect of a settlement of the dispute which resulted from a wage cut.
When the train from Greenore, the mail port in County Louth, reached Dundalk, a party of men boarded the engine, poured water on the fire and removed the engineer and fireman. The engine crew was sent back to Greenore by automobile and the train was left standing at the station. Several similar incidents were reported from the affected area.

LEAFS OFFER REJECTED

(Canadian Press)
TORONTO, Feb. 1.—Frank Ahearn, President of the Ottawa Senators of the National Hockey League, has notified Connie Smythe of the Toronto Maple Leafs that Ottawa cannot accept the Leafs offer of a complete forward line in return for Hec Kilrea, speedy Senator left winger.

BILLIARDS

The third match in the big tournament was played last night when Frank Acorn won from Carl McKenna by a margin of 133 points, the scores reading 300 to 162.

Great interest in being taken in the different matches and when the boys hit their stride, the spectators will see some real billiards.

HOLY NAME CLUB

Last night at the Holy Name Club E. Proutie won from R. Dolron in a very close and exciting game. Much interest is taken in the games every night and the fans have their job cut out picking a winner.

to request that he be given such information as would satisfy him that any agreement existed between Mr. Serkau and his associates and the Soviet Union. This information has not yet been supplied. The letter reads as follows:
"Ottawa, Dec. 23, 1932.

"Dear Mr. Serkau:
"I would refer you to the subject matter of our discussions on various occasions since the 15th October, and particularly since your return from Russia, with regard to the purchase in Canada of 100,000 head of cattle for export to Russia, in exchange for petroleum products, etc., from that country to Canada."
"I would be glad to place before my colleagues the proposed transaction as outlined in the memorandum which you submitted upon receipt of a definite statement from you that the Government of the U.S.S.R. is desirous of entering into trade on such a basis as you outlined.
"Yours very truly,
"R. WEIR."

"No further communications have been received in that regard.
"I think this House will agree that no Canadian Government would seriously consider a proposal to provide credit facilities for a syndicate of vendors and at the same time to guarantee that the alleged purchasers, the Soviet Government, would discharge its obligations to the vendors."

Stubbs Declines Offer to Present

WINNIPEG, Jan. 31.—(C. P.)—Tired and hoarse from his extended occupancy of the witness box, Judge Lewis St. George Stubbs today concluded his evidence before a Commission enquiring into his judicial conduct.

Before he concluded, However, the judge declined to accept a suggestion by Mr. Justice Frank Ford regarding commission of evidence; defended himself against the final charges facing him, and branded "absolutely untrue" the denial by Mr. Justice W. H. Truman that he had interfered with administration of Justice.
Declaring it "hamstrings, embarrasses and handicaps me and ties my hands," the Judge strongly protested against the suggestion by Mr. Justice Ford to present in writing to Commission counsel any evidence the Judge desired to give in support of his contention that one law existed for the rich and another for the poor.

The purpose of this, the chairman said, was only to ascertain if the matter came within the scope of the enquiry, but the Judge said he would rather pass it up altogether because if this ruling had been effective earlier about nine-tenths of the evidence would have been excluded.

OTTAWA, Feb. 1.—(C. P.)—Re-assembling for the first time since the long adjournment taken Nov. 23 last, the Senate required only 15 minutes last night to dispose of the business on the order paper. Because of the absence of some Senators who had expressed a desire to pay their tributes, the customary references to the members who died during the adjournment, were not made. Four deaths occurred in the ranks of the Senate members since adjournment.
