Oshawa Wins 6-4 In Junior Semi-final Opener

TORONTO, March 23—(CP)—For 20 minutes tonight Ottawa St. Patrick's College were lost in the vastness of Maple Leaf Gardens and before they found the right track, Oshawa Generals had built up enough lead to save a 6-4 victory in the first game of a best-of-five series in the Eastern Canada junior hockey semi-final.

The vaunted Generals, overconfident after a first period in which they pumped home five goals, almost lost the game in its dying moments when St. Pats' vicious, never-say-die attack finally split the Generals' defence to shreds. At the finish Oshawa were hanging on.

The crowd of 2,200, derisive of St. Pats' opening period nervousness and particularly of goalie Ben Plourde's fanning on three long shots, remained to cheer the team's uphill fight and Plourde's brilliant third period play when he turned back a half dozen breakaway attacks by the Oshawa forwards.

Six Teams Resume Battle For Stanley Cup Tonight

MONTREAL, March 23—(CP)—A complete reversal of the form they displayed in Detroit Sunday is Canadiens' first objective for tomorrow night at the Forum. They hope for victory over Red Wings to square the best-of-three series.

Red Wings, with Don Grosso getting both their goals, noted out the Habitants, 2-1, on Sunday in the opener as the Detroit home-ice jinx took toll of Canadiens for the fifth consecutive time this season. The Habitants will strive to reverse this decision on their own ice, where they have won their last six starts and scored three victories in four games with the Wings during the regular schedule.

At New York, the Rangers, who lost the first two games of their series "A" four-of-seven-game clash with Toronto Maple Leafs, tonight called up two young players for tomorrow's third contest.

The players are Norm Burns and Norm Tustin, both of whom had been on loan to New Haven of the American Hockey League after playing a few games with the Rangers early in the season.

At Boston, a joyful squad of Bruins, determined to take Chicago Black Hawks in two straight games in their playoff series, arrived by plane late today after conquering their western rivals 2-1 in a sudden death overtime game last night.

The teams meet on Boston Garden ice tomorrow night. A third game, if necessary, will be played here Thursday. But the Bruins, although agreeing they still have a fight on their hands, are confident that the third game will be unnecessary.

"We'll mop them up tomorrow," was the unanimous cry as they debarked from their two planes at Boston airport.

Schmidt's goal, scored on a breakaway, smashed down a stubborn blockade thrown up in the Hamilton nets by 21-year-old Jack Eley and snapped a 1-1 tie which had lasted since midway through the first period.

Buddy Hellyer tipped in a pass from Al Campbell at 18:42 of the third period to clinch the game for the Flyers.

Majors, checking tenaciously but lacking offensive strength, suffered a costly blow with loss of Stan Robertson. The 23-year-old left wing crashed into a goal post in the first period after being dumped by Walt Murray of the Flyers.

Both teams left immediately after the game for Toronto where the second game of the series will be played Wednesday. The third game will be played in Ottawa Saturday.
