RECEPTION.—The Ottawa Journal says: A charmingly arranged reception was held on Saturday at the residence of Mrs. Earl C. Young, 85 Glen Avenue, who received the many guests wearing a very becoming gown of fawn georgette beaded over flesh-colored chiffon. The hostess was assisted in receiving by her mother Mrs. Walter B. Blyth, and Mrs. P. Lorne Young. Roses and chrysanthemums were used in decoration throughout the various rooms, while the pretty tea table was centered with a large basket of crimson roses and violets. The ladies presiding were Mrs. Lloyd MacLellan, Mrs. Fred Ferguson, and Mrs. G. Smith, who were assisted in serving refreshments by the Misses Vera Press, Mildred Ashfield, Eleanor York, Jean Blyth, and Anita Young. (Mr. Young was formerly of Charlottetown where he has many friends.)

LADIES AID.—An Auxiliary to the Ladies Aid of the Protestant Orphanage has been instituted at Murray Harbor, after four executive officers, representing the churches of the community.

STREET WORK GOES ON.—The ground was white with a fresh covering of snow yesterday morning. This did not prevent the work of laying asphalt on Queen Street from going ahead. The work of scraping off the snow was started the first thing in the morning and was soon accomplished and asphalt laying was proceeded with as usual. A strong effort will be made to finish the work on Queen Street before winter closes in.

WEDDING BELLS.—A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Ann's Church, Hope River, on Wednesday morning, November 19 when Mr. Benoit Blaquiere of North Rustico and Miss Mary Peters were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. Father Gaudet. The bride becomingly attired in a suit of blue with black picture hat was attended by her sister Miss Katie White. Mr. Alfred Peters cousin of the bride ably performed the duties of groomsmen. Immediately after the marriage ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of the brides parents Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peters, Martin, where wedding breakfast was served. In the afternoon they drove to the groom's home in North Rustico, followed by the best wishes of a host of friends for a long and happy married life.

NORTH RUSTICO NOTES.—Mr. E. L. LePage has moved into his commodious new dwelling house. Much regret is expressed over the departure of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Fleming from our midst. A host of best wishes follow them to their new home in the city. Mr. Thomas Doyle has returned to his home from a business trip to Summerside. The many friends of little Miss Marion McLean will be pleased to hear of her rapid recovery from her recent illness under the skilful treatment of Dr. E. L. Scantlebury. Mr. Alfred Pineau has recently returned from Maine after spending a few weeks at his old home. Mr. Mat. Dolron, recently returned from Toronto, where he has been attending a Military College. Mr. Stephen Marshall purposes leaving for Toronto in the near future where he will take a course in civil engineering. Mr. Harry Pursey is doing a rushing business in the smelt industry at present. North Rustico School is progressing favourably under the skilful management of Miss Reita Toombs. Mr. Simon Pineau and daughter Miss Gertrude were visitors to Summerside on Saturday.

Minard's Liniment Co., Limited.
Gentlemen—In July 1915 I was thrown from a road machine, injuring my hip and back badly and was obliged to use a crutch for 14 months. In Sept. 1906, Mr. Wm. Outridge of Lachute urged me to try MINARD'S LINIMENT, which I did with the most satisfactory results and today I am as well as ever in my life.
Yours sincerely,
MATTHEW X BAINES, mark.
