ASSESSMENT SYSTEM.

The Canadian Order of Foresters has a larger Surplus per head, and still larger for each $1,000 of risk carried, than any other Society of the kind in Canada. Surplus per member $21.82; per $1,000.00 of Insurance $20.96

All the money received from the monthly Insurance fees is placed into the Insurance Fund, and no portion of this fund or the interest accruing therefrom can be used for any purpose whatever other than the liquidation of death claim certificates. Not a fraction can be used for managing purposes.

All risks carefully selected. Being purely Canadian, we contract no risks in foreign countries, thus ensuring a low death rate. Our death rate of 5.44 of last year, and the average rate of 4.97 for the past nineteen years, speak for themselves.

For further particulars enquire of any of the Officers or Members of the Order, or address R. ELLIOTT, THOS. WHITE, H.C.R. Ingersoll, High Sec'y, Brantford, ERNST GARTUNG, S.O., Brantford.

A GOOD SERMON.

the full blaze of publicity. No false modesty, no disguised cowardice, no subtle form of selfishness must be permitted to betray them into the neglect of any duty of the Christian calling. Like a lamp on the lamp-stand, they must "give light to all that are in the house"—the house of business and the House of Parliament as well as the house of gentle, domestic life. The Christianity of Christ is not a melancholy, morbid, ascetic thing. It is vigorous, brave, truly human, and really helpful. It is intended to permeate every phase and aspect of human life until the whole lump is leavened.

RELIGIOUS SELF-INDULGENCE.

Therefore, as the text reminds us, even religious services and devotional exercises are not ends in themselves, but means to an end, and that great end is the Christianisation of the entire human race in this world, and as soon as possible. Our Lord on two memorable occasions in His human life sternly rebuked the most subtle form of ecclesiastical selfishness—religious self-indulgence. He restored the demoniac of Gadara, and when the insane maniacism of the Gadarenes drove Christ from their shore, the restored demoniac vehemently besought Him that he might be with Him; but Christ "suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go to thy house and to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and how He had mercy on thee" (Mark v. 19). Thus emphatically are we taught that to act as the saving salt of human society is better even than to hear Christ preach and to

ASTHMA PERMANENTLY CURED.

A Well-known Canadian Notary Public Suffered for 35 Years—Permanently Cured by Clarke's Kola Compound.

R. D. Pitt, Esq., Kamloops, writes: "I had suffered for at least 35 years from the great oppressiveness of asthma and shortness of breath. I had during these years consulted many physicians and tried all the remedies, until the doctor told me I might get temporary relief, but I would be always troubled. I tried Dr. Clarke's Kola Compound, and after taking the first bottle I became greatly relieved, and three bottles have completely cured me. I can now breathe as naturally as ever, and asthma does not trouble me in the least. I feel it my duty to bear testimony to the marvellous effect this remedy has had in my case, and would urge all suffering from this disease to try Clarke's Kola Compound, as only those who have suffered all these years as I have can appreciate what a blessing this remedy must prove to sufferers from asthma." Three bottles of Clarke's Kola Compound are guaranteed to cure. A free sample will be sent to any person troubled with asthma. Address Joe Griffiths & Macpherson Co. 121 Church street, Toronto, and Vancouver, B. C., sole Canadian agents. Sold by all druggists. When writing for sample mention this paper.

Clarke's Kola Compound is the only permanent cure for asthma; is now successfully used throughout the leading hospitals in England and Canada.

accompany Christ from place to place. The other incident was the Transfiguration. How promptly and decisively did Christ reject the idea of building a tabernacle there so as to hold devout intercourse with the greatest of the sainted dead, be wrapped in unearthly glory, and listen evermore to the Voice of God. Why? Because there was a demonised boy in the valley below, and His great business here was not to revel in the sympathy of Moses and Elijah, not to dwell in rapture upon the tender accents of the Eternal Father, but to "go about doing good."

And let us not flatter ourselves that we are in no danger of the great evil which our text so emphatically condemns. Some of the best-intentioned Christians are too apt to go to Keswick and Southport and other Holiness Conventions, while the hard and urgent work of human life is being neglected. Are we not also in danger of unduly considering our own tastes, and preferences and prejudices in the arrangements of the sanctuary, the service, and the pulpit? Some ministers are very popular because there is a subtle vein of flattery running through all their discourses; because they gratify intellectual curiosity; because they endorse our opinions; because they administer a kind of soothing syrup to our conscience; because in various ways they encourage us to please ourselves, to make no real sacrifices either of physical ease, or of intellectual self-assertion, or of confirmed habit, or of pecuniary gain, or of social reputation. But what have the disciples of Christ to do with such considerations? "Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and olive yards, and vineyards, and sheep and oxen, and menservants, and maidservants?" "I suppose, my brother," said a sleek devotionalist of this type to a zealous parish priest, "You would like to have a Quiet Day in your parish?" "No," roared the man of God, "What we want is earthquake." Yes, truly. What saith the Lord? "I came not to send peace, but a sword." Oh! how self-assertive and self-indulgent we often make our religion! This new year is a new opportunity. But for what? For mixing with our fellow-men, for elevating every sphere of life, for attacking every evil.

As Mr. Wainson once said, every corrupt and selfish interest, like the demon in the days of our Lord, is always crying out, "Let us alone." "Why are not Christians devout and truly religious? Why do you make yourselves such a nuisance?" Because that is our business. We are here to make this world unbearable to all who coin money or extract pleasure out of the damnation of their fellow-creatures. I will tell you the kind of Christian whom the devil and his servants are never tired of praising and flattering: The Christian who shuts himself up in his secret chamber or his church, who neglects his social, municipal, and imperial duties, whose great object is to avoid controversy and publicity, who carefully buries his salt in the earth, who wraps his conscience in a napkin, who hides his light under a bushel, who spends all his time in prayer and devout meditation and Bible study and sacramental services. Woe to you, if all men speak well of you! Woe to you, if you are not engaged in ceaseless warfare with the devil and his servants! To all those who are slumbering and sleeping in self-centered and self-absorbed religionism come the sudden, startling words of Christ: "Arise, let us go hence." The world is perishing of ignorance and sin and misery. Our place is no longer here—in the Upper Room, but in the stum, in the market, in the Council Chamber, in the Houses of Parliament, in the street, in all the highways and byways of life.

We must carry the war into the enemy's country. We must proclaim the Gospel to all men everywhere, until every knee bows to Christ and every tongue confesses Him Lord of all.

FILL THE WAR CHEST.

That is the ultimate message of the Twentieth Century Fund which every Wesleyan Methodist pulpit in the land announces and advocates to-day. Chapeis, services, sacraments, schools, guilds, classes—all these are mere instruments. The end is the salvation of all men—the formation of a Christ-like ideal in every beating heart. Renewed, universal, irreconcilable war with sin and misery—that is the Order of the Day. The money is in itself nothing. Its whole value lies in the fact that it is an expression of gratitude, and a sign that the Holy War is to be waged more fiercely than ever. When our American kinsmen proclaimed war against the hateful clerical despotism of Spain, their first practical, essential act was to vote an immense sum of money to military and naval preparations. When Mr. Gladstone feared Russian aggression in Asia, he promptly asked the House of Commons for twenty millions. The leaders of Methodism realise that we ought to begin the New Century with a new attack upon evil, and therefore they ask us for a special contribution of a million guineas. It is not a war loan with the hope of gain, but a war gift with the hope of being permitted to take some part in the glorious strife.

One word more. In this unparalleled Forward Movement, to which the voice of Christ is calling us, we shall not go forth alone. Ponder the happy Christian the precise terms of the Divine summons: "Let us go hence." "Us"—not you Christians by yourselves, in all your weakness and ignorance. "Us"—Christ goes too.

RIOT IN A THEATRE.

Two thousand men, women and children took part in a riot at the Star Theatre, Chicago, on Sunday. Owing to legal proceedings the curtain failed to go up. The people then clamoured for their money and it being refused they tore things to pieces. The money was eventually returned to those who presented coupons.

FOUND DEAD.

Mrs. Charles Fahrenkamp, aged 33 years her two children, Florence and William, aged respectively 10 and 9 years, and an unknown woman, aged about 35 years, were found dead Sunday in a room in Mrs. Fahrenkamp's home at Philadelphia. The gas was turned on and life had been apparently extinct for several days.

A Sure Cure for Nervous Headaches.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets Cure by Removing the Cause.

They Make New, Rich Blood and Give Strength to the Nerves, and Vigor to the Entire System—Nature's Cure in Nature's Way.

Nervous Headache is, perhaps, the most prominent after-effect of the much-dreaded "Grippe"

Words cannot describe the sufferings of the thousands of victims, nor is it needed that they should. Those who suffer need no description. Their experience is all-sufficient for them.

But tell them of something that will give them relief from their tortures, and you gain their attention in a moment. It is for this reason that such a genuine, deep and wide-spread interest has been aroused with reference to Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

This remedy affords a simple and speedy cure for Nervous Headache, following the "Grippe."

It effects a cure by removing from the system, the cause of the trouble. "The Grippe" causes a most severe strain on the nerves. Daily, hourly they are weakened and shattered, until they reach the climax, and no longer fulfil their duties, though they still endeavor to do so.

The attempt to perform their duties, produces an effect something like laying a red hot rod of steel on raw, living flesh—in other words it causes Nervous Headache.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets begin the cure, right at the root of the trouble. They (by ensuring prompt and thorough digestion) provide a full supply of rich, fresh, nourishing blood. On this, the nerves are fed, and gain strength every second.

In a remarkably short period a wonderful change occurs. Restored to their natural strength, with all their powers of endurance regained, the nerves are able to withstand the attacks of disease, and to perform their duties as it was intended they should.

Then, good-by to Nervous Headache. It is henceforth a thing impossible. If you don't believe it, try Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, and be convinced.
