SNOW WHITE COLOR CUT-OUTS

SNOW WHITE

Snow White and Rose Red were sisters, who, because of their likenesses to the white and red roses blooming at their gate, were called by these names. Snow White had fair hair and was the gentler of the two, sitting at home or helping her mother, while Rose Red played in the meadows and woods. Their home was a very beautiful and happy place, for Snow White kept the kettles scoured so bright and Red Rose brought so many lovely flower bouquets that the house was as clean and gay as a house could be. The sisters were very fond of each other and vowed always to stay together. Then one night, when the sisters and their mother were sitting before their cheery hearth, something strange happened. (This is pretty Snow White, she has golden hair and is wearing a pink slip today. Her stockings and shoes are gray.)

Fashion Fancies

By Marie Belmont

Challis is a material especially suited for the small girl's early Fall school frock. It comes in dainty flowered and dark grounds, as well as in plain colors. The pretty little bloomer dress above is made of two shades of blue challis. The upper part is a light blue, and the skirt is deeper blue. The skirt is stitched with light blue machine stitching, and the bloomers are attached to the dress. The neck and cuffs show trimming of the deeper blue.

FAREWELL ADDRESS.

The members of the Long Creek Baptist Church and congregation met at the home of William Stretch to formally bid farewell to their retiring pastor, Rev. J. S. Millett. At that time they presented him with a generous purse and the following address.

LONG CREEK P. E. I. November, 4, 1925.
To Rev. J. Stanley Millett,
Dear Sir and Brother:—
As you have decided to sever your connection with this church and congregation we meet here this evening to express our regret of your departure from our midst. A little over three years ago you came among us as a perfect stranger and by your fidelity and devotion to duty you have endeared yourself in the hearts of the people in this church and community.

During your ministry in this church you have been faithful in your endeavours in behalf of the choir, Sunday School, Prayer meetings and other branches of church work. We feel that we cannot let you leave us without expressing in some tangible way our appreciation of your services amongst us, we ask you to accept this gift on behalf of Mrs. Millett and yourself as a slight token of our esteem and as you go from us you can rest assured that our prayers and good wishes will follow you wherever your lot may be cast.

Signed in behalf of the Church, Congregation and friends.
In connection with the presentation several people made short addresses appreciative of the pastor's services.
