WESTERN PERSONALS

Miss Irene McLellan, Summerside, left Thursday morning for Moncton, where she will visit friends.

Friends will regret to learn that P. J. E. Wright, Summerside, is confined to his home with severe cold.

Mrs. Alfred Keoughan of this town who had been visiting relatives at St. George's has returned home.

Mr. Martin, of the Canadian National Express Company, Moncton, passed through Summerside on Wednesday morning, en route to the western section of Prince George county, where he has business in connection with his company.

Mr. Charles Andrew, of Summerside, is much improved, so his friends will hear with pleasure, and it is expected that his recovery from his serious illness will be speedy.

ECZEMA expertly treated. You are not itching when you use Dr. Chase's Ointment. It relieves at once and gradually heals the skin. Sample box, Dr. Chase's Ointment free if you mention this paper and send 2c stamp for postage. Use a box all dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

GYNASIUM POPULAR. The gymnasium which was opened some time ago on Central Street, has become keenly interesting to many of the young men and boys of the town the management of which Mr. M. Gallant, is the head and chief instructor, has the place nicely fitted up and supplied with different kinds of material for athletic exercises. In the centre is a stage with a 12 foot ring and a set of boxing gloves, here there is, nightly, some very clever work, done, there is also a punching bag, trapeze swinging and other amusements to interest the members of the Club.

HOCKEY The first hockey match of the league series was played in Crystal rink on Tuesday evening between the Red Sox and War Veterans, the former winning with a score of 4 to 2. In the first period the Cox scored 3 times, the Vets scoring twice in the second period the Sox scored 2 times, the Sox scored their fourth. The line up which is strong is as follows:
Red Sox Goal: Graves
Crockett - Defence: McQuarrie and Morrison
Wright and Morrison
Monkley - Centre: Hoaghton
Silliphant - Right Wing: Johnson
Gauthier and McKay - Subs: McArthur and Daley

Referee, Mr. H. M. Baker. The potato game played before the opening of hockey was won by Mr. Heath Warren.

HOCKEY AT BEDEQUE
The first hockey match of the season was played at Bedeque rink on Saturday evening, January 7th.

The contesting teams were the married and single men. In the first period Bonness notched up two goals for the single men, and Lewis Wright (a promising young player) added two more. The married men were unable to locate the net and the first period ended 4-0.

In the second session the playing was more even, McQuarrie tore down the ice and passed the puck to Phillips, who netted the first goal for the married men. Bonness got the only goal for the single men in this period, who was penalized as being offside, but his claim was not allowed. Score, second period 5-1.

In the final go Bonness and Wright each added a goal for the singles, and Phillips got the second and last goal for the benefits by a nice rush. Final score 7-2.

Line up as follows:

Single Men	Goal	Married Men
A. Noonan		H. Callbeck
H. Condon	Defence	R. England
L. Wright		H. MacQuarrie
P. Bonness	Centre	A. Sudbury
P. Noonan	Wings	E. Phillips
F. Noonan		F. Reeves
D. Noonan	Sub	E. Leard
Bonness and Wright	did good work for the single men, and Sudbury and Phillips for the married men. James Clark was referee.

There was a fairly good crowd in attendance. An hour's skating added to the enjoyment. No doubt there will be a large crowd there next Saturday evening, when the Bankers of Summerside clash with the Beavers.

HEADS OF IRISH SOCIETIES PLEASED THAT TREATY HAS BEEN RATIFIED

FREDERICTON, N. B., Jan. 11.—Heads of the various societies in Fredericton today expressed themselves as pleased that the treaty had been passed, while it was said that official action in that connection would probably be taken by the various organizations when they held their first meetings. Hugh O'Neill, president of the New Brunswick branch of the self-determination for Ireland league, left this morning for St. John where a meeting of the provincial branch executive will be held this afternoon. Mr. O'Neill said that the news of the ratification of the treaty had been received with general satisfaction.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. ALBERT CHERRY
A gloom was cast over Georgetown on Sunday, January 8th, when it became known that Albert Cherry had passed away. The deceased had been ailing for some time and friends cherished the hope that he might be spared.

Notwithstanding the best medical attendance and the most tender and devoted nursing he succumbed to the inevitable and his spirit took its flight into the mansions of bliss, where happiness reigns supreme.

He was visited frequently by his pastor, Rev. D. P. Croken. The late Mr. Cherry was twenty years old. He leaves to mourn his father, Mr. William Cherry of Halifax, one brother, Ambrose, three sisters, Mrs. W. A. Murphy of Boston, also one uncle, Mr. R. D. Kehoe of Georgetown. That the Lord made the young was truly verified in this case as he lived a most exemplary christian life and during his illness, although suffering intensely at times, he never murmured. His funeral was very largely attended, the sincere and heartfelt sympathy of the whole community goes out to the grief-stricken ones in their sad loss. A

MR. PATRICK MCGEE

A sad gloom was cast over Sturgeon and vicinity on the morning of Dec. 26th, when it became known that Mr. Patrick McGee had passed to his eternal reward at the early age of 50 years.

Mr. McGee was well known as an honest, upright man who always worked for the betterment for his friends and he will be greatly missed in both church and school affairs where he always took a lively interest. He leaves to mourn a heart broken widow, five daughters, Elizabeth of Charlottetown, Marguerite of Attleboro, Mass., Kathleen, teacher at Glenamlin, Cecilia and Mamie E., at home and two sons, Augustine and Thomas at home also his mother and father, two brothers and six sisters who are left to cherish his loving memory.

The funeral took place on Dec. 30th, to St. Paul's Church, Sturgeon, where a requiem high mass was sung by Rev. Father Gallant. Afterwards all that was mortal of a loving father was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery to await the final resurrection.

MRS. CATHERINE McINNIS

It is with feeling of great sorrow that we record today the death of Catherine McInnis, which occurred very suddenly on Christmas Eve, at the age of 68 years.

Deceased had been feeling very well for a few days but no one, not even herself thought it was anything serious.

He however, on the evening of the 24th, she retired to her room to rest a while where within a few minutes she was unconscious and in a few minutes her spirit passed to the great beyond.

Deceased was always a jovial, light-hearted and charitable woman and will be much missed by the people of Souris River where she resided all her life.

She was deeply attached to the Roman Catholic religion and was attended in her dying moments by her beloved pastor, Rev. Father McLean, V. G. of Souris.

The funeral was held on Monday 26th, to St. Mary's Church, Souris, where Mass was offered up for her soul by her esteemed pastor, after which her remains were placed in the adjoining cemetery. Her last sad rites were performed by Father McInnis. She leaves to mourn a daughter, Lauretta, of a lovely woman was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery. (Other papers please quote.)
