UNKESSD WIFE LOSES IN HER SUIT

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—In deciding that Mrs. Edith Russell Gambier, the "unlucky bride," is not entitled to a separation from her husband, Victor Gambier, cashier of the Merchants Exchange National Bank, on the grounds of abandonment, and that Gambier is entitled to sue his wife for annulment of marriage and have the case tried before a jury, Justice Pendleton in the Supreme Court yesterday rendered an opinion in which interesting advice is given married men.

Gambier alleged he was entitled to an annulment because during the six months of their married life his wife refused to be a wife to him, except in name. He alleged further that after their separation she went to another man, who proved to be C. Sicker, president of the American Fertilizer Company living at 1 West Sixteenth street.

Mrs. Gambier, formerly a belle of Atlanta, Ga., was at the time of her marriage, August 29, 1910, 23 years old, about half the age of her husband. The bank cashier met her when she was studying art in New York and proposed marriage to her she refused him, but four months later she wrote him she had changed her mind.

The testimony of both at the trial of Mrs. Gambier's suit showed that their married life was about the most joyless on record. Gambier asserted that Mrs. Gambier was constantly with her in Munich on their wedding trip that she only married him so she could get a home in New York. In the early part of his decision Justice Pendleton says: "Desertion or abandonment within the law, as a cause for a decree of separation, means unjustifiable desertion. That the defendant left the plaintiff with intent never to return to her is not enough if such action on his part was caused by the wrongful acts of the plaintiff herself; in such a case it is not a desertion within the meaning of the law."

Justice Pendleton refers to the evidence bringing in Sicker, and says: "Even on her admissions her conduct was scarcely in accord with the customary proprieties for a married woman. But as to the points denied she was flatly contradicted by at least four witnesses on one point or another. That she permitted improper liberties to be taken with her is supported by testimony."

THE CROP CONDITIONS VERY BAD

WASHINGTON, August 8.—A tremendous decline in the condition of crops, generally throughout the country and traceable to drought and intense heat, occurred during the last month, as indicated by official figures and estimates made today in the monthly crop report to the department of agriculture. The report today is the worst as to general conditions, that the department has issued for any single month since 1901.

The area most seriously affected extends from New York and Pennsylvania to the Rocky Mountains, embracing all of the great corn, wheat and hay producing states in the country. In the southern states, with the exception of Virginia and North Carolina, rains served to maintain generally favorable conditions throughout the past month. These conditions thus far continue to be favorable.

Conditions in the Pacific northwest states are regarded as excellent, altho during July that territory suffered from a brief but excessively hot period.

BOURASSA AND LEMIEUX TO MEET

MONTREAL, August 9.—There is a probability that Henri Bourassa and Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux will meet on the same platform in an assembly contradictoire at St. Hyacinthe on Sunday, when they will have an oratorical duel which bids fair to rival anything ever known in this province. There has for long been a sharp rivalry between the two. Repeated challenges have been made for a verbal duel without result. But now Mr. Bourassa has called a meeting for St. Hyacinthe next Sunday, and he has challenged Mr. Bourassa to attend it. The latter did not accept until yesterday, when it was announced that Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux would be there.

On the base is a silver shield on which a suitable inscription recording the winning club, the date and the score may be placed. The club which becomes the annual possessor of this cup is deserving of congratulation—it is a trophy of which any organization or individual might well feel proud.

LONDON, August 9.—The lords' veto bill bereft of the frills added by the peers when it was last in their hands, reappeared in the house of lords this afternoon, but whether it is to be a farewell or only a penultimate appearance cannot be foretold. A counting of heads of the different factions, the "Die-Hards," the "Sur-renderers," and the "Ministerialists" have shown the possibility of a vote which is to be a farewell or only a penultimate appearance cannot be foretold.

Should the bill be thrown out its next coming to the upper chamber would be in the company of a battalion of new barons strong enough to swamp any combination of unionists.

The house was crowded. It was the biggest muster of peers since the rejection of the home rule bill in 1893, and Lord Morley was supported by the largest force of radical peers gathered in the memory of the oldest members. A throng of eager members of the house of commons crowded the steps around the throne. Peereses and in the lightest costumes, vigorously fanned themselves in a vain attempt to dissipate the overpowering heat.

FATHER OF FORCE GIRL VERY ANGRY

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—The family of William S. Force, whose daughter is engaged to John Jacob Astor, is very much exercised over the agitation in the Episcopal church against the proposed union, Mr. Force returned to New York today on the Fall River line steambomb from Newport. He admitted that his family was terribly upset over the statements of the Rev. George Chalmers Richmond of Philadelphia, and added that Mrs. Force was in an extremely nervous condition as a result of the discussion. "For the past couple of years," he said, "Mrs. Force and the two girls have been travelling much and were not closely affiliated with any particular church. Prior to that they lived in Brooklyn and attended Holy Trinity Episcopal Church. They were confirmed there by the late Dr. Hall. "It is a terrible thing that a minister should give out a statement of the nature given out by Dr. Richmond. I can't understand it. "My family is deadpally upset about it, especially Mrs. Force. She and the girls will remain several days in Newport and then return to this city in Colonel Astor's yacht."

CHURCH LAW ON MARRIAGE OF DIVORCEES

But this canon shall not be held to apply to the innocent party in a divorce for adultery.

NEWPORT, Aug. 8.—Society here was greatly interested today in the report that Miss Madeleine Force, fiancée of Colonel Astor, will not stick to the conventional whim when it comes to selecting the material for her wedding gown. A number of samples have been submitted to the bride-to-be of the man whose income totals $5,000,000 a year, and she is said to have favored pink, because this is Colonel Astor's favorite color.

2000 COAL MINERS RETURN TO WORK

EVERETT, Wash., August 7.—J. R. Luce, who is three years past the century mark, and Clare Powers, a widow, forty-five years old, were granted a marriage license this afternoon and soon afterwards were married by a minister. Luce has been married six times, four times since he became a resident of Everett. "You did not require me to bring the woman along the last time," he remarked cheerfully when he received his license. Early in the afternoon he had made the trip to the court house and was informed that he would have to produce the woman. Luce's last wife divorced him and six months ago he got a license, but the intended bride changed her mind. Minard's Liniment cures colds, etc.

Food Supplies Nearly Cut Off. Police Must Be Assisted by Troops

Special to The Guardian. LONDON, Aug. 10.—The neighborhood of the docks is practically under mob rule with the result that there was such a dwindling of food supplies that the metropolis experienced what might happen if hostile foreign force should succeed in interrupting the trade routes. Unless great progress is made today in the settlement of the strike, the calling out of troops seem inevitable, as the police are seriously outnumbered and unable to deal with the emergency.

GETS YEAR FOR HITTING INSANE MAN

BOSTON, Aug. 9.—John H. Richards, 23, single, of 38 Julian street, Roxbury, an attendant at Pierce Farm, was sentenced to one year in the House of Correction yesterday by Judge Brackett on complaint of Dr. Henry P. Frost, superintendent of the Boston Insane Hospital, who charged him with assault on Benjamin F. Powers, an insane patient, 70 years of age and said to be inoffensive.

Richards, who had been employed at the hospital only three weeks, struck the old man, it is alleged, because he spat on the floor. He appealed from the sentence of the court and was held in $500. Judge Brackett in sentencing Richards said: "It is rather a mercy that you are going to be removed at this time. It is unfortunate that any man such as you should have the care of feeble minded and inoffensive patients."

Dr. Frost told the court that he had been told that Richards had assaulted and beaten the old man who he said was inoffensive. Mrs. Edwards, a nurse at the farm, testified to seeing Richards punch the man. Powers she said had offered no protection whatever. Richards denied that he had struck the man but said that the patient had grappled with him and forced him to wrestle.

WOMEN SENTENCED TO DON BLOOMERS

IOLA, Kansas, Aug. 9.—Iola city officials, with the exception of Municipal Judge Smetzer, are up in arms, because a woman had been sentenced to don a pair of bloomers and join the street gang from the city jail. Judge Smetzer yesterday sentenced Mrs. Ella Reese to the street gang and ordered that the city officials provide her with the bloomers. Street Commissioner Glynn refused to have a woman in the chain gang. Mrs. Reese did not go to work breaking rock or sweeping the streets today because the bloomers had not been provided and the officials say they will not allow the woman to carry out the sentence imposed upon her.
