THREE FACTORS DETERMINING DIET OF MAN

MONTREAL, May 5—(By The Canadian Press)—Magazine and newspaper advertisements which state that certain food products are indispensable to the human diet came in for stiff criticism from Dr. I. M. Rabinowitch, assistant professor of medicine at McGill University and director of the department of metabolism at the General Hospital, in an address to members of the Canadian Club recently. Three factors alone determined the diet of man and these he said, were the food available, his ability to secure such food and the food's taste, digestibility and richness of nutrient matter.

A case against a party from French River charged with possession of intoxicating liquor was dismissed for lack of evidence. Heath Strong, K. C., defended in this case. All the cases were brought by W. Haywood, Prohibition Inspector. W. Henry Noonan appeared for the prosecution. S.

—"CANADIAN LEGION MEETING"—The regular monthly meeting of the Summerside branch of the Canadian Legion was held on Wednesday evening. There was a good attendance including a number of members from the country. The

According to orange growers, he said, half the world had addosis and the other half were about to have it and for these they urged the use of orange juice in the diet. "Life insurance firms who examine applicants for policies do not ask these people if they drink coffee," he said after quoting an advertisement predicting the alleged horrible fate of coffee-drinkers by the manufacturers of a non-caffeine beverage.

"We are urged to consume huge quantities of milk if we are to be healthy," he continued, "but with all mammals, the young receive milk from the female parent for a definite period and no longer. In some parts of the world, he pointed out, 'milk is a rarity, yet people who live there do not die off like flies.'"

VENETIAN GARDENS

GREAT GEORGE STREET

"Where The Crowds Dine Every Day"

President, Mr. B. W. Robinson, was in the chair. Very interesting discussions were held by Major May and Col. Ulric Dawson on present conditions throughout the world. Both speakers stressed the point that conditions in the world today were just as serious as in war time and demanded as much consistent effort to combat them. Their addresses were most instructive and gave much food for thought on the economic questions of the day. It was arranged to have Mr. W. R. Bird, who has been writing some interesting articles on the war and after, for McLean's Magazine, to give a lecture at the Legion rooms in the near future. Mr. Bird has been over to the battlefields since the war and his lecture should be full of interest to war veterans. The invitation extended to the Charlottetown branch and to the Provincial President has been accepted. J. J. O. Simpson of Summerside and their visit will take place on and Mr. E. D. McLeod of Albany, May 20th. Two new members, were admitted to the Legion. S.
