"Penmanize your underwear buying"

WHEN you buy Penmans Health Underwear you get the greatest possible value for your money.

You get fit, long wear, fine materials, first-class workmanship, comfort, warmth.

We want you, though, to get the right type of Penmans for you.

See the chart! It tells you just what weight and type to order. Perhaps it will suggest a change from what you've been wearing, but try following its recommendations and see how much better you will be suited.

You have to buy underwear—but in your buying consider what kind of work you do, whether you are indoors or outdoors all the time, how active you are and whether you keep warm easily or with difficulty.

Then you'll choose the Penmans line that will mean for you such Health, Comfort, Warmth and Durability that you'll agree beyond a doubt it pays to Penmanize your underwear buying.

Ladies! A word to you!:

Bring this new idea to the attention of the men of your family. You're interested, of course, in keeping them well and comfortable.

Look over the chart yourself. Perhaps you can help with a decision that will mean much to the health and well-being of those whose health and well-being mean everything to you.

For fine quality, sterling worth and long life there is no underwear quite so good as

LOOK OVER THIS CHART

Among the types of health underwear listed below, is your kind—the one best fitted to take care of your individual needs. You'll find it in a moment. Then, if you order it, you'll enjoy exceptional comfort and protection this Winter. Every Penmans garment is full size, well-tailored and easy fitting.

MEDIUM

Penmans No. 95 is the finest natural Merino underwear made. For fifty years Canada's most popular medium weight. Gives healthful protection in coldest weather, yet is not too heavy for indoor wear. Penmans No. 71 is an excellent natural Merino at somewhat lower cost for men who do not desire underwear of No. 95 quality.

LIGHT

Penmans light weight pure wool underwear is the highest grade made in the world. Ivory in tone. Light, yet very warm and comfortable. Recommended for those who work indoors, yet need sufficient protection to guard them from chills when they are outdoors.

HEAVIEST

Penmans Serviceable Scotch Rib. A good heavy grade for outdoor workers or in districts subject to severe cold weather in Winter. Has the weight and the warmth, without too much bulk.

FLEECE-LINED

For those requiring maximum protection, we recommend Penmans No. 37. Extra heavy and fleece-lined. Suitable for outdoor workers. The soft cotton fleece next to the skin makes it most comfortable to wear. Durability unexcelled.

BALBRIGGAN

Nos. 222 2-3 and 46 are extremely light cotton underwear suitable only for those who keep warm easily, are immune to colds and not liable to chills from sudden temperature changes. Not recommended for any but those accustomed to wear very light undergarments all year around. Made in short or long sleeve and leg lengths.

FINE ELASTIC RIB COTTON

For those who require warmth and ample protection, yet do not prefer woollen underwear, we recommend a choice from the various Penmans fine elastic rib cotton lines. Easy-fitting and durable-made in all the different styles.

In addition to the above, there are many other lines of Penmans Health Underwear from which you may choose.

the Institute Carol. (Patriot Please Copy.)

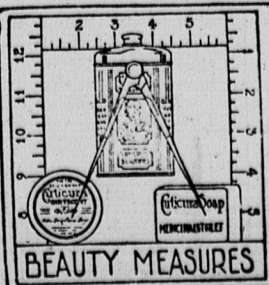

PRETTY AUTUMN WEDDING—One of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized in the Presbyterian Church, Tyne Valley, September 24, at 7 o'clock in the evening. When Miss Lorna Muriel Yeo, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Yeo, was united in marriage to Mr. Harold Morris Holland, Lower Bedeque, P. E. I. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with asters, autumn leaves, ground spruce, potted plants and cut flowers. The bride was attended by her sisters, Vivian as maid-of-honor and Dorothy as bridesmaid. The bride was charmingly attired in a gown of white chiffon and lace, with the conventional veil and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums, roses, and maiden hair fern. The maid of honor and bridesmaid looked very winsome in dresses of maize chiffon and tulle and carried bouquets of white chrysanthemums and maiden hair fern. The groom was supported by his cousin, Mr. Charles Howatt of Tryon. The ushers were Mr. Lorne Burleigh, Ellerslie, and Mr. Arthur Holland, Searletown, cousins of the bride and groom. As the wedding march was being played by Mrs. James MacWilliams, O'Leary, the bride entered the church on the arm of her father. During the ceremony which was conducted by Rev. D. F. Davies, assisted by the bride's brother, Delmont, of Gordon College, of Theology and Missions, Boston, Mass., the harmony of the organ lent its quiet influence to the occasion. As the register was being signed, Mr. H. B. Boates, uncle of the bride, sang that beautiful and appropriate song, "O Promise Me." The church was filled to capacity and a great many had to remain outside. The reception, at which a large number of friends and relatives of the bride and groom were present was held at the bride's home immediately after the ceremony. The bride received many beautiful and costly gifts including a cabinet of silver from the church of which the bride was a consistent member, also a silver black fox and a number of substantial cheques. After the bridal supper the happy young couple motored to Lower Bedeque where they will make their home followed by the good wishes of a host of friends.

PERSONALS
The many friends of Mrs. Roderic MacLeod, Bridgetown, will regret to learn that she has entered the P. I. Hospital for treatment.

The Misses Maude and Olive Wilson have returned to their home in Southport after spending the week end in Bonshaw, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Ferguson.

AUTUMNAL MUSIC
Perhaps you do not know that in the falling of the leaves there's music sweeter than the song of garners
Bring in their sheaves
And in the wind's sigh
A note more plaintive than the c
Of gulls cleaving a silent sky.
