Hayes, who had come in by a back door, and whom she says she had never before met, entered and attempted to assault her. She resisted and he drew a revolver and shot thrice, wounding her in the breast, abdomen and thigh. She managed to crawl through a window and struggled to a store across the road, whence she was taken to the hospital. Meanwhile, Hayes, still holding the revolver in his hand, stepped out on to the street, coolly lit a cigarette and proceeded towards his boarding house. The police, who had heard the shots noticed him and took him into custody after a short struggle. Hayes had been drinking heavily. His home is believed to be in Quebec.

THEATRE COLLAPSES

NICE, France, Sept. 8—The restaurant connected with the Eldorado, the largest theatre in Nice, collapsed this morning, burying a number of Italian workmen in the debris. Late tonight 11 dead and 16 severely injured persons had been taken from the ruins, but it was feared that other persons still remained beneath the wreckage. The building was in course of reconstruction, and while the cause of the disaster has not yet been definitely ascertained, it is alleged that the work, in which reinforced concrete was used, was being hurried by the contractors, who were liable to a heavy fine for each day they exceeded the contract time for finishing the structure. The collapse occurred while the work was in full swing. A few of the workmen near the windows heard the first rending of timbers above them and leaped to the street, escaping with slight injuries. Those in the interior, however, had no chance to get out as the entire roof collapsed and carried them down beneath it. The walls of the restaurant are so weakened by the accident that it is feared that they will fall.

It is even said that Mrs. French Vanderbilt, Mrs. Geraghty's aunt and the former wife of Alfred G. Vanderbilt, has forgiven her niece. John Geraghty's people have welcomed the young couple with open arms. The young Mrs. Geraghty has been almost constantly in the company of her sister-in-law, Miss Geraghty. John Geraghty has resumed his work at the garage, where he is a partner of H. E. Pender, and apparently has settled down to the routine of married life.

MAKES A NEW PROVINCIAL RIFLE RECORD

G. F. Hutcheson. Makes New Provincial Record Equaling That Made by N. S. Rifiemen During the Maritime Meet

Yesterday afternoon the last shoot for the Salver took place on Kensington Range. Much interest was taken in the match as only three points separated the four high scores. G. F. Hutcheson carried off the laurels by making a new Provincial record of 101 and equalled the record made by a member of the Nova Scotia team during the Maritime meet. The score was made as follows 100 yards 34, 500 yds 33, 600 yds 34, total 101. It must also be remembered that this score was not made under the most favorable circumstances, as there was a strong unsteady breeze and the best of judgment was required in making necessary adjustments for wind. The following are the four highest scores during the Salver shoot. G. F. Hutcheson 266 R. V. Longworth 360 G. M. Moore 354 A. N. McKay 353 Previous to yesterday's shooting the highest Provincial record for the range was 100 and this was made by Grs. Landrigan, Jones and Mackinnon. The new record made yesterday by Mr. Hutcheson, fastens the honor on a member of the civilian rifle club and it is needless to say that every member of the association is proud of the achievement.

PRICE OF CANDIES HAS BEEN ADVANCED

TORONTO, Sept. 9—Manufacturers of candies and confections have advanced the price on all the cheaper grades of candy by 25 per cent., claiming that this has been rendered necessary on account of the steady advance of sugar. Another advance of 10 cents today brings the price of sugar to $5.75 for 100 pound bags, and manufacturers look for six cent sugar before the Christmas trade comes on. The increase will mean that the 10 cent candy will retail at 15 cents a pound. The advance does not affect the prices for better lines of candies, in which profits are larger.

DR BALDWIN IN A REPEAT PERFORMANCE

The First Methodist Church in this city last evening was filled almost to the doors to hear the second organ concert by Dr. Minor C. Baldwin. The statement that Dr. Baldwin is the world's greatest solo organist seemed to be no idle cant to those who heard him last night. His complete mastery of the complicated mechanism seemed to stamp him as something of a musical wizard; while his faculty to produce melody and harmony was evidenced in the several beautiful renditions on his program. Notable in those which had the most pronounced effect on the audience were the selections from Verdi's "Il Trovatore," which deservedly earned an encore, and Mr. Baldwin's own composition "The Storm—a descriptive piece vivid and inspiring, full of beauty and realistic beyond the comprehension of those who had not heard. The effects produced were at once closely imitative of nature and delightfully gratifying to the musically inclined audience. His other offerings were rendered in a captivating manner, some more profoundly enchanting than inspiring; others more tranquilly endowed than brilliant—his abilities cover a wide range and his performances have here created an impression durable and lasting in the minds of his delighted hearers. The program was lent added interest by the excellent solos of Miss Hazel Bremner, W. R. Shute and H. M. Blight, all of whom were in fine position. The Storm—a descriptive

KEEP YOUR NOSE OUT.

A story comes from down South to the effect that an over-inquisitive man passing behind a circus tent noticed a projection against the canvas, and put forth his hand to feel it. It was a mule, and the coroner's jury returned a verdict of "deceased came to his death by prying into what did not concern him." There are a great many people who can't keep their noses out of their neighbors' business. No amount of expostulating or warning seems to have any effect upon these hapless, from whom nothing from the merest trifle to the weight-

MUCH SPECULATION AS TO GERMANY'S REPLY

LONDON, Sept. 8—Various suggestions are made as to the character of Germany's reply to the French proposals in regard to Morocco, which was given to Ambassador Cambon in Berlin yesterday afternoon. But no information that can be regarded as official, has yet become public. The most general impression is that, while Germany signifies her assent to the French proposals in their essence, she raises points on which further negotiations will be necessary.

WAR ON JEW PROMISE OF MAD MONK

TSARITSYN, Russia, Sept. 8.—Heliodorus, the "Mad Monk of Tsaritsyn," today publicly declared that attacks upon Jews and the Russian intelligent classes would be commenced after the holding of the forthcoming congress of the Black Hundreds. The declaration of the parish priest, whose fantastic methods have startled the whole Volga region, has created an impression of semi-panic in this city. Talk of a probable massacre of Jews is current at the bazaars. A fantastic pilgrimage of 1500 persons, mostly women, under the leadership of Heliodorus, started the entire Volga region this summer and drew the popular attention to the "Mad Monk" to a degree unequalled by any of his previous exploits. The objective of the pilgrimage was the Sarov desert—the Russian Lourdes—where are the relics of St. Seraphim. The emperor and the empress made pilgrimage to Sarov in 1903, a year before the birth of their only son. The following of Heliodorus was large, particularly among women. This crusade was designed to fan the religious flame in this important part of Russia. The pilgrimage progressed slowly up the river, breaking the journey frequently. A settled group of 50 or more of the best looking young women generally marched at the head of the procession, followed by another group of specially good singers. At most towns the pilgrims were received by large crowds. At all hours of the day and night entrance was obtained to cathedrals and churches, while bishops and archpriests were dragged from their homes and forced to put on their vestments and celebrate solemn mass.
