ROUGHENED ELBOWS

Elbows are very much in evidence at the present time with so many of the women dresses having short sleeves. If yours are inclined to be rough and ugly, try soaking them in a bowl of hot soapuds from 5 to 10 minutes, rinse in cold water and massage with your favorite hand lotion. Try to remember to rub lotion on them daily until all roughness is gone. We are wont to forget elbows during the winter months and really neglect them.

"Good for me and Mummy too!"
