While Norman Wood of Orwell and his cousin Miss Gillis, Flat River, were enjoying a drive in the moonlight on Sunday last, and as usual were crossing a bridge, their horse in some unaccountable way became frightened with the result that both the occupants were thrown from the carriage. Mr. Wood losing control of the reins, the horse ran off at a rapid rate, but was finally captured in Donald McLeod's yard near Vernon River with the wagon much the worse of its experience. Com.

Dr. George Carruthers and family and the relatives in Beedee wish to tender their most sincere thanks to the many friends in Charlottetown, Summerside, Alberton and Beedee for the numerous tokens of sympathy shown them in so many ways on the occasion of the death of Mrs. Carruthers, at the same time evidencing the great respect in which she was held. Special mention might be made of the friends who in the Methodist Church, and those who drove them to and from the station and entertained them while in Beedee.

The Sackville Financial Committee was held at Shediac recently with Rev. J. L. Dawson in the chair. Besides the routine business the District recommended the semi-independent circuit to the Sackville fund with the understanding that they publish an audited statement of Circuit income, and expenditure, and adopt as far as possible regular and systematic giving. There was a public missionary meeting in the evening of a highly interesting character. Addresses of high order were delivered by the Rev. S. Howard, President of the Conference, and Thos. Marshall. It was decided to give a District prize to Mount Allison University, to be competed for by the students of theology. The above item is of general interest to this Province as the gentleman referred to have all been stationed at different times in this Province.
