A very peculiar incident called the firemen out last night about 8.20. A fire was reported in St. James Church a large volume of smoke was seen by several persons coming out of the steeple. The firemen were almost immediately upon the scene and in a remarkably short time two hose were ready for action well up in the interior of the steeple. When the firemen looked up foot in fire which was supposed to be in the top of the steeple a chaos of black darkness only presented itself. Upon examination there was no fire nor any sign of fire. The only explanation at present is that during the day smoke accumulated in the interior of the steeple and the cool air of the night caused it to be sent forth.
