PLAYED A JOKE ON PA

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 4—Some time yesterday the children of Edward Marlow emptied the powder from some fire-crackers and put it in their father's smoking tobacco that stood on a mantel shelf. Last night when Marlow lighted his pipe, the pipe was shattered, his whiskers and what little hair he had on his head was burned off.

The cause is a disordered liver—the cure Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills. They go straight to the root of the trouble, put the liver right, cleanse the stomach and bowels, clear the tongue and take away the bitter taste from the mouth. The First Methodist Sunday School picnic was held yesterday at Brudenell, a large number of pupils, members of the congregation and visitors attending. The day, though cloudy and threatening at first was fine and a thoroughly enjoyable outing was had by all. Games, sports and amusements provided entertainment for all while the beautifully supplied and well stocked booths were equal to the heavy task of satisfying the hearty picnic appetites which was imposed on them. The spot chosen was a delightful one and those whose efforts managed to secure special credit for the manner in which they carried out their arrangements.

Miss Helen Clements, Murray Harbor was a visitor to the city yesterday.

Owing to the big Saturday paper advertisers are requested to have their changes of ads. in not later than 10 a. m. on Fridays to insure insertion the following day.

The regular meeting of the Church of Milton Convention was held at Milton yesterday. There was a large attendance and ministers and delegates from all parishes were present. A good number attended from St Peter's and St Paul's congregations in this city. The church convention was presided over by Mr Justice Fitzgibbon and Mrs (Canon) Simpson presided over the Women's Auxiliary meeting. A meeting of the Rural Deanery was also held and at the service Canon Powell delivered the address. The ladies of the Milton Parish served tea on the grounds.

Good photoplays, good songs, good piano music and a good crowd was a feature at the People's Theatre last night. The two new reels "On the Deserts Edge" and "Who Gets the Order" were two good ones—the former the story of a man who the young sheriff goes after and finally lands him. The latter was an Edison comedy of exceptional merit and well worked out. It kept the large audience in spasms. Miss Helen Fredwin sang a new illustrated song "When Evening and the Sheaves" with fine effect and had to respond to repeated encores. She also made a decided hit in her spot light specialty and in this as in her illustrated song she had to respond to encores.

A very pretty though quiet wedding was solemnized at the residence of Mrs Macphail, 10 Brighton Road, last evening when Miss Mary Macdonald, daughter of the late John Macdonald of New Glasgow, became the bride of Neil McQuarrie, K. C., residing on the west side of the Province. The ceremony took place at 8.30 in the presence of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties and the officiating clergyman were Rev T. F. Fullerton, City, and Rev A. D. Macdonald, Calgary, brother of the bride. The parlor was very tastefully decorated with white and red roses. The bride, who looked charming in a Paris gown of ivory satin with lace chiffon and crystal trimming, was given away by her brother, Major J. A. Macdonald, and carried a bouquet of white roses and maiden hair ferns. The wedding march was beautifully played by Miss Fullerton and Miss Ruth Macphail was maid of honor and was attractively attired in a pink gown, carrying a bouquet of Marguerites. Beautiful gifts. The happy couple left for their honeymoon at 10.30. The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome set of black fox furs and to Miss Macphail, the maid of honor, a gold bracelet. The bride who is widely known socially, received an exceedingly large number of beautiful gifts. The happy couple leave this morning on the Western train for Summerside and will cross on the Empress on a wedding trip to Montreal, Toronto and other Canadian cities. The Guardian joins in extending best wishes to Mr and Mrs McQuarrie.

and continued hot weather today and tomorrow is predicted. We have heard of but one report of firing which comes from Western Missouri. Looks as though shorts were pretty well in, although advance is well maintained.

Oats about two cents up in sympathy with Corn and on Snows report which is the lowest condition ever known. Large trade with heavy buying for Country account.

Provisions—There has been a big broad market with good buying influenced by strength in Coarse Grain, but the advance was met by selling for profits and by packers.
