Miss Annie M. Burns, who has been visiting relatives in Charlottetown during the past three weeks, has returned and is now visiting at Point du Chene.—Moncton Transcript.

The mail train arrived in the City on Wednesday evening at ten thirty. Among the passengers were Gordon Robertson, J. MacLeod, Earl McKenzie, Charles Curtis and Dr. H. Johnson.

All Guardian advertisers should phone 132-3 daily up to 6 p.m., and after that hour 133. For subscriptions phone 132-2 up to 6 p.m., and for news phone 133 at any hour up to 4 a.m. When 133 does not respond ring 124. It is a waste of time except to phone as above.

The closing exercises of the Hillsboro Consolidated School which took place on Wednesday afternoon proved most successful in every way. His Honor Lieutenant Governor McKinnon presided and among the speakers were the following gentlemen, W. S. Stewart, L. B. Miller, Rev. D. MacLennan, Rev. Mr. Chown and Rev. Mr. Harley.

New Wonderland showed excellent pictures to crowded houses last night which by the applause were much appreciated. The new singer Mrs. Tufts made her first appearance at this popular theatre in the "Flowers Outside the Cafe" and made a decided hit. She has a magnificent contralto voice which easily fills the large hall. Repeated encores were the order of the night and it was plain to be seen she took her audience by storm.

Ernest Edward Parkham, of Charlottetown and Miss Etta McEwen of St. Peter's Bay, P. E. I., came over from the island Tuesday afternoon and stopped at Moncton. At half-past seven last evening in the presence of a few friends, they were married at the Presbyterian manse, Rev. D. MacOdrum tying the nuptial knot. The happy couple spent the night in the city, and will return to Charlottetown Wednesday morning.—Moncton Times.

Yesterday many parents with their children enjoyed outings to which whole families attended as the children are now free from school for two good months. Many citizens viewed with pleasure the large number of children who attended the public closing in the Market Hall on Monday last. Governor McKinnon with the leading clergy and educationalists were present and addresses of most interesting and valuable nature were delivered, after the numerous prizes and diplomas had been awarded.

Patrick McCourt, of Newcastle, for the last thirty-five years, and a native of Emerald Junction, (P. E. I.), died here Sunday, after four months illness, aged 62. The funeral takes place Thursday morning from the Roman Catholic church. He was a prominent member of the C. M. B. A., and leaves a widow, nee Foran, and a brother, Bernard, of P. E. Island, half-brother and half sister, James McCourt, U. S.; Mrs. James Clou, Summerside, Mrs. Joseph Clou, Freetown, P. E. Island, and Mrs. Margaret Brown.—St. John Telegraph.

The office of Dr. Moore, dentist, at Crapaud will be closed for at least two weeks or until further notice.
