Relief Officials Locked Up by Unemployed Of Poplar, Lond n. LONDON, Feb. 7.—The Poplar board of guardians—local officials responsible for levying and distributing relief for the poor in the metropolitan borough of Poplar—were locked in their board room last night and held prisoners until 1.30 this morning by a crowd of unemployed persons who demanded larger doles. A number of news paper men shared the imprisonment of the guardians. The captors effectively prevented use of the telephone or other means of communication to summon relief. The guardians recently doubled the doles, but the ministry of health promptly notified them that this was illegal and they reverted to their former rate of payments. Their plea of government pressure was rejected last night by the unemployed, who seized the entire building which housed the board room, and hoisted a red flag on the roof, declaring they would not give up until their demands were granted.

Supreme Effort To Save Paris. ST. JOHN, N. B., Feb. 9.—Efforts made here today to save John Paris from the batman's noose were unavailing when Justice Chandler in Chambers refused to grant the application of a reserve case. Application was made by G. H. Vernon, K. C., Truro, and the argument against granting application was made by the Attorney General, Hon. J. P. Byrne on behalf of the Crown. Mr. Vernon said last evening he would now bring the matter before the appeal court at Fredericton. Failing to receive favorable action in Fredericton the case will be carried to Ottawa as last resort.

LIVES SIMPLY. CHICAGO, Feb. 6.—Mrs. Marion B. Stephens, heiress to the $400,000 estate of her father, the late Norman B. Romm, was spending in New York today to prepare for her marriage on Saturday to Anastase Andrievich Vonsiatzky, a young Russian, employed at the Baldwin Locomotive Works. Arriving in Chicago hurriedly, she transacted pressing business, reiterated her determination to live according to the means of her husband-to-be, in his humble cottage, and expressed her views on marriage. "Happiness," she said, "is not a question of money. Money has nothing to do with my marriage, one way or another. We shall live very simply, in accordance with my husband's position, although we are not going to live in precisely the kind of a workman's cottage described as typical. I expect to be very happy." "The man I am to marry is older than his years. The experiences he has gone through, particularly those in the armies of General Denikin and Baron Wrangel, broadened and developed him beyond his years." Her fiance is 23 years old, and Mrs. Stephens is 45. Mrs. Stephens said that Vonsiatzky is heir to vast estates in southern Russia, which were confiscated by the Bolsheviks, and is from one of the oldest and wealthiest families of the old regime. On her flying trip to this city, and her return to New York, Mrs. Stephens apparently was fitting herself for her future station in life, it was said, she did not travel in compartments, but as the fiancée of a workman, an elder wares might travel. Her dress, a plain black wrap over a black untrimmed gown, also gave no indications of the wealth she possesses.

ARM'S DELEGATES LEAVE FOR HOME. WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—Sir Robert Borden, Canadian delegate to the arms conference, left for Ottawa this afternoon within two hours after adjournment of the conference. He will travel as far as New York with other members of the British delegation. The party included: Mr. Balfour, Lord Lee of Fareham, Senator George F. Pearce of Australia, Sir John Sarnmond of New Zealand and Sir James Sastri, of India. Mr. Hughes and officials of the United States state department were at the station to bid the British delegates farewell.

Clergyman Dispute Over Modern Dance. HAMILTON, Ont., Feb. 8.—The first church in which a modern dance was held, especially those in which the extreme modern dances, the 'old Puritan' ideal is the ideal of Dr. Chown and the Methodist church, is another example of the spirit of the era. Mr. Skoy, who confessed he liked the idea of the modern dance, is that there are a great many pastors who don't know his—only know books, and they are especially those who had never read the story in the Bible could take away with them, said Mr. Skoy, would be that God almost encouraged immorality.

The Irish Crisis. MIDDLETON HIGH SCHOOL. The half yearly examination of Middleton High School was held on Jan. 23rd. A good number of ratenagers and visitors were present. Although there has been an epidemic of mumps in this district since November, the pupils of both departments made a creditable showing. Composition, writing and drawing were exhibited. The pupils were examined in English, arithmetic, Latin, History and Geography. Miss McCabe, a former teacher of this school kindly assisted in reviewing the class work. The unique programme, consisting of dialogue, songs and readings was much enjoyed by all. Mr. W. Broadway acting as chairman. Complimentary remarks were made by Messrs. McCordie, Bradshaw and Mr. C. Wright. Mr. McCordie complimented the Women's Institute on the good work they have already done in raising funds for school improvements. A pleasant and profitable afternoon was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem.

25 DAYS FROM HULL. HALIFAX, Feb. 7.—With a good deal of damage about her decks, the result of being swept by heavy seas, with her hulkers gear out of order and her hulkers nearly empty, the British freighter Crangness, twenty-five days from Hull, crept into port today after the stormy passage (over experienced by her master, Captain Snelton, a veteran of the western ocean trade. The Crangness, a former German Lloyd freighter of 4,000 tons, is bound for New York.

TWO MEN LOST. BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 7.—The fishing schooner, Corinthian, arriving here last night, reported the loss of two members of her crew. They were James Gardner, 41 years old, of Duxbury, Vermont county, N. S., and Avery Goodwin, 41 years old, of Boston. Their dory was overturned in the gale's two weeks ago.

Queen of Sheba Film Stirs Ire of Clergy. TORONTO, Feb. 7.—In an attempt to save the port of Canada from the invasion of the Queen of Sheba, the General Missionary Association, on the motion of Rev. Lawrence Skoy and Rev. Ronald McLeod, have decided to petition the Board of Censors. It was announced today upon Dr. Chown's condemnation of the modern dance. "The old Puritan ideal is the ideal of Dr. Chown and the Methodist church, is another example of the spirit of the era. Mr. Skoy, who confessed he liked the idea of the modern dance, is that there are a great many pastors who don't know his—only know books, and they are especially those who had never read the story in the Bible could take away with them, said Mr. Skoy, would be that God almost encouraged immorality."

Change in Materials. That there has been a considerable change in materials. Serges have almost completely disappeared, being replaced by Jersey wool, which does not come in creases, and is more durable and serviceable. Innovations in "printed rain" —spotted muslin and printed crepe and georgette, who are likely to come into vogue this season for the first time since the beginning of the century. Above the waistline most even the gowns are of crepe or georgette, embellished with pearls. The new creations, however, are the Winter styles. Colors have returned. This is probably the most important announcement in the world of women since the war. Black has been de-throned, although it will, of course, always be permitted. In the order of their preference the colors of Spring will be white, grey, tortoise shell, yellow, mauve, white, Patent-stakes his reputation in the re-introduction of red and dark blue. Two colors which have been abandoned since 1914. For women the dominant note in colors will be grey.

Wear For Women Shown In Paris. PARIS, Feb. 9.—The answer to the question as to what Summer will bring in women's styles came definitely tonight, when Jean Paul, an amazing 23-year-old dress maker, announced the acknowledged fashion innovator of Paris, opened the doors of his shop to a privileged few for the first showing of the Spring and Summer models. Hundreds of thousands of women from all over North America will be interested to know: 1. The dress of the models are straight and youthful. All are without belts and are a striking contrast to the Winter styles of which belts were the most essential feature. 2. Skirts are thirty longer and considerably fuller. This idea follows the principle that "when woman is proposing the skirt should be almost straight merely suggesting it is found of more material than formerly. But when woman moves the skirt swings outward, revealing extreme largeness in its pattern."
