PLEASANT SPARKLING ENO KEEPS YOU FIT INSIDE!

ENO sweetens the stomach and relieves acid distress. It corrects sluggishness by helping nature to remove yesterday's food-wastes today. In addition, ENO takes regularly maintains the vital alkali reserve... one teaspoonful of ENO being equal in systemic alkalizing value to 8 ounces of pure orange juice. Make ENO your bodyguard over your inner fitness.

ENO contains no sulphates, no harsh mineral salts, no sugar, no analgesic. ENO is truly pleasant.

Chief Superintendent of Education for Prince Edward Island, who received the degree of Doctor of Laws, (Honoris Causa) from Mount Allison University on Tuesday afternoon at the annual Convocation exercises.

In Memoriam
MISS ELIZABETH DUFFY
(Fall River Herald)

Miss Elizabeth M. Duffy, superintendent of nurses at the Bristol County Hospital, Attleboro, former matron at the General Hospital, this city, and a graduate of the Union Hospital Nurses' Training School, died unexpectedly May 4th in East Providence.

She was a native of Prince Edward Island and daughter of the late Peter and the late Mary (Conway) Duffy. She was a communicant of St. John's Church, Attleboro, and a member of various societies of that parish.

She is survived by three brothers, Hugh of East Kelowna, British Columbia, Cecil and Cyrus, four sisters, Mrs. Catherine McClellan of this city; Mrs. James Mackin of Washington; Mrs. Frank Burnell of Malden; and Mrs. Harold Sullivan of Providence, and several nephews and nieces, among whom is Rev. Dr. Charles P. Trainor, S.S., of St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, Md.

The funeral of Miss Elizabeth M. Duffy, Superintendent at the Bristol County Hospital, Attleboro, was held from the home of her niece, Miss Adelaide C. Trainor, 49 Winter Street, this morning, with a solemn high mass of requiem at 9 in the Sacred Heart Church, Rev. Dr. Charles P. Trainor, S.S., of St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, Md., was celebrant. He was assisted by Rev. John J. Wade, deacon, and Rev. Lester L. Hull, sub deacon.

Rev. Arthur C. Lenahan of Taunton, Rev. Thomas Stapleton of New Bedford and Rev. Thomas McLean of Osterville were seated in the sanctuary.

The Sisters of the Holy Union of the Sacred Hearts were also present at the mass, as was a delegation of Union Hospital Alumnae consisting of Mrs. Agnes Barrett, Mrs. Thomas F. Burns, Miss Elizabeth Ryder, Miss Helen Carson and Mrs. Norman G. Dorley. Representing the County Hospital was County Commissioner Timothy A. Lovett and Dr. and Mrs. Garnet Smith.

During the mass the Sacred Heart Church quartet consisting of James Robinson, Edward Sweeney, Carroll Gettings and Fernand Letendre, sang. Henri Cournoyer was organist.

Interment was in St. Patrick's Cemetery where committal services were read by Father Wade, assisted by Father Trainor, H. McLean, Stapleton, William H. Dolan and Ambrose E. Bowen. Bearers were Cyrus McClellan, *WELCOME VISITOR - Dr. Jack MacLean, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. MacLean, Montague, sailed recently on the "Asarda" for London, England, where he will study surgery. Dr. MacLean visited his home here two weeks ago after coming from Vancouver where he was with Vancouver General Hospital and with Rock Bay Mission in B. C. Dr. MacLean is a graduate of McGill. L.

*SCOUT BEACON FIRE - The Community Welfare League grounds, Montague, glowed brightly on Saturday evening as the Boy Scouts added their beacon fire to the chain of beacon fires that crossed Canada in honor of the Royal visit of Their Majesties the King and Queen. The boys are very enthusiastic over the coming visit of Their Majesties to Charlottetown and hope to have their new uniforms for the occasion. Much credit is due Rev. Mr. Outhouse and Douglas Nicholson, who are uniting in their efforts to help the Scouts. L.

*SOUVENIR STAMPS - Master Bill MacLellan and his sister, little Miss Joan, children of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. MacLellan, Montague, are each the proud possessors of a first day covers of the new Royal visit issues of Canadian postage stamps. Master Bill's letter received from an aunt in Ottawa, bears one and two cents denomination. The one carries pictures of the two Princesses, Elizabeth, heir presumptive to the British throne, and her sister, Margaret Rose. On the two is shown the war memorial which was unveiled at Ottawa by the King, Joan's letter from the same source bears a three-cent stamp, with pictures of Their Majesties the King and Queen. Numerous stamp collectors have visited the local post office trying to procure cancelled first day covers, and are justly proud if they should be lucky enough to receive mail from Ottawa showing the Royal train postal cancellation. L.

DEBIE - The Indian Davis Cup team has left India for this year's competitions. They are: Ghaus Mahomed, Y. R. Savor, S. L. F. Sawhney, H. Khan, Ahmed, and J. Charanjiva as non-playing captain.

Cecil McClellan, John F. Trainor, Peter C. Trainor, James P. Trainor and Arthur Horn Interment was in St. Patrick's Cemetery.

MISS KERTLAND WEDS H. G. AITKEN. The marriage of Miss Dorothy Kertland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Gordon Kertland, to Mr. Henry Gordon Aitken, son of the late Edwin Aitken and of Mrs. Aitken, formerly of Charlottetown, P. E. I., took place at three o'clock Tuesday afternoon in St. Matthias Church, Westmount. The Rev. Gilbert Oliver officiated at the ceremony and Mr. W. Johnston Hishop presided at the organ. Spring flowers decorated the church for the occasion. Given in marriage by her father, the bride, unattended, was attired in an ensemble of aquamarine wool crepe trimmed with beige fox with which she wore a navy blue hat and accessories and a corsage bouquet of mauve orchids. Fred W. Bridges was best man and the ushers were Mr. A. R. Williams, of Toronto, Mr. C. Percy Petrie and Mr. William Kertland, the bride's brother. Reception at the home of the bride's parents, 696 Victoria avenue, followed the ceremony, the rooms being arranged with spring flowers. Mrs. Kertland, the bride's mother, received a message from her mother-in-law, Mrs. Aitken, the bride's mother, who was ensembled with navy blue hat and maroon accessories, her corsage bouquet being of maroon carnations. Mrs. Aitken, the bride's mother's mother was gowned in black and yellow printed crepe with a natural straw hat, yellow roses at the corsage and yellow accessories. The bridal couple left later on a motor trip through the Southern States, the bride wearing a silver fox jacket, the gift of the bridegroom, with her wedding costume. They will reside in Charlottetown upon their return. -Montreal Star.

Girl Guide News

Each company will meet at its own headquarters and will proceed to church from there.

The 4th, 5th and 10th Companies will please remember that their service starts at 10:30. The 3rd at 10:45 and the others at 11 o'clock.

All Guides and Brownies will attend church on Sunday morning. Captains and Brownie Guides will not change in place of meeting. Each Company and Pack will meet in its own headquarters instead of Richmond Square as previously planned. The 4th, 5th and 10th Companies will please remember that their service starts at 10:30. The 3rd Company at 10:45 and the others at 11 A. M.

The Borden Girl Guides celebrated the King's Birthday by planting a tree in front of Town Hall with Mr. Alex Chappell representing the Mayor. The Company assembled under the leadership of the Captain, Miss Sexton. The dedication service was opened by singing, O Canada, after a brief address by the Captain, Mr. Chappell then planted with due ceremony. After singing God Save The King, the Company dispersed.

The 1st Borden Company held their regular meeting on Monday evening. It was decided to go on a motor trip through the Capital. We hope to initiate the younger Guides into outdoor Guiding.

POLICE COURT. - There were two "milk by-law" cases in police court, yesterday and the case of an Indian vagrant was adjourned.

PRESENTED IN OTTAWA. - Mrs. McCulloch, wife of H. B. McCulloch, M. P., returned last night from Ottawa, after a twelve days visit, a brief part of which she spent in Montreal with her son and his wife, Mrs. John McCulloch. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Don Gass, of Charlottetown, P. E. I., and they were up to present in Ottawa. On their way to the Capital, with Mr. McCulloch they were present at the parliamentary dinner which Their Majesties attended, in the gold and great room of the Chateau Laurier followed by an impromptu reception in the drawing room, the King and Queen, waving formally, shook hands with all of the 700 guests who were presented at their request. They also attended other functions. Mrs. McCulloch announced that Miss Kay went down to Wolfville today. -New Glasgow News.

SUCCESSFUL GUILD AT HOME. - Zion Church Guild held a much enjoyed At Home Tuesday afternoon at the Mansie, the pretty residence of Rev. and Mrs. Carlyle Webster, which was gay with flowers and ferns. Mrs. James MacMillan, President of the Guild was assisted in serving by Mrs. Webster, and the guests ushered by Mrs. Frank Dillon and Mrs. Reuben MacDonald. Little Constance Cook attended the door. During the afternoon a delightful musical program was given by Miss Rose Wood and Miss Margaret MacKay, who sang a duet by Mrs. S. Henderson and Mrs. Arthur Roper was greatly enjoyed. The tea table was presided over by Mrs. W. M. MacKay, who was assisted in serving by the ladies of the Guild.

WEDDING BELLS. - The Saint John Telegraph Journal says: St. Dunstan's Church in Fredericton, decorated with palms and spring flowers, was the scene of an interment on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, when Rev. Joseph Hanbery, uncle of the bride, officiated at the marriage of Miss Agnes Josephine Marie Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Hughes, and Gerald Patrick Griffin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Griffin. The organist of the church played as the professional "The Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin, and also accompanied the soloist, Leo Cain, in the singing of "Ave Maria" and "Ave Verum" during the ceremony. The ring was given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a blue point d'esprit gown over matching taffeta, in plum effect. Her small black hat was fashioned of flowers, and she wore silver slippers. She carried a bouquet of roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Isabel Hughes, who wore a pink and white taffeta, and a small halo hat of pink flowers. Her arm bouquet was of Talsman roses. John Hughes, brother of the bride, was the best man, and the ushers were Daniel Riley of Charlottetown, P. E. I., Edward Hughes of Fredericton and John Ivory of Fredericton. Mrs.
