WELL KNOWN HERE. - Old friends in Summerside and Charlottetown who will remember Captain Fraser of the S. S. Bonavista, when that steamer used to call at these ports will be interested in the following from the New Glasgow Chronicle: "Captain D. C. Fraser, of Chance Harbor, more familiarly and affectionately known as 'Captain Dan' was calling on friends in New Glasgow this week. Despite the fact that he is in his 94th year he is hale and hearty and his reminiscences of the earlier days when he sailed the seven seas are most interesting. It is a pity they were not compiled in book form for they would be a volume that would prove a revelation to the generation of the present day."

NATHAN M. DINGWELL

Died suddenly at his home 24 Barton St., Somerville, Mass., Dec. 27th, 1931. Nathan M. Dingwell, Mr. Dingwell had been in his usual health when he was stricken with angina pectoris and only lived a couple of hours. He came to Boston forty-six years ago and worked as a carpenter for a short time when he entered the employ of Brown and Durell Co., and has been with them up to the time of his death.

Mr. Dingwell was a man with many sterling qualities of mind and heart which endeared him to a very large circle of friends and acquaintances. His home was always opened to receive friends as well as strangers who were always made welcome. He leaves a widow to mourn. One daughter predeceased him thirteen years ago, the time of the flu epidemic in Boston. Three sisters and two brothers survive, Mrs. A. C. Fabian, Mrs. E. H. Hardy and Wadman Dingwell, all living in Somerville, Mass., Mrs. Henry Dingwell and Gordon Dingwell of Annandale, Prince Edward Island.

Burial was at Mount Auburn Cemetery, Cambridge and the service was held from the Chapel conducted by the Rev. Lynn Radcliffe of College Ave., M. E. Church.

There were many floral tributes and expressions of sympathy. Mr. Dingwell was born sixty-three years ago at Bay Fortune, Prince Edward Island and was the eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dingwell.

Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved widow and relatives. Knowledge: Knowledge will not be acquired without pains and application. It is troublesome and deep digging for pure water - but when once you come to the pure springs they rise up to meet you. - Felton.

ALBERTON REGALS & O'LEARY MAROONS

The Alberton Regals won an impressive victory over their ancient rivals the O'Leary Maroons when they defeated them to the tune of 6-0 in a Prince County League game here Friday night. From bell to bell the game was very fast and in the first period E. Millman, stellar Alberton defense man, scored three brilliant goals on individual rushes. H. Larkin netted No. 4 for Alberton in the second session and in the third set-to, B. I. Reynor and H. Jeffrey scored one each. The Alberton team under the competent coaching of Fred Ramsay is improving with every practice and we are confident that this year the MacLean Cup will find a final resting place in Alberton. Bankers To Answer Numerous Charges

(Canadian Press) BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 27 - Roy A. Hovey, who, as Bank Commissioner, had charge of the State's banks from 1925 until 1930, was one of 15 men who surrendered and pleaded not guilty today to indictments growing out of an investigation into the affairs of the closed industrial bank and trust company.

The group with the exception of Hovey, represented the entire board of management of the bank and its directors. They were all released in sums varying from 2,500 to $15,000. Hovey, who never was officially connected with the bank, was named on 228 counts in 46 indictments. He was charged with knowingly aiding and abetting in the violation of the banking laws, being an accessory of these violations and conspiring to the end that an officer and member of the investment committee of the trust company should borrow funds from the savings branch of the bank. He was released in $2,500.

The last to surrender was John J. Curley, former city treasurer of Boston and a brother of Mayor James M. Curley, he was released on his own recognizance. Curley was a director of the bank which closed on March 19, 1931. At that time it had 16,000 savings depositors with accounts totalling more than $1,675,000.

Longshoremen Continue Work

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Jan. 27 - (By The Canadian Press) - Employers having declined to defer the question of a 10 per cent cut in longshoremen's wages and other points in dispute until May 11, and the union refusing to return to work on any other condition, the situation resulting from the St. John's strike was little changed today.

Union men, however, were working on premises of the Government railway, Crosbie and Company, Hallett's, Hickman's, Cashin and Company, and Lazo and Company, and it is expected will continue to do so until February 1, when the cut goes into effect.

The Steamer Sambre was being unloaded at Hickman's, but no work was being done on the Incemore or the coal-laden Watuka which arrived Sunday.

"I had pimples and blackheads for nearly two years. The pimples were scattered all over my face and were hard, large and red, causing severe pain. They itched and burned and when I scratched it caused eruptions. The irritation prevented me from sleeping. I used different remedies but they did not help any. A friend recommended Cuticura Soap and Ointment so I purchased some, and after using three cakes of Cuticura Soap and three boxes of Cuticura Ointment I was completely healed."
