Competition At Cavalry Camp Creates Interest

P. E. I. Light Horse And Kings Canadian Hussars In Training—Major General McNaughton To Visit Camp.

KENTVILLE, July 5—With clear crisp weather, though a shade chilly at night, the Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island troops at Aldershot have all swung into active training with everything functioning smoothly under the direction of the general and administrative staffs.

The first evening some of the men found it quite cold under canvass, but with the extra issue of one blanket per person, authorized yesterday, making a total of four heavy army blankets per person, that matter was settled.

Today the Prince Edward Island Highlanders, the Cape Breton Highlanders, and the Signallers held their first musketry practice on the big range, while the other units carried on their regular drill. This evening there was a motion picture show at the Y. M. C. A. The "Y," which is in charge of Earle Wilson, Physical Director of the Halifax Y. M. C. A., is proving one of the most popular places in camp when the men are off duty.

A baseball league has been organized with practically all the units as members, and the 6th Machine Gun Corps, 1928 champions, got away to a good start by annexing a win. A league game will be played each evening.

Announcement has been made that there will be a silver trophy awarded to the cavalry unit making the highest points in a competition, rules for which are framed by the local branch of the Canadian Cavalry Association. A similar competition is held among the infantry units for money prizes, awarded by the Canadian Association. Both of these competitions are based on drill, tactical training, care of equipment and arms, and the interior administration of the unit.

Last year the cavalry competition, which was between the Prince Edward Island Light Horse, who trained at Charlottetown, and the King's Canadian Hussars, who trained at Aldershot, was won by the P. E. I. Cavalry unit. This year with both units at the same camp the competition is creating great interest. In 1928 the Infantry competition was won by the Colchester and Hants Regiment.

Friday and Saturday will be big days at Aldershot. On the former day the camp will be honored by a visit from Major General A. G. L. McNaughton, C. B., C. M. G., D. S. O., chief of the general staff. On Saturday the annual camp track and field sports will be held. Members of the different units are now training for these events.
