

NEWS of the WORLD in PICTURES

LOCKOUT — While washing windows, Mrs. Clara Kelly found herself locked tight in this position by the window's efficient burglar eschies. With her daughter, Linda, age-18 months, powerless to help, Mrs. Kelly sat exposed to freezing winds for 40 minutes until neighbors came to the rescue.

Engaged to be married, Don Gilchrist and Marlene Smith, left, retained their Canadian senior pairs title at St. Catharines, Ont., Canadian amateur figure skating championships. Unopposed, they had to score three-quarters of the possible total to keep title. Suzanne Morrow, 19-year-old Toronto ice queen, right, kept her women's senior singles crown by scoring four firsts and one second. Her exhibition was a brilliant effort, performed with poise and smoothness. Marlene Smith, Niagara Falls, Ont., placed second, and Vevi Smith, third. Roger Wicks, Vancouver, successfully defended his senior men's singles title.

FROUD PAPA — Italian film director Roberto Rossellini (at right), who admitted "I am the father," smilingly accepts congratulations on his return to a movie set outside Rome after the birth of a son to actress Ingrid Bergman. He said the child will be named Roberto Ingmar.

OLD KENTUCKY WATERLOGGED HOME — Water from the flooding Cumberland River swirls around homes in Williamsburg, Ky., making hundreds of persons homeless. Other cities in the Ohio Valley were equally hard hit throughout Ohio, West Virginia and Kentucky. Additional floods in Arkansas forced many more persons from low-lying homes.

LONG WAY TO GO — Contestants move into position at the start of the International Ski Federation's 40-kilometer ski relay championship at Rumford, Me. Sweden was the unofficial winner at first reports. Meanwhile, Norway was scoring a sweep in the jumping championship at Lake Placid, N.Y.

The death sentence on Alfred Childs, 17-year-old farmhand sentenced to be hanged Feb. 10 for murder in the rifle-slaying of a farmer near Napanee, Ont., last summer, has been commuted to life imprisonment. Childs was convicted by a supreme court jury at Napanee, Nov. 19, in the slaying of Elijah McQuaig, fatally wounded by rifle bullets fired from a barn. The Napanee Ministerial Association and Con. Wallace Bunton of the Salvation Army pleaded for commutation of the death sentence because of the youth of accused. Childs broke down when he heard the news and with the Salvation Army man in the quiet prison cell received prayers.

Dragged from death was Buno, one of three Alsatian watchdogs at home of John Ross, 11, Agincourt, Ont. Fourth dog Tanny, a Great Dane, barked alarm, but perished in flames which gutted service station, garage of the Ross family. John rescued others, couldn't save Tanny.

OPEN ROAD — Julie Lunt's navy rough straw picture hat features a wide band of white ribbon as a roadway for the 1950 auto perched atop the brim. The motorized bonnet appeared at the Fashion Academy in New York City.

Major General Leslie R. Groves, wartime head of the Manhattan atom project, is shown in Norwalk, Conn., looking at a photo of British scientist Dr. Emil Julius Klaus Fuchs, who Groves said was one of the few who had access to U.S. plans for future atomic developments. Groves said that Fuchs, who has been arrested in London and charged with espionage, was present at Los Alamos at a time when it is understood the construction of a hydrogen bomb was first discussed. Later on in Washington, J. Edgar Hoover told a congressional committee that Fuchs has made a "complete confession" that he gave U.S. atomic secrets to Russia.

Charged with murder is Joseph Byrnes, 25-year-old navy veteran, right, who is alleged to have tried to "break-up" a party at his Peterboro, Ont., home by firing a gun at a wall. Slug penetrated plaster, killed woman. Seen at the left is his wife, Mrs. Helen Kendry, mother of two, who was dancing when a slug from Byrnes' old rifle tore through wall, went through her body, hit Harold "Huck" Frost.

Layout of home is shown in this sketch. Mrs. Kendry and "Huck" Frost happened on by accident. They had been visiting her brother, Jack, and his bride of two weeks, who live in two rooms in Byrnes' home. They joined party on the way out.

Shooting took place in this modest little home. Byrnes is said to have become sleepy and disgruntled at party, which began in beverage room, fired to "end it off."