Will Carry U.S. Colors Against Great Britain

WIMBLEDON, England, July 25.—The veterans Wilmer Allison and Johnny Van Ryn and "freshman" Don Budge, the same scrapping trio that defeated Germany in the inter-zone final, will carry America's colors against Great Britain in the United States' sixth attempt to regain the coveted Davis Cup, prized amateur tennis trophy of the world.

In the challenge round the 31-year-old Allison and the 19-year-old Budge will square off against Fred Perry and H. W. "Bunny" Austin in the four singles duels Saturday and Tuesday. Allison again will attempt the "iron man stunt" of partnering 26-year-old Van Ryn against George Patrick Hughes and C. R. D. Tuckey in Monday's doubles match.

There had been unofficial belief in some quarters that Sidney E. Wood, Jr., would be used in the singles with Budge so that Allison could concentrate on the doubles. Capt. Joseph Wear, however, said: "Of course there won't be any change and it would be foolish to make a change now."

The draw for the opening singles will be made tomorrow.

Eton and Harrow Defeat Canadian Schoolboys

(C. P. Cable by Guardian's Special Wire)

LONDON, July 25.—Eton and Harrow, England's two great public schools, claim victories over the Canadian schoolboy cricketers now touring in the Old Country. Eton today proved too strong for its less-experienced opponents, running up a total of 266 runs for eight wickets declared. The Canadians replied with 111.

In the match against Harrow a few days ago the visitors lost by an even wider margin, scoring only 75 runs against 258 for seven declared.

With two more games to play the Canadians' record now shows one win, five losses and three draws.

Premier Expected Back Early Next Week

OTTAWA, July 25.—Return to Ottawa of Prime Minister R. B. Bennett, now on a brief holiday, is expected early next week, but not later than Thursday.

Reorganization of his cabinet will be one of the first matters to take up his attention. The consensus of opinion is the changes will be made public within ten days after his return.

An announcement of the date of the election, possibly Sept. 23, probably will be announced later rather than coincident with the cabinet shuffle.

Printing of the voters lists will be completed by Aug. 15, it was stated. Forms and regulations have been sent to returning officers, placing the routine preparations for elections in a well advanced state.

"With farmers clamoring for help, said the Premier, there was no need to feed able-bodied single men from the public purse. We are going to compel single men to go out and take farm work," said Mr. Hepburn. "After the harvest is over we will reconsider our action, but until then relief stops for single men."

Evangelist Explains Seven World Disasters

"Seven great world disasters" are predicted to occur in one single year said Evangelist F. W. Johnston in his lecture at the Forum last night. These disasters he said were of such magnitude as to affect the entire human family with the bare exception of a very small minority, and these will be conspicuous because of their protection. These disasters he said will not only affect the health of the majority because of the ravages of disease, but the physical geological conditions will be of such a character as to affect even commerce both on land and on the sea, vegetation itself being completely demolished and even the water becoming stagnant, foul and odiferous. In fact the entire earth will become a regular charnel house and thousands upon thousands will be literally left to rot; for burial will be out of the question. These seven world disasters he said are the seven last plagues spoken of in Revelation 15: 1 and all of chapter 16, and nothing that has ever happened he said will be comparable to this one year preceding the second coming of the Lord Jesus Christ.

The evangelist then raised the question as to who will be the victims? Surely not the righteous if we believe Ps. 91: 1-10. He then referred to Rev. 14: 9 which points out that those who worship the beast power brought to view in this passage will be the only ones who will suffer. This is the power he said that exalts itself against God, persecutes the true church, and thinks himself able to even change the laws of God. This is the power he said that rule the world in the time of the Dark Ages.

Mr. Johnston spoke of the number seven so prominent in the Bible as being a complete number, such as the seven seals, the seven churches, the seven trumpets, etc., and even in other things with which we are commonly associated such as the seven days in the week representing a complete week, the seven notes in music, and the seven colors in light. Thus with the seven last plagues he said they were the fulness of the wrath of God.

The evangelist then considered the disasters themselves in Revelation 15th chapter. The first he read was a noxious and grievous sore upon those who worship the beast and his image and who receive his mark. This sore will agonize and irritate and cause a burning fever. The second one is poured out on the ocean which it states will become as the blood of a dead man and all fish die. All such will naturally contaminate the air with the order of decaying blood. It will also prevent traffic on the ocean and cause pestilence to spread all over the earth. The third plague he said would be directed against the rivers for when the victims of the first plague seek the rivers to alleviate their thirst they have nothing but blood to drink, and the Lord adds that they are worthy for they have shed the blood of saints and martyrs and he gives them blood to drink. The fourth is directed against the sun which becomes so intensely hot as to scorch the flesh of men and consequently vegetation is also destroyed. The fifth is one of intense darkness that can be felt.

The sixth is the battle of Armageddon, the seventh marks the climax when hell is poured out upon the earth. In all this however the Lord provides a refuge for his people even though it says that a thousand wicked will fall at their side and God will protect his people and hence it pays to do what is right.

An official Ethiopian communique appearing in the London Times, Legation's move denied any hatred of foreigners existed in Ethiopia, despite "Italian press insinuations." GENEVA, July 25.—Ethiopia and Italy, facing war, sent notes to the League of Nations today in which each accused the other of responsibility for the trouble.

Ethiopia made an urgent request for a session of the League of Nations council and protested, as she had previously, against Italy's preparations for war in East Africa. Italy, on the other hand, accused Ethiopia of responsibility for the breakdown recently of the joint commission which adjourned after failing to agree at a meeting in Scheveningen, the Netherlands.

In Rome, it was stated that the Italian Minister to Ethiopia had suggested to Emperor Haile Selassie that the conciliation commission sessions should be renewed. The contents of the Ethiopian note were not revealed immediately, but it was stated Ethiopia asked that the Council discuss the Italo-Ethiopian dispute in its entirety. The Council is to meet next week. Italy pointed out that today the time limit expired for the work of the conciliation commission. It insisted that the work at Scheveningen was interrupted "solely owing to

In the Upper House, Senator William King (D. Utah) was pondering introduction of a resolution for a Senate investigation into what he called the "cruel and brutal" treatment of Jews and Roman Catholics in Germany. He said yesterday the inquiry should determine whether this country should sever diplomatic relations with the Nazi Government. King told the Senate yesterday the resolution would go in today. Some sources said however, he might reconsider and not submit it after all.

Silent for the most part concerning the recent blast against Germany, the State Department did say it had no record of any United States citizen in Germany who had been discriminated against in violation of the German-American commercial treaty of 1925.

The department spoke in answer to an inquiry from Paul Windels, New York corporation counsel. Contending that Jewish-American citizens in Germany had been denied their rights, Mayor Fiorello LaGuardia of New York recently

India Sends Gift Of Wild Animals

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)
HALIFAX, July 25.—The mighty roar of King Leo, the brilliant coloring of striped Bengal tigers, sparkling spotted leopards and other denizens of the jungle greeted visitors today as they went aboard the freighter City of Johannesburg to view a strange gift from the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh, India, to the people of Canada.

The wild cargo is consigned to the Canadian National Exhibition at Toronto where the animals will form an exhibit of the Indian provinces and later be presented to the Canadian people.

The City of Johannesburg put out from Garden Reach, California for Halifax June 12, taking more than a month for their passage. She was skippered by a grizzled old Scot of 65 years, Captain Alex Gardner, who sailed in barques out of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick in the days of wooden ships.

Only two animals were lost in the crossing of two oceans. A tiger cub became sick and died two days out, and a bear jumped overboard and, after rescue, died on ship from effects of its wetting.

A number of baby animals formed part of the consignment. They are to be presented to the children of Canada.

Animals were only part of the ship's cargo. Burlap, rice and tea were also discharged at this port.

THE SINGING MOUNTAIN
Have you ever heard of a singing mountain? asks the London Evening News. There is one in Palestine, near Mount Sinai.

It is a sandy hill, and as one walks up it the tiny particles of sand move and rub against one another.

This "friction" causes sound which is at first soft, like the notes of a violin; then louder like the deep pealing of a bell; and at last rather like the roar of thunder.
