In Kingston Methodist Church Thursday evening, January 28th, a well attended and enthusiastic temperance meeting was held, presided over by Rev. Gordon Orman of Cornwall, the deputation, Rev. W. D. Wilson, Field Secretary of the Temperance Alliance, P. E. Island, and Rev. Mr. McVie of Hazelbrook greatly impressed the audience by their grouping of facts, figures and urgent appeals. The results in electoral pledges and financial support was encouraging. The meeting, which in some senses was by no means "dry," was further enlivened by the singing of the church choir, led by their esteemed organist, Miss Lolo Barrett.

HORSE NOTE.—The owner of Commodore Grant in answer to Spectator writes: "Replying to yours re Thursday's races, I beg to advise you that the big pacer was positively handled to best advantage to win out under prevailing circumstances, but owing to his being ridden at idle for several weeks, also it being his first appearance to start in a race, the horse became unmanageable. When the war whoop was brought into action, thus preventing his driver from keeping the free legged pacer on his stride only in two heats. As for his extreme speed, the writer never yet saw him go so fast, but what he could engrave a much faster ride." In the next races called this green free legged pacer starts up against four or five crackerjacks, old campaigners, so all admirers of the green pacer are advised not to put up a shill, handkerchief against a palace on Back Bay in Boston.

ISLAND LADY PRIZE WINNERS. The following is from a Sackville exchange.—Seldom, if ever, was there a larger crowd attended a carnival. Cobby's rink, that last night, when the firemen held their annual carnival. A fine night, good roads, good ice and a delightful crowd made the night one of the most pleasant and good and the judges found considerable difficulty in determining which were entitled to the honors. However, the decisions met with popular favor. A choice musical programme was rendered by the Sackville Citizens' Band and their selections added much to the pleasure of the evening. It was a representative gathering as a glance at the skaters in costume would indicate. Grinning coons and stately princes linked arms with Indian maids and handsome queens and glided to and fro to the strains of the band music. The following were the prize winners: Ladies' original—"Laughing Water," Miss E. B. Fraimor, of Charlottetown; ladies' fancy—"British Isles," name unknown; men's original—"Sackville Fire Department," Harry Milner; men's fancy—"Phillipino," Remforth Dixon; child's original—"Bugler Boy," Horace Pitney; child's fancy—"Christmas Tree," Minnie Estabrooks.

EXAMINATION.—The semi-annual examination of Argyle School was held on Jan. 22nd. There were present besides the trustees a large number of ladies and gentlemen from the district and also several ladies from adjoining districts. The pupils were examined in the various subjects by the teacher, Mrs. Mary MacQuarrie, assisted by Miss Parkman, teacher of New Argyle. The scholars by their ready answers, showed a good knowledge of all subjects examined. This goes to show that the teacher is well fitted for her profession. S. A. Murley acted as chairman and a carefully prepared programme followed which was very creditably performed by the pupils. Short speeches were then given by the trustees and others who expressed themselves highly pleased by the work done. The examination was brought to a close by singing "God Save the King." A very nice thing occurred previous to the examination when the teacher was presented with a beautiful gold bracelet by the scholars. Miss MacQuarrie thanked them for their handsome gift and hoped she would be able to teach the school in the future. The inevitable would take her away from them.

HORSE NOTES.

There have been several Golden Crosses found in the breeding of the light harness horse. The first was that of Hambleton upon American Star Mares; the second that of George Wilker 2.22 upon the daughter of Mambrino Patchen. The third that of Barton Wilkes 2.18 upon the mare by Stratford. The fourth was that of the property of J. M. Nicholson of Charlottetown whose first crop of foals attracted so much attention, all of them seemed to be born trotters, and the way they showed leads one to believe that the day of Aquiri will soon be here. Aquiri is one of Butaxia whose grandson Baden 2.05 1/2 was a race horse of outstanding merit as his campaign of a year ago shows.

CHILDREN STARVING TO DEATH

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—A London Daily Express despatch dated Nish, Serbia, Thursday, to the New York Herald, says: Metropolitan Dimitri, supreme head of the Serbian church describes to me in the following words the terrible distress of the civilian population of Serbia: "Today one million Serbians, one-third of the population, are suffering every possible sorrow. They are destitute of everything. Since the beginning of the war, when their lands were turned into battlefields they have endured terrible privations and their sufferings have been still greater during the war because the first invasion took away a great proportion of the peasants who remained behind to provide food for the families of those who were fighting.

"Women, mothers, wives and sisters, are suffering now because of the second invasion which must last longer and more Serbians are being driven from their homes. In six of the most fertile districts no less than fifty per cent. of the children are dying from lack of nourishment and medicine, from cold and exposure. In the villages everything has been pillaged and destroyed and when the unfortunate refugees who are compelled to flee, return to their homes they will find the majority of cases find nothing either in the shape of houses or food."

The metropolitan's statement is not exaggerating. It only barely indicates that the situation is so full of horror and pathos as to be almost indescribable.
