*PLAN TO ATTEND the big Auction in Bruce Yeo's Theatre at Montague on Wednesday evening, November 30th, starting at 7:30. Proceeds to be given to the Children's Hospital. A great variety of desirable goods will be offered.

The lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. William Webster, Lower Montague, was the scene of a very happy occasion when a number of friends of Miss Dorothy Matheson and Mr. John Dewar tendered them a pre-nuptial miscellaneous shower. The many lovely gifts were opened by Mrs. Andrew Landry and the verses were read by Mrs. Fred Webster. In fitting words Mr. Dewar expressed appreciation of himself and Miss Matheson. The remainder of the evening was spent in singing and dancing with music furnished by Messrs. Murray Johnston, Cliff Lilley, and George Boudreau.

The Nursery Club of the Montague Memorial Hospital held their meeting this week at the home of Mrs. Leon Johnston in the form of a White Elephant Sale. There was a fine turn out of members and friends. Auctioneer for the evening was Mrs. Malcolm Clair. Many useful and lovely articles were sold. Twenty-seven dollars, including lunch money, was made. This money will go towards buying Hospital equipment. A delicious lunch was then served by the lunch committee, followed by a social half-hour.

*HOME AND SCHOOL MEETING—A meeting of the Glenadale Home and School Association was held in the School room on Nov. 14. The president, Mrs. W. B. Fitzpatrick presided. Meeting opened with prayer led by Rev. K. C. MacMillan. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The president then called on Sister Clare Therese, who brought forward some teaching topics and school problems for the consideration of the parents. Among these the importance of regular attendance was stressed, as being most essential to the success of the pupil. Sister Carmilla gave a very interesting talk on the use of a new basic readers. Some new methods of teaching reading were clearly explained. Rev. K. C. MacMillan stressed the need of monthly meetings and also the importance of the child's welfare. Parents and teachers should work co-operatively to ensure best results. A discussion took place regarding cod liver oil capsules which Red Cross are offering to school children. It was moved by Mr. Basil MacDonald and seconded by Mrs. B. MacDonald that home and school take over this project. This was followed by a discussion on the advisability of having a Christmas Concert. All were unanimous in supporting this motion. It was moved by Mrs. W. F. Power and seconded by Mrs. P. Mullen, that a fee of twenty-five cents be paid, and also to have a mite box for voluntary donations. It was decided to hold the next meeting on the second Monday of December, and the subject chosen for discussion was "Comics and the Child." The meeting closed with the National Anthem. *MURRAY RIVER W. I. The Murray River Women's Institute celebrated the thirty-fifth anniversary of the Institute at their annual meeting, Nov. 14. The following is the list of officers: Mrs. F. W. Johnston, provincial president, and Mrs. Julian Herring, representative of the F. W. I. C., all of whom gave very interesting and instructive addresses on different phases of Institute work. The special feature of the occasion took place when the president requested Mrs. Lester Brehaut to come forward to be honored as the only charter member of the Institute. The following citation was read by the president after which Mrs. MacLeod, the provincial president, presented Mrs. Brehaut with a corsage and her Life Membership Certificate. Mrs. Brehaut spoke her thanks in a few well chosen words. On this the thirty-fifth anniversary the Institute honored Mrs. Brehaut as the only charter member of Murray River Institute. For thirty-five years she has been a wonderful leader and a worthy member, where by her regular attendance at the meetings and by her active interest in Institute affairs, community, school and library, she has contributed largely to the success of Institute projects. She has continually held office in some capacity during those years, having held office as president at one time for six years, and as a member of the executive board she showed exceptional managing ability. Being intensely interested in Red Cross work she has given generously of time and money to all appeals, especially during the two world wars when her home was often the centre of Red Cross activities where the members enjoyed her cheerful friendly hospitality. Although, as the wife of a do-

The Young People's Union of the Montague United Church held a farewell party on Monday evening in the Church classroom in honour of Mr. Stephen MacGregor, who leaves for Glace Bay, N.S., this week, where he will spend the winter months taking an advanced course in watch repair. Twenty-seven members gathered, and a very jolly evening was enjoyed by all playing table tennis, darts, and riddle. Mr. Malcolm Patterson, president of the Y. P. U. presented Stephen with a beautiful cigarette case on behalf of the group. Stephen thanked the group for their thoughtfulness. A delicious luncheon served in the dining room by a number of the ladies after which the group enjoyed a sing-song.

The Rebekah Degree was conferred on two brother Odd Fellows at the regular meeting of the Rebekah Lodge, Montague, on Thursday evening. The new members are Mr. John A. Shaw and Mr. Stephen D. MacGregor. At the close of the meeting, lunch was served by a committee of the ladies. The following is the degree staff: Musician, Mrs. D. M. MacDonald; degree mistress, Mrs. Archie Hilchey and Mrs. Neil Hooley; supporters of vice-grand, Mrs. Carl Stewart and Miss Mary Hemphill; warden, Mrs. R. G. MacLeod; conductor, Mrs. J. D. MacLeod; banner bearer, Miss Thelma Larier; Miss Ada MacGregor; Mrs. Douglas MacLaren, and Mrs. Byron Stewart; soloist, Mrs. J. D. MacLeod.
