THE MARKETS

(Canadian Press) MONTREAL, Aug. 10.—The foreign demand for Canadian grain here today was extremely dull and the volume of the business was small. Spot prices for oats were unchanged and the demand was limited. A moderate amount of export business was transacted in winter and spring wheat grades of flour. Prices were unchanged, the demand for millfeed was good, but owing to scarcity of small supplies, little business was done, but prices were steady. The roller market continued active with a good deal of both home and foreign trade being done. Prices were firm, while the volume of business in the butter and cheese markets was very small prices were well maintained in both instances. Extreme dullness marked the trade in eggs. OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 10.—There was little change noted in the egg market throughout Canada, over the week end with the exception of Montreal where receipts are reported as a little heavier. There is a slight decline in receipts throughout the country, Winnipeg reports receipts still light but the quality improving, Toronto steady. Dealers quoting wholesale specials 42 extras 39 to 40 firsts 36 to 37, seconds 33 to 34. Montreal reports egg receipts as heavier. The cooler weather has brought no immediate change in prices, a better local demand is looked for, Winnipeg market firm with receipts and quality improving. Dealers paying delivered extras 32, firsts 29, seconds 26, Saskatchewan receipts are lighter with prices unchanged. Dealers paying firsts 25, retailing 30, jobbers offering extras 29, firsts 26, seconds 23. Calgary egg market unchanged. Dealers paying country points delivered extras 22 firsts 28, seconds 24, Edmonton condition of egg market remains unchanged. Dealers quoting shippers delivered extras 30 firsts 26 second 20. Vancouver market remains steady. Dealers paying country points extras 28, firsts 36.

LIVE STOCK MARKET.

MONTREAL, Aug. 10.—Dominion live stock report cattle receipts $1,292. Included in today's offerings were a number of well finished steers weighing in the neighborhood of 1200 lbs. each, and about 125 of these were sold for export. Balance of steers were in fair demand for butchers' trade, but cows were slow sellers. Good steers brought from seven twenty-five to seven seventy-five. Butchers and medium kinds six twenty to seven dollars, but bulk around six seventy-five. Common steers sold mostly from five and six dollars with a few at four-fifty. A few good heifers realized six to six and a half. Most of the cows were of Northwest origin and few sales made were from four to four fifty for best with top price of five dollars paid for some good locals. Common and medium dairy type cows ranged from two seventy-five to three seventy-five. There were no good bulls, and common Bolognes brought from two seventy-five to three fifty, with three dollars as ruling price. Quotations: Butcher steers good, $7.25; medium, $6.25 to $7.00; commons, $4.50 to $5.75; butcher cows good, $4.00 to $5.00; medium $2.75 to $3.75; canners, $1.65 to $2.00; cutters, $2.00 to $2.50; butcher bulls, common, $2.75 to $3.50; calf receipts, $2.026. Calves were in good demand. Good veals were scarce and most lots sold from $7.50 to $8.25, with top of $9.00 paid for odd ones picked out. Medium quality suckers.

YORK SCHOOL

In York School on Wednesday afternoon, June 17, was held the Public Examination of the pupils. There was a large attendance, about forty visitors and thirty pupils being present. Among those present was Miss Renie Wood, who teaches singing at the school. During the programme the musical part of which was especially well rendered showed those present the great benefit of their short training in singing. The pupils were examined in the subjects which they had taken up and showed a steady progress in their work.

The following programme was afterwards carried out: One of the pupils, Wendall Vessey acted as chairman. Chorus by the School. Recitation, Grandpa's Advice to the Boys by Muriel Dover. Drill—A Dream of Mother Goose by 10 small children. Duet—by Florence and Mary Vessey. Reading by Frances Vessey. Recitation by Lloyd Vessey. Solo and Chorus by Naomi Beatson and School. Reading by James Proud. Solo by Roberta Brown. Dialogue, "Lucinda's Mistake, by Isabel Brown and Ivan Vessey. Recitation, by Queenie Hudson. Motion Song by eight girls and boys. Monologue, by Roy Vessey. Huntsman's Chorus by the School. Presentation of Prizes and Certificates. Then Florence Vessey came forward and read the following address to the teacher while Roberta Brown presented her with a leather under-arm bag and a handkerchief. Dear Teacher: We, the pupils of York School take this opportunity at the close of this, another year, to express our appreciation to you for your faithful work and patience with us the year that has passed. You have been a valued member of our community, always willing to help in social work. Since coming among us two years ago you have won our affection and admiration of us all. Your wisdom and common sense have been a great source of strength and inspiration to us. In presenting you with this gift we do so as a slight expression of regard for your work. We all wish you a very happy holiday. Signed on behalf of pupils of York School. The teacher in a few words thanked the pupils and wished them all a pleasant vacation. The visitors and pupils were then served to ice cream and cake. The singing of the National Anthem brought the pleasant gathering to a close.

Wills-Tunney The Fighters

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—An offer for a fifteen round match between Harry Wills and Gene Tunney, leading heavyweight title contender at the Polo Grounds, September 23 or 25, was taken under advisement today by Paddy Mullins manager of Wills. Mullins expressed himself as well satisfied with the offer, the terms of which were not disclosed, but said he desired to communicate with Wills, now in Germany, on an European tour before making any decision. Mullins promised to give promoters of the Polo Grounds
