SECURITY FIRST AIM OF STATESMEN

Frederick Maurice Says There is Growing Desire in Europe to Avoid War.

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass., July 29.—Fear is the predominant cause of the great armies of Europe, says Frederick Maurice of London in the Institute of Politics today. France is fearful of the Germany of tomorrow, and the nations created by the peace treaty of Paris are maintaining excessive armies, largely due to their suspicion of Russia.

At his second round table discussion on the limitation of armaments, Sir Frederick, who was chief of operations on the British General Staff in the World War said: "The cause of the present situation in Europe is not the imperialistic or militaristic motive but the security in their programs. Next comes arbitration and last, limitation of armaments."

DEVELOPMENT OF MARITIME FISHING INDUSTRY

BY DR. A. H. GEE

In Today's Article, Dr. Gee Gives the Explanation Advanced by the Oceanographers for the Fertility of the Grand Bank Region. This is the Third of a Series of Articles Dealing With Fisheries Research on the Atlantic Coast.

(Special to The Guardian) NEWFOUNDLAND was made by a team composed of oceanographers, biologists and physicists. The scientists patrolled the 100 miles of the Strait in two boats one on the north shore and one on the south. They took the temperature of the water at various depths, and the direction of flow. In addition, drift bottles were put out at many different points and their migrations were noted.

When the observations were collected, it was found that water from the cold Labrador current made inward along the north side of the channel at roughly the same speed as the warm upward stream from the Gulf made outward next to Newfoundland. In the codfish, it appears, is particularly sensitive to the temperature of the water. Freezing temperatures are not only uncomfortable but they are fatal. The temperature of the sea is within a relatively narrow range of 40 to 55 degrees, but is not forced into excessive exercise to keep warm, nor is he kept constantly on the lookout for cooler currents in the ocean.

This discovery is the outcome of an investigation of the temperature, direction, and depth of the currents in the water of the Grand Bank of Newfoundland which has been completed by the Biological Board of Canada. Queer in and currents, hot and cold, through the Strait, puzzled scientists for some time until a thorough study of the narrow channel separates Labrador from

(Special to The Guardian) OTTAWA, Ont., July 29.—The exchange of flying officers between Canada and Britain, which since the war, has been carried on at least to the extent that Canadian officers have gone to Britain for staff courses, is now to take an enlarged form, if matters under consideration by the Cabinet at present are approved, says the Citizen. Under the new scheme, officers from Britain will have an opportunity to take part in the Canadian flying services, which include flying border patrols against bootlegging and drug running, surveying, fisheries protection, forest fire patrols and other services not included in training of a flying officer in Great Britain. Cabinet Will Not Meet Again Until After N. B. Elections

(Canadian Press) OTTAWA, July 29.—It is stated here on good authority that there will be no more meetings of the Cabinet until after the New Brunswick elections on August 10. In that case it is improbable that there will be any announcement in regard to the holding of an election this autumn, for a couple of weeks. It has been taken for granted that the Government will await the New Brunswick result before deciding whether or not to go to the country this autumn. If it should prove favorable to Provincial Government now in power it will be a factor in determining the Federal Premier to make his appeal. If it should be unfavorable it will be an added argument for those who are counselling the delay. For the present apparently the question of holding an election before the snow flies must remain unanswered.

Airplane Had Load of 100 Quarts of Whiskey

KALAMAZOO, Mich., July 29.—The forced landing of an airplane here has started an investigation of what officers believe is a conspiracy to transport liquor from Windsor, Ont. to Chicago by air.

REV. THEODORE GALLANT CELEBRATES SILVER JUBILEE

And is Presented With Address And Congratulations From Parishioners And Numerous Friends—St. Dunstan's Cathedral Choir Assisted At Solemn High Mass.

Yesterday at the church in Sturgeon, where he has labored for many years and endeared himself to the good people of that parish, Rev. Theodore Gallant celebrated his Silver Jubilee—twenty-five years in the service of the Master.

The occasion is one which will be long remembered by all who attended. A congratulatory address was read and telegrams and letters received from many friends throughout the island and other points who were unable to be present.

Father Theodore besides being a loving and hard-working pastor is a talented musician and many times has arranged musical settings for the Cathedral choir of this city. It is pleasing to note that his choir has had an opportunity of reciprocating, by attending yesterday, and rendering during the celebration of the mass Father Theodore's favorite Leonard's Mass in E flat.

Among the many who were in attendance were Messrs Jos. N. A. and John M. Gallant, brothers, and Mrs. Jos. O. Robichau, Metaghan Centre, and Mrs. Peter D. Gallant, St. Chrysostom, sisters of Father Theodore who occupied seats in the front of the Chapel.

Assisting in the Sanctuary were: Very Rev. Mgr. J. C. McLean, V. G., Revs. P. D. McGuigan, D. P. Croken, Owen Kiggins, J. Gallant, C. McDonald, A. W. Arsenault (Ottawa University), Mr. Smith, Maurice McDonald, R. J. McDonald.

The celebration opened by a Solemn High Mass at 9.30, the celebrant being the Jubilarian, assisted by Rev. P. P. Arsenault, as Deacon and Rev. Jos. Rooney, Subdeacon. Master of Ceremonies, Rev. E. C. Clinton. An appropriate sermon was delivered by Rev. I. R. A. McDonald, who explained the duties and responsibilities of the Holy Priesthood and in concluding congratulated the Jubilarian on having reached twenty-five years in the service of the Church and
