Eastern Guardian

CROPPING GENERAL—Cropping is pretty well done in this section, and a little heat would be very welcome.—J

SERMONS ENJOYED—In the absence of the pastor, Rev. Mr. McVicar of Cardigan occupied the pulpit of the Montague Presbyterian Church on Sunday last. Mr. McVicar is not new to this congregation, having been here in several occasions. As was expected both his sermons were gilded with his usual eloquence.

Mr. Fred Lathard left Montague on Wednesday last for Boston. Mr. Lathard is a first class carpenter and ought to experience no difficulty in securing suitable employment. He takes with him the best wishes of a host of friends.

POTATOES SHIPPED—Large quantities of potatoes have been coming into Montague during the past few days—the price paid being sixty cents per bushel, which is apparently satisfactory to the farmer.

HORSE NOTE—Mr. James B. McMillan the noted horseman of Summerville was a recent visitor to Montague, and took away with him the promising young horse "Wee McGregor" owned by Mr. D. McGregor. This horse will undergo a series of trainings on the Somerville Park, preparatory to entering the coming races. The fact that the practiced eyes of Mr. McMillan saw such great possibilities speaks well for the future of this horse.—J

Rev. J. W. McConnell, of Windsor, N. S. has been appointed Superintendent of Missions of the Methodist Church for the Maritime Provinces and Newfoundland. The position was made vacant by the death of Rev. George Steele, D. D. who had been Superintendent for several years and who is so widely remembered in this city. Rev. J. W. McConnell is a St. John man and has held many important pastorates in the Maritime Provinces including Grace Church, Charlottetown. He at present occupies the pulpit of the Methodist Church at Windsor. He will reside in Amherst on beginning his new duty. The late Dr. Steele had resigned his position and intended retiring on July 1st.

How the Prince of Wales broke into St. James' Palace late one night last week after he had gotten his latch key is told in the News of the World. He arrived at the palace early in the morning. A policeman saw him looking around for some means of getting in without waking the servants and was about to arrest the Prince when he recognized the heir to the throne. The hobby then pointed in the search for an open window

They separated in the search and a few moments the policeman heard a crash. The Prince had limed to a low roof, smashed the skylight and dropped through into the apartments.

Happenings Of The Week

this pleasant outdoor exercise. If the weather is fine today the tea hostesses will be Miss L. Horne, Miss M. Finlayson and Miss Ena McLeod.

Mrs. A. E. Morrison has been in Quebec this week as the city's representative at the convention of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire which was held at the Chateau Frontenac all this week. Among those given addresses were Mrs. C. M. diRune, Finnis, regent of the Municipal Chapter of Quebec who welcomed the ladies and Mrs. George Morrow representing Nova Scotia. The president's address was delivered by Mrs. P. G. Doolittle of Toronto. One of the evening sessions was addressed by Sir George Foster his subject being "The European Situation." Mrs. Morrison was accompanied by Mrs. Lewin who was paying her first visit to Quebec.

The convention of the Women's Institutes for this Province was almost interesting and instructive, gathering on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week and was most enjoyably ended with a visit to the Orphanage and tea at the Experimental Station, which never looked lovelier at this time of year.

At the Golf Links this afternoon tea will be served by Mrs. Aitken, Mrs. Longworth, Mrs. Champion and Miss Grant.

Miss Helen Rowlands of Halifax is visiting her sister, Mrs. Tom Rogers, Bayfield Street.

Mrs. A. F. Hansuld was the hostess at a very delightful afternoon tea on Wednesday in honor of her sister-in-law Mrs. E. S. Beckel of Ontario. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink carnations and snap dragon. Two very pleasing solos were rendered by Mrs. S. Henderson and Mrs. W. E. Agnew. Master Harold Beckel opened the door, while Misses Bell Agnew, Marjorie Stewart and Jean Grant assisted at serving.

Miss Penelope Howard, R. N., whose marriage to Mr. A. Bentley takes place on June 25th was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower given in her honor by Mrs. W. E. Bentley at her pretty home on the Esplanade. The popular bride-to-be received many useful kitchen utensils which were accompanied by the warmest of wishes for the future happiness of home over which she would soon so gracefully preside.

The serious illness of Mrs. C. C. Gardiner is deeply regretted by her wide circle of friends.

Among the distinguished visitors here this week from Ottawa were Mr. Justice Audette, Judge of the Exchequer Court of Canada, Mr. Charles Morse, D. C. L. K. C., Registrar of the Court and Mr. A. W. Duclos, K. C., B. C. L., Deputy Registrar of the Court.

New sport hats of leghorn are short in back and have a cloche brim. They are simply trimmed with folded bands of crepe de chine in different colors.

Mr. Fred Morris who is home from Vancouver is being cordially welcomed.
