

AGENTS: J. Elmer Murray, 20 Hanover St. and George Chas. 10 Ottawa St. SUMMERSIDE and PRINCE COUNTY News, Subscriptions Advertising

FOR SALE - 1944 Chevrolet sedan 4 perfect tires, can be seen at 19 Convent Street or phone 4-14 after 5 p.m. 6-17-44

PURCHASES PROPERTY - Mr. Carroll Delaney, Summerside has purchased residential property at 82 Spring Street from Mr. Frank Vaughan now occupied by Sgt. Lewis Watson, R.C.M.P. - 5.

LEARN OF SISTER'S DEATH - Mr. James Cairns of Summerside has received a telegram advising him of the death of his sister, Florence, Mrs. James Elliott of California, who passed away on June 16 - 5.

GRADUATES FROM HOSPITAL - Among the graduates of the school of nursing of St. Joseph's Hospital, St. John, N. B., on June 12th, was Miss Marie Linkletter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Linkletter, Summerside. The diploma was presented by the Most Rev. P. A. Bray, Bishop of St. John. Miss Linkletter was also awarded the prize for the highest standing in Surgical Nursing presented by Bishop Bray. She made 98% in this subject. Miss Linkletter still has some time to put in at the hospital before finishing her course. She is expected to return to Summerside where she is employed as a nurse.

BRIDAL SHOWER - A very pleasant evening was spent by a large number of friends who gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hampton Home, Rosebank, recently, to be present at a shower held in honor of their daughter, Mrs. Sydney Forbes. The bride is a member of the armed forces and is at present stationed at Beach Grove, Charlottetown. A prettily decorated basket, laden with gifts was presented to Mrs. Forbes, who was escorted to her seat by her sister, Miss Olive Hardy. Mrs. Maxwell Cameron and Miss Kathleen Williams presented the gifts and arranged them on the table. Various sums of money, Mrs. Forbes in her pleasing manner thanked her friends for their gifts and good wishes. The evening was passed pleasantly with music and social chat. Later the young folks danced. Four generations of the brides family were present, including her grandmother Mrs. Hammond Crockett, Woodside, Hampton Home, her mother and her sister Mrs. Maxwell Cameron, and daughter, Mrs. A. J. Cormier. The bride was escorted by her brother, Doris and her soldier husband wishing that this conflict would soon be over and that they may soon return to their home. Mrs. Forbes is at present teaching in Traveller's Rest school district - 5.

PERSONALS - Mrs. John D. MacLeod, Coleman is visiting in Charlottetown, the guest of her sister, Mrs. G. H. Robour - 5.

MISS Katherine Driscoll, R.N. of the Montreal Neurological Institute is spending a three week visit with her mother, Mrs. M. P. Driscoll, Summerside - 5.

Mrs. Wilfred Gaudet, Fitzroy Street, Summerside left by plane for Moncton this week, where she will spend a ten days visit with her sister, Mrs. A. J. Cormier and Dr. Cormier - 5.

Mrs. and Mrs. Gerald Morrison of Calgary are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Morrison, who is on his holidays in station agent at Calgary of the Canadian National Railway - 5.

Visiting their sister, Mrs. M. P. Driscoll, St. Mary's Hospital, St. John's, is spending a short vacation in Summerside with her sister, Mrs. M. P. Driscoll, Summerside - 5.

First Allied Cameraman to Land in France - Canadian Army cameraman, Sgt. D. E. Reynolds, scored a world first by being the first photographer to land in France on D-Day. Sgt. Reynolds lives in Toronto and is one of the few photographers to serve with the paratroopers. He landed from the skies with this hardened unit to film some of the best pictures of the Allied invasion. (Canadian Army Overseas Photo).

Canadian Army cameraman, Sgt. D. E. Reynolds, scored a world first by being the first photographer to land in France on D-Day. Sgt. Reynolds lives in Toronto and is one of the few photographers to serve with the paratroopers. He landed from the skies with this hardened unit to film some of the best pictures of the Allied invasion. (Canadian Army Overseas Photo).

TO-DAY

AT LAST ON THE SCREEN! The Cross of Lorraine

ALSO SHORT SUBJECT SHOWS 7.30 - 9.15 TUESDAY AT 3.30 CAPITOL SUMMERSIDE

THE BAPTIST CHURCH

The Rev. I. Judson Levy, B.D., returned to the pastorate of the Baptist Church after a period of leave of absence for post graduate study. The service of morning worship was conducted by Mr. Levy whose sermon was "God is Our Guide". The guidance of God is a subject that to many differing minds is fraught with seeming contradictions. Most of us have a faith, all too few have a great faith. In Psalm 73:24 we find the confident declaration of a mighty faith: "Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel and thou shalt receive me to glory." Many have some kind of a faith, few have that great faith that grows in storm and stress. The psalmist in his earlier words indicates that his steps had "well nigh slipped" but in the sanctuary of the Lord he had found safety and sound footing. Your faith, if you have one, is a personal experience. When men get close to God they do not say "I believe" but in confident assurance say "Thou art with me." This is the faith that we contemplate for the world, in the time of darkness, doubts and fears we look to the eternal purpose of God and not to the guide of man. It is a faith that the Lord is my shepherd, the certainty of guidance through life and after, beyond the rim of the horizon there is the hand clasp of God and man. Mr. Ivan Robinson in his solo gave an impressive expression of Boyles "O Lord Be Thou My God". Evening worship was conducted by Mr. Levy at 7 p.m. The sermon was "The Gospel of a Second Chance". "Hymn of the Peace" was the evening anthem. The Church School met, on Sunday, June 19th, at 10 a.m. John Inch, Mus. Dir., organist and choirmaster was in charge of music at all services.

MISSING SINCE JUNE 7 - Pte. John Bernard Murray, son of John Murray of Summerside, is missing in action since June 7, his father was informed yesterday. The message contains the following information. It is assumed that Pte. Murray was in action in France as he has been with the Canadian Army for about three years and has been overseas for about one year. His mother is dead. He has a sister, Mrs. C. L. MacDonald and two brothers, Daniel Murray and Arthur Murray, all Charlottetown.

ENJOYABLE SING SONG - A very enjoyable sing song for men of the three forces was held at the Knights of Columbus Hut last evening, with Mr. D. E. Reynolds, in charge. The program consisted of vocal solos by Miss Helen Roach and Miss Louisa Grant and Miss Doreen Grant. They were greatly enjoyed as was also a sketch by Mr. Connie Leclair. The evening was a success and a tasty lunch was served by the young ladies.

PRESENTED WITH 50 YEAR EMBLEM - Lodge 14 of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers met yesterday afternoon, followed by a dinner which was arranged in honour of the occasion. The presentation of the 50 year emblem to Mr. J. E. Doyle, City, on completing 50 years of membership in the organization. Mr. Wm. L. Best, CBE, who is vice-president and Legislative Representative of this organization, acted as secretary of Dominion joint legislative committee of Railway Transportation and other bodies. Mr. Doyle, Mr. Best, who is a native of this province, and has been absent for 40 years, made this special visit on this particular occasion. He arrived in the city yesterday afternoon and returned to his home in Ottawa.

PERSONALS - Mr. J. McVicar, Summerside, was in the city yesterday.

MISS Maud MacCannell of the R.C.M.P. Moncton, spent the week-end in the city a guest at the Charlottetown.

Mrs. Gordon Hutchinson, Charlottetown, is visiting her friend, Mrs. Charles York in Amherst, N. S.

Mrs. J. J. Trainor, 24 Water St., underwent an operation Saturday morning at the Charlottetown Hospital. Her condition is said to be as good as could be expected.

Wren Beth McLaine is spending fourteen days leave at Summerside, Mr. and Mrs. Rankine McLaine, Charlottetown.

Mr. M. B. Baird, Debert, who is associated with the Water Supply Commission, is visiting Messrs. C. E. Chisholm, S. E. MacRae and A. A. Beaumont were guests at the Queen Hotel during the week-end.

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH - The morning and evening services at Trinity yesterday were conducted by F. L. (Rev.) W. R. Braine, Padre at the RCAF Station, Charlottetown in the absence of Rev. T. E. McLennan who is in Sackville attending the Maritime Conference of the United Church.

The text for the morning sermon was taken from II Corinthians 13:14. The minister dealt with a comparison of world conditions at the time of Christ and at the present time stating that as the coming of Christ solved the problems of that day so the coming of Christ into the hearts of men will solve our problems today.

The choir rendered the anthem "I Will Sing My Praises" in the evening. F. L. Braine called the story of the good Samaritan pointing out that religion and life are not mere things. He reminded us that it is only as we apply religion to everyday experiences that we can hope to bring the Kingdom of God on Earth.

The anthem "At the Name of Jesus" by V. Williams, following rendered by the choir, following the delightful solo by Miss Marion Harper. He That Dwelleth in the Secret Place.

LONDON - (CP) - The Great Southern Railway Company received a postal order for $120 from a man as "conscience money" for four trips he took on the railway when a boy of 13 years about 1888.

P-I-C-N-I-C KELLY'S CROSS JULY 5

This column is reserved for news of local interest. For advertising of a newsy nature may be inserted at five cents a word, strictly payable in advance.

CONFEDERATION LIFE INSURANCE - WINS CAKE - A beautiful cake, offered by the Altar Society of St. Dunstan's Basilica, was won by Miss Nina Kavanagh, Upper Queen Street. The drawing was made Saturday.

TRAIN AND FERRY - The train left Borden Saturday evening with 169 passengers, arriving here at 7:45, at the hour of 8:30. The ferry made seven trips on Saturday.

AT CONVENTION - Miss Catherine MacLennan, R.N. President of the Provincial Registered Nurses' Association, and Miss Mildred Thompson, R.N. Secretary, were in Charlottetown for the annual convention of the R.N.A. which is being held in that city during the last week of June.

FUNERAL SATURDAY - The funeral of the late William Pipey was held Saturday morning at his residence, Mount Herbert. Services were conducted by Fr. L. Rev. W. R. Braine. The pallbearers were Messrs. W. Wood, Frank Driscoll, Joseph McEachern, Albert Ings, Ernest Mutch, Malcolm Minterment was in the Mount Herbert cemetery.

THREE ARRESTED - City Police over the week-end took into custody three young men who will likely be charged in Police Court today in connection with the theft of a lot of shoes recently. One arrested in connection with the theft of a lot of shoes recently. Three are in addition to the man arrested in connection with the break at Brady's Shoe Store.

MISSING SINCE JUNE 7 - Pte. John Bernard Murray, son of John Murray of Summerside, is missing in action since June 7, his father was informed yesterday. The message contains the following information. It is assumed that Pte. Murray was in action in France as he has been with the Canadian Army for about three years and has been overseas for about one year. His mother is dead. He has a sister, Mrs. C. L. MacDonald and two brothers, Daniel Murray and Arthur Murray, all Charlottetown.

ENJOYABLE SING SONG - A very enjoyable sing song for men of the three forces was held at the Knights of Columbus Hut last evening, with Mr. D. E. Reynolds, in charge. The program consisted of vocal solos by Miss Helen Roach and Miss Louisa Grant and Miss Doreen Grant. They were greatly enjoyed as was also a sketch by Mr. Connie Leclair. The evening was a success and a tasty lunch was served by the young ladies.

PRESENTED WITH 50 YEAR EMBLEM - Lodge 14 of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers met yesterday afternoon, followed by a dinner which was arranged in honour of the occasion. The presentation of the 50 year emblem to Mr. J. E. Doyle, City, on completing 50 years of membership in the organization. Mr. Wm. L. Best, CBE, who is vice-president and Legislative Representative of this organization, acted as secretary of Dominion joint legislative committee of Railway Transportation and other bodies. Mr. Doyle, Mr. Best, who is a native of this province, and has been absent for 40 years, made this special visit on this particular occasion. He arrived in the city yesterday afternoon and returned to his home in Ottawa.

PERSONALS - Mr. J. McVicar, Summerside, was in the city yesterday.

MISS Maud MacCannell of the R.C.M.P. Moncton, spent the week-end in the city a guest at the Charlottetown.

Mrs. Gordon Hutchinson, Charlottetown, is visiting her friend, Mrs. Charles York in Amherst, N. S.

Mrs. J. J. Trainor, 24 Water St., underwent an operation Saturday morning at the Charlottetown Hospital. Her condition is said to be as good as could be expected.

Wren Beth McLaine is spending fourteen days leave at Summerside, Mr. and Mrs. Rankine McLaine, Charlottetown.

Mr. M. B. Baird, Debert, who is associated with the Water Supply Commission, is visiting Messrs. C. E. Chisholm, S. E. MacRae and A. A. Beaumont were guests at the Queen Hotel during the week-end.

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH - The morning and evening services at Trinity yesterday were conducted by F. L. (Rev.) W. R. Braine, Padre at the RCAF Station, Charlottetown in the absence of Rev. T. E. McLennan who is in Sackville attending the Maritime Conference of the United Church.

The text for the morning sermon was taken from II Corinthians 13:14. The minister dealt with a comparison of world conditions at the time of Christ and at the present time stating that as the coming of Christ solved the problems of that day so the coming of Christ into the hearts of men will solve our problems today.

The choir rendered the anthem "I Will Sing My Praises" in the evening. F. L. Braine called the story of the good Samaritan pointing out that religion and life are not mere things. He reminded us that it is only as we apply religion to everyday experiences that we can hope to bring the Kingdom of God on Earth.

The anthem "At the Name of Jesus" by V. Williams, following rendered by the choir, following the delightful solo by Miss Marion Harper. He That Dwelleth in the Secret Place.

LONDON - (CP) - The Great Southern Railway Company received a postal order for $120 from a man as "conscience money" for four trips he took on the railway when a boy of 13 years about 1888.

THE KIRK PULPIT

At the morning diet of worship yesterday in the Kirk the Service of Holy Communion was the congregation were solemnly dedicated in a special service conducted by the minister, the Rev. T. H. Bussell. The service was assisted by 20 of the Rev. J. E. Bigelow.

Preaching on the text, "Then God sent an altar there unto the Lord and called it 'Jehovah-Shalom' - 'The Lord is Peace' (Judges, VI, 24). Mr. Bussell said in the sermon that man's existence on the earth, he has repeatedly been summoned to turn from the arts of peace to the grim business of war. That has been impressed upon the last two generations, for of both of them it has been demanded the office clerk has been taken from his unexciting routine, his ledger and his balance sheets, his modest hopes of the future, and his unexciting recreations, to wear a steel helmet, study the anatomy of bombs, and the mechanics of the aeroplane, and the corvette.

In the Bible the same sort of thing was repeated in the opening of the sheep-fold was drawn Israel's mightiest man of war, and a scholar, the carpenter and the fisherman are called, if not to the actual battlefield, to arenas of controversy and perhaps of martyrdom. Thus, in the stormy and turbulent period covered by the Book of Judges, while amid much confusion and not a little anarchy, the Israelites were still, by a sort of guerrilla warfare, doing their best to keep their possession of the Promised Land, the summons came to Gideon, as he threshed his father's wheat.

On a morning which, like all fateful days, broke just like any other, the Lord's sun shined in the eyes and found himself looking into those of the Angel of the Lord, and was led to build an altar to the God of the living. The young man's heart, even as now he goes forth to war, is this story of God. It is no ancient story. I think their loving work would look to this Church is simply evidence that they are fighting not in some pagan rage or savage hate, but out from the secret place of the Most High and the power of the Almighty.

It is here too that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian" says that no man comes to his life without a certain amount of war. It is here that we are tested for ourselves, and for the life around us. Christ is the Prince of Peace, and his peace comes out to war. Dr. P. J. Jack in his "Confessions of an Octogenarian"