A quiet wedding was solemnized at the bride's home at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning when Miss Annie B. Stewart daughter of the late Henry Stewart, Hamilton became the wife of Arthur M. Owen of the same place. The bride and groom were unattended. Rev. Edwin Smith, Kensington tied the nuptial knot, while only the immediate friends of the happy couple were present. The bride was attired in a travelling suit, and after breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Owen, left on a wedding trip to Boston. They were passengers by the Northumberland from Summerside and here received many congratulations and wishes for a bon voyage.

The marriage took place at the home of the bride's parents Henry and Mrs. Clarke Clark's Hotel Kensington at eight o'clock yesterday morning of their daughter Miss Clara to D. Stewart Alley formerly of Cardigan and at one time a resident of Summerside now living in Dickenson North Dakota. The bride was attended by Miss Libbie Townsend and the groom was supported by Prof. H. Shaw of Prince of Wales College. Rev. Edwin Smith performed the ceremony in the presence of a few of the immediate friends of the contracting parties. After luncheon the happy couple boarded the mail train and took passage by the Northumberland en route to their home in Dakota amid showers of rice and good wishes from many friends who gathered on the wharf to say farewell.

The wedding bells ring out in Summerside this morning when J. M. Sullivan of Port Hood formerly of Charlottetown, leads as his bride to the altar Miss Maude A. Green, daughter of W. S. Green of this town. The ceremony which unites them in holy wedlock takes place in St. Paul's Church 7.30 a. m. the silken bond being tied by Bishop McDonald assisted by Rev. J. C. McLeod. The bridesmaid is Miss Margaret Gaffney, while J. A. Neville of Halifax performs the duty of groomsmen. Prof. W. J. Whitney plays the wedding march. The bridal costume is a handsome dress of white silk with veil, and the bridesmaid wears white crepe de chene with black picture hat, while each carries hand-ome bouquets of flowers. After the ceremony, the party will repair to the bride's home, Spring Street, and after a wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan leave by the Northumberland en route to Port Hood. The bride, who is one of Summerside's most popular young ladies is the recipient of a large number of elegant and valuable gifts. The Guardian joins with a host of friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan continued happiness.
