Pneumonia claimed another victim in Darnley yesterday morning, when Mrs. McKay, relict of the late John McKay, passed away. She has been ill only since Friday morning. She was highly respected in the community and leaves a large circle of friends to mourn.

What about that mink or sable ruff the buying of which you have been putting off from day to day. The indications are that furs will be higher next season. We have some interesting figures on the balance of our fur ruff; genuine bargains which will certainly appeal to you. R. T. Holman, Ltd.

The death took place, February 5, of Mrs. McKay, relict of the late Alexander McKay, Darnley, after a few days' illness of pneumonia. Deceased who was 74 years of age, was a most estimable Christian lady, and leaves to mourn two daughters, Mrs. Stanford Gay, Summerside; Mrs. George McLean, Stanly, and one son, John T. McKay Sea River.

Certain liquor stores owned by P. P. Fanning, Summerside, and for a season the property of the Crown, (having been confiscated by process of law at the instance of Pro-squire Gough) were returned to the said P. P. Fanning, under the order made by the stipendiary magistrate. At the time of the seizure a cask of ale was left on the premises on account of its unavailability and the fact that it was in the cellar. The cask was found intact yesterday with the exception of a gullet hole in one of its staves. It is supposed that the ale escaped through the back door when it was found had been tampered with.

A CORRESPONDENT at Alberton writes: The many friends of Nathaniel Pearson are pleased to learn that he has so far recovered from his recent indisposition as to be able to visit some of his near neighbors.—Mr. and Mrs. S. Gardner are about to leave for the West, after an extended visit at the home of John Gardner.—The semi-annual examination of Chatham school took place on the 6th inst. The pupils, who acquitted themselves very creditably were examined by Horace Wright and David Pearson, and by their prompt and accurate answers reflected great credit on their teacher, Miss Maggie Corbett. At the close of the examination an entertainment was given by the pupils which was highly applauded. As a token of appreciation and attachment, Master Roy Campbell, on behalf of the school, presented the teacher with a portfolio. The visitors and pupils were treated to candy and apples by Miss Corbett and Mrs. Nathaniel Pearson.

ADVERTISING IS BROAD.

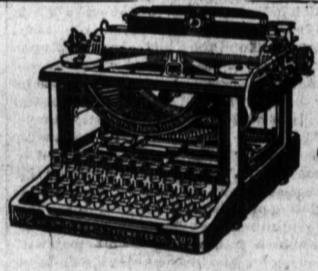

Advertising in itself means publicity and publicity is a very broad and comprehensive term. It does not mean simply a word whispered to a favored few. It is, rather, synonymous with a general, broadcast declaration, and the broader the scope of the announcement, the better the advertising. No occupies space that directs attention along given and desired lines can be reasonably regarded as wasted; nor can any funds expended to this end be adjudged extravagance.—American Medical Journal
