STEWART-MCPHERSON NUPTIALS—The Manse, Caledonia, was once more the scene of a happy and pretty wedding on October 22nd, when Miss Madie Ray McPherson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Alexander McPherson, of Bellevue, P. E. I. became the bride of Mr. James Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm J. Stewart, of Caledonia, P. E. I. The bride was attended by Miss Ruth Stewart, sister of the groom, while Mr. Stewart McPherson did the duties of best man. Exactly at the appointed hour the bridal party arrived at the Manse, and after the marriage, motored back to Bellevue, the home of the bride, to be joyously greeted by their parents and assembled wedding guests. After the wedding feast, the rest of the evening was spent to the enjoyment of all in the happy gathering. Mr. and Mrs. James Stewart may rest assured that they have the best and heartiest good wishes of all their friends and all who know them. A "fine and splendid young couple" is the universal comment. The Guardian wishes them all happiness, not only during their honeymoon, but all through many years of married life.

WEDDING BELLS—One of the season's prettiest weddings was solemnized in St. John's Church, North Cambridge, on Wednesday, September 24th, when Mr. Earl Greenan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Greenan, of Kinkora, led to the altar, Miss Emma Lawless, daughter of Mrs. Francis Lawless, also of Kinkora, where they were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, by the Rev. Fr. Leonard. The church, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion, was filled with guests, and after the ceremony, the bride and groom received the good wishes of many friends. The bride looked charming in a costume of white satin, with shoes to match. She wore a bridal veil and carried in her hand a handsome bouquet. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Florence Lawless, who wore a dress of pink silk crepe, with hat to match. Mr. Frank McIntyre, of Elmira, supported the groom. On the evening of their marriage, a reception was held at their home, where a large number of invited guests assembled to tender best wishes to the bride and groom. Previous to the marriage, the bride was given a generous shower by her friends at the home of her sister, Mrs. Hugh Kelly, North Cambridge, and was the recipient of many beautiful gifts. All join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Greenan many years of happy wedded life.
