Dull Trading

Yesterday On

Stock Exchanges

NEW YORK, Feb. 21—(AP)—In a sleepy pre-holiday market only 560,000 shares of stock changed hands today. Prices, on the average, gently declined, more as a result of indifferent demand than aggressive selling.

Today's business was the smallest since Oct. 11 and compared with 690,000 Friday.

Some traders failed to show up for work because of the chance for a long weekend offered by tomorrow's recess, when the market will close in observance of Washington's birthday.

At Montreal

MONTREAL, Feb. 21—(CP)—Securities generally moved into lower ground during slow trading on the Montreal stock exchange and curb market today.

Papers, metals, oils and utilities led the down-swing.

Mining stocks were on a softer decline in quiet dealings.

Closing averages indicated industrials off 5 at a new low of 122.3, utilities off .3 at a new low of 71.2 and banks off .09 at a new low of 27.43. Papers slipped 1.19 and golds eased .13.

At Toronto

TORONTO, Feb. 21—(CP)—A few mining stocks featured an otherwise dull session on the Toronto stock exchange today. Waite Amulet rolled ahead strongly in brisk early trading but tended easier as the session progressed. The stock touched a high at 15 1/4 and then sagged to 14 3/4, a gain of 1-2 from the previous close.

Willsey-Coghlan, an adjoining property, reflected the activity in Waite for a small change.

The remainder of the base metal list slid lower and golds also showed a majority of losses.
