A GOOD INVESTMENT

Self-Denying economy in order to "lay up for a rainy day" is universally commended. By just so much more as the object is higher, is it commendable. To economize in order to "lay up treasures in heaven." We really have only what we have used well for Christ. When one has learned this secret, of banking in heaven, one has the true philosopher's stone which turns everything to gold. The simplest possessions are transformed into eternal things. A threadbare coat becomes a robe of righteousness, a last year's bonnet, a crown of glory when worn in self-denying economy for Christ's sake. We should live always for the highest and best things.

Look high, O soul! for what is earth but dust, the fleeting shadow of the better things? The heavens are thine, if thou wilt use thy wings. And sighs are songs, if though wilt only trust.

Aim high, O soul! for on the higher forms is always room, while lower ranks are filled; Who climbs the heights finds all earth's noises stilled, And a sweet calm and light above the storm.

Be high, O soul! scorn what is low and base; "Child of a King" they call thee; tie a king's And troops of vassals will their tribute bring. To crown thee heir of glory, child of grace.

ROCHESTER HILLS MINING CO

To The Stockholders,—According to the latest reports, The Rochester Hills Mining Company will be in possession of a line of railway, fifteen miles long, within the coming year, the earnings of which will assure the stockholders of Rochester Hills Co., profits equal to four and one-half per cent of the company's total capitalization. This apparently annual assurance of profits is estimated apart from the gains to be derived from the big tonnage of ore at the mine, which, it is estimated, will amount to at least thirty per cent. in dividends for what is already in sight for shipment. It is gratifying to learn that the estimated profits on the apparently permanent asset will amount to from twelve to twenty per cent. in annual

Dr. Kelley is very fond of the Saguenay. He prosecuted his philosophical studies there in the Seminary, under the present Cardinal Begin, who marvelled at the infinity of plans the young student made every day for some proposed development of the Church's organization. This habit of planning brought out ultimately the great work of Extension, which has given such wonderful assistance to home missions. Dr. Kelley and Father Shannon, arrived in Charlottetown on Saturday night. The Doctor preached an excellent sermon in the Pro-Cathedral yesterday.
