TO-DAY

ALICE FAYE JOHN PAYNE

"Hello, Frisco, Hello"

ALSO SHORT SUBJECT SHOWS 7.30 - 9.15 TUESDAY AT 3.30

CAPITOL SUMMERSIDE

"HELLO, FRISCO, HELLO" IS TECHNICAL TRIUMPH!

All the elements that make up outstanding entertainment were carefully assembled in "Hello, Frisco, Hello" and the results are most pleasing to the eye and ear.

The music is top; a lively combination of something old and something new delivered by the top songsters in all Hollywood.

Alice Faye, included among the songs are such favorites as "See You in Great To Meet A Friend From Your Home Town," "Lindy Lou," "Hello Frisco," and "They Never Know."

The story of the film is set in the Barbary group of four entertainers are struggling for recognition, and on the framework of their adventures are hung the many production numbers.

Alice Faye is the temptress of the town, but she carries the torch for John Payne, who was born on the wrong side of the town, so he's out to buy the town!

Jack Oakie is along for laughs, which he gets by the barrel, while Lynn Bari is the seductress and accounted for. She doesn't sing or dance—but brother, she doesn't have to!

Completing the featured cast are Laird Cregar, June Haver, Ward Bond and George Barbier.
