CLEAR THE FILTERS!

Your Health Depends On It.

In its course around the body the blood is continually gathering up waste matter — worn out tissue and other impurities.

Then it flows through the kidneys, which should filter out all this poisonous material and empty it into the bladder.

But sometimes the kidneys get sluggish and clogged up with waste matter, and fail to do their work properly. Then the trouble begins. Instead of leaving the kidneys pure and life-giving, the blood comes out still loaded with Uric Acid, which it carries to every part of the body. Settling in joints and tissues, this Uric Acid very soon causes Rheumatism, with its untold suffering.

The natural, sensible course then is to clear the filters—the kidneys—with "Father Morriscy's No. 7." One tablet three times a day, followed by a glass of cold water, will bring relief in a very short time. Joints will limber up, the blood will be purified, and the Rheumatism cured. 50c at your druggist's, or from Father Morriscy Medicine Co., Chatham, N.B. 17

GYPSIE SMITH BUSY IN THE WINDY CITY

CHICAGO, Ill, Oct 19—Fifteen thusand men and women praying for Chicago's deliverance from iniquity nvaded the Tenderloin of the South side tonight led by Gipsy Smith, a Romany evangelist of England who is conducting a revival at the seventh egiment armory.

A chorus of sacred songs drowned the music of the cafes and dance halls and the red lights were dimmed by the glare of the torches borne by the Christian parade.

For two miles the procession marched around 22nd and State streets and then entered two halls and held a mass prayer meeting at midnight.

Along the route of the parade thousands of curious persons crowded the sidewalks. It was an orderly crowd and the marchers were unmolested.

The parade was led by a detachment of policemen and the route was well guarded by patrolmen.

FLAUNT THE RED FLAG BROADCAST

LONDON, Oct 19—The red flag was raised in London this afternoon and a large mob moved upon the Spanish embassy to make a demonstration of its disapproval of the execution of Professor Francisco Ferrer, the convicted revolutionist at Barcelona a few days ago. Several bodies of police were stationed at the approaches to the embassy and they drove off the crowd in their usual bloodless, effectual way. But considerable excitement and uneasiness pervaded the neighborhood. The groans and hootings were plainly heard in the embassy and at Buckingham Palace nearby.

No one was injured seriously, although the mounted police rode against the crowds and scattered them several times.

The trouble began with a mass meeting at Trafalgar square, which was organized by several Nationalists and labor bodies. Several hundred of the members of these organizations marched to the square carrying red flags draped in crepe and bearing inscriptions denouncing King Alfonso. A black-bordered banner was raised against the Nelson column with big letters that could be read from afar:

"To hell with the murderer Alfonso!"

After J. F. Green, secretary of the Friends of Russian Freedom, called the meeting to order he read a telegram from the Countess of Warwick, saying:

"No words are too strong to express Europe's horror at the murder of President Ferrer."

Several Laborite members of parliament delivered strong orations. Victor Grayson of Manchester, the Socialist member, clapped the climax by declaring if the head of every king of Europe was torn from his body it would not pay half the price of Ferrer's life. He called the Russian Emperor "a dirty monster," and said that King Edward, who could have prevented the execution, was responsible for whatever might happen in England as a result of it. He demanded the expulsion of the Spanish ambassador.
