

That's why you need a nemo

Whatever your figure type may be... there is not one—there are three reasons why a good foundation should be at the top of your very personal priority list. Your NEMO selected with the help of one of our expert fitters will help you to fight fatigue... will give you the support you need for your many activities... will make you feel better because you feel your best!

Foundation Garments
2nd floor
Queen St. Charlottetown

In Memoriam

MRS. LOIS GREEN

At 2 a.m. on Wednesday, February 10th, Mrs. Lois Green, widow of the late Alexander Green of Malpeque entered peacefully into rest. Though suffering from a heart ailment, she continued active until quite recently, and retained until the very last her keen interest in every one and in everything.

Possessed to a very remarkable degree with native energy, quiet, quick humor, good will and an unassuming loveliness, Ma Green was abundantly beloved by all who knew her and her circle of friends was as wide as her acquaintances. She was an adept in the fine art of ministering to the body in things material. Her hands were versed in the handicrafts with a rare aptitude for the well ordered table. Her wedding cakes brought delight to many a festive board and graced many a rare occasion.

A lovely woman and a sincere Christian, Mrs. Green never allowed one hand to know what the other was doing for those who needed the hope and help she could impart. She will be greatly missed but her memory lingers as a sweet reminder of the life's great gifts—the boon of a greatness and a grace of soul that sweeten and enrich the lot of the commonplace. Surely such as she though they be dead, yet speak.

Sincere sympathy is extended to her daughter, Mrs. J.E. Lockerby, to her son, P.M. and Mrs. Green at home, to her sisters, Mrs. Sarah McGowan of Kensington and Mrs. Nora Schurman of Kentville, Nova Scotia; also to her one only grand daughter, Shirley Green, whom she loved so dearly.

The funeral service was held at her late residence with burial in the Princedown Church cemetery there. Her pastor, Rev. C. J. Crowder, conducted the service.

In Memoriam

MRS. WELLINGTON ENMAN

Who passed away November 30th, 1938.

She was born at Lyndale, P. E. Island eighty six years ago, being an only daughter of the late Malcolm Maclean and his wife Margaret MacPherson. Her married life she lived at Grandview, her husband preceding her six years ago.

To this union were born nine children, three of whom predeceased their parents, William in infancy, Katherine at the age of sixteen years and Margaret, who was the wife of Dr. C. S. MacGinnis, of Temple University in Philadelphia, passed away on June 22nd, 1938.

There are left to cherish the memory of her mother, four sons and two daughters: John, Malcolm, William A. and (Rebecca) Mrs. Dan Atwell, all of Moncton, U.S.A.; Martin with the R. C. A. in Ontario and (Mary) Mrs. John MacKinnon in Halifax, N. S. Two brothers, Donald Maclean, Charlottetown and Malcolm Maclean, Lyndale, P. E. Island; also twenty-three grand children and thirteen great grand children. Her funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. M. Fraser of Weyfield on December 4th and the mortal remains of a genuine friend, a loving mother and sister laid to rest in the little Methodist cemetery at the old homestead at Grandview.

In Memoriam

MRS. WILLIAM MCCARRON

Friends and neighbors of Mrs. Wm. McCarron were shocked to learn of her sudden passing at her home at Victoria Cross on Jan. 25th. Though not in robust health for the past few years she had been about her household duties as usual until a few hours before her death: one of her last acts of kindness being to ask some small children in for warmth and food on their way home from school on the previous evening. Thus a noble soul had gone to meet its Saviour. The deceased who was 78 years of age was born at Kingston, P.E.I. the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cahill. Before her marriage she had taught school near her home and did clerical work for a number of years in Epsom, Mass. Possessed of a beautiful, mild disposition she was truly a friend of all, as was eloquently attested by the many Mass Cards received and also by letters from those who had shared the hospitality of her home at different times during her life.

She was visited regularly during her years of failing health by her pastor Rev. O. Higgins who consoled her with the sacraments of her Catholic faith, which she understood and loved so well. Besides her sorrowing husband

AUGUSTINE COVE
Misses Alice and Annie Sherron were among the recent visitors to Cape Traverse.

Mr. Kenneth Dawson left Thursday morning for Moncton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Cameron were recent visitors to Orpoad.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mac Parlange were recent visitors to Cape Traverse.

Miss Jean Stirling, Principal of the school is spending the week end at her home in Kensington.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Cameron had as their welcome visitors Friday night, Mrs. W. Peers, and her two sons, Clarence and Terrance, Messrs. Eddie Wadman, and Mike Peters.

Mr. Ken Cameron was a recent visitor to Albany.

The people of Augustine Cove regretted to hear of the death of Miss Pansie Bell at her home in Cape Traverse.

The Senior and Junior classrooms had their usual J. R. C. meetings on Friday afternoon.

The Girls' Sewing Club had their meeting Friday at Mrs. Wilfred Peters.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Heman had as their guests on Saturday night Misses Doris and Helen Newsome, Ruth Ross, Edna, Eddie, Wadman, Ellsworth Newsome, and Mike Peters.

The farmers of this district are busily engaged in hauling their produce to Carleton and other getting out their supply of wood for the season.

Mr. Archie Robinson was a recent visitor to Summerside.

The members of the Institute met at the home of Mrs. Ken Cameron on Feb. 14 for a quilting. Two quilts were finished.

Mr. William Burke of Charlottetown is visiting at Ken. Cameron's.

Mr. Edward MacPavden was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Cameron on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Alfred Peters paid his wife a visit at a well on Wednesday.

In Memoriam

MRS. WILLIAM MCCARRON

Friends and neighbors of Mrs. Wm. McCarron were shocked to learn of her sudden passing at her home at Victoria Cross on Jan. 25th. Though not in robust health for the past few years she had been about her household duties as usual until a few hours before her death: one of her last acts of kindness being to ask some small children in for warmth and food on their way home from school on the previous evening. Thus a noble soul had gone to meet its Saviour. The deceased who was 78 years of age was born at Kingston, P.E.I. the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cahill. Before her marriage she had taught school near her home and did clerical work for a number of years in Epsom, Mass. Possessed of a beautiful, mild disposition she was truly a friend of all, as was eloquently attested by the many Mass Cards received and also by letters from those who had shared the hospitality of her home at different times during her life.

She was visited regularly during her years of failing health by her pastor Rev. O. Higgins who consoled her with the sacraments of her Catholic faith, which she understood and loved so well. Besides her sorrowing husband

In Memoriam

IRISHTOWN W. I.

The February meeting of Irish-Town Women's Institute opened in the usual manner with the Institute Ode, the Club Woman's Creed and roll call answered with a valentine verse by 14 members. The president, Mrs. James MacLeod was pleased to welcome 11 visitors. The minutes of last meeting were read and adopted. A message of thanks was received from Sgt. Evans for his Christmas box. Mrs. W. J. Paynter thanked the Institute for a message of sympathy. The secretary reported $6.00 given the Canadian Aid to Russia fund. The school committee reported book and brushes bought for school, and paid for by trustees, with nothing more needed at present. The sick committee reported very little illness in the district. The new sick committee appointed were Mrs. David Campbell and Miss Alma Campbell. On motion a bill submitted by Mrs. Alex Campbell for material for Club Sewing Club was paid. A letter re Red Cross campaign was read, and ways of raising money discussed. It was decided to have a fishing pond and charge for lunch at next meeting.

The Red Cross convener, Mrs. W. B. Warren received one quilt knitted goods, and one quilt donated by Mrs. Holsey Profit, gave out yarn, and reported work sent last month.

Price ceiling record books and consumer's news were distributed, and the questionnaire on Agriculture was discussed and filled out. Miss Adeline Campbell invited the members to her home for the next meeting. Collection and roll call fines amounted to $2.10. The meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

Following this meeting an auction sale of new and used articles took place, the proceeds of which amounted to $14.00 a donation of $6.00 bringing the total to $14.50. Lunch was then served by the hostesses.

In Memoriam

ELMSDALE AND VICINITY

The regular monthly meeting of the Elmsdale Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. John Gordon on Tuesday with a good attendance of members and some visitors were also present. The meeting opened by the Institute Ode and repetition of Creed, followed by the reading of minutes of previous meeting. Correspondence was read and discussed. The motion carried that we purchase a T. B. Bond. The questionnaire on Social Welfare was answered. Contests were given by Mrs. Thomas Murray and Mrs. J. A. Callaghan which were thoroughly enjoyed. The lunch committee served refreshments. Next meeting is to be at the home of Mrs. J. A. Callaghan. The National Anthem closed the meeting.

Miss Vera Williams of Elmsdale has accepted a position with the Bank of Commerce at Alberton and has entered upon her duties. Her many friends wish her success.

Mr. George Wallace of Alma has returned to his home after spending some time on the mainland.

Mr. Sidney Currie was a passenger to Summerside on Saturday.

The Elmsdale-Alma C.W.I. unit held its regular meeting on Thursday at the home of Mrs. J. A. Callaghan. Meeting was opened by prayer. After the reading of the minutes of last meeting and the regular business routine, the remainder of the evening was spent in knitting for the Red Cross. Refreshments were served by the ladies. The meeting was very interesting and closed with prayer for peace.

Miss Rosetta McKenna has returned to her home in Elmsdale after spending several months in Halifax.

Among those attending the Short Course in Egg and Poultry in Charlottetown, is Mr. Brendon Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Wallace of Alma.

Miss Zoe Gavin of Tignish is spending a few days at the home of Mr. Alfred O'Brien.

ORDER YOUR GARDEN SEEDS EARLY! SEASON'S SHORTAGE EXISTS IN MANY VARIETIES!

Our mixture of House Plant Seeds comprises 10 or more varieties and has been specially prepared to give a mass of early contrasting types, all easily grown in the house. We earnestly give these varieties under the name of a particular sort as the change from time to time. A real money-saver for anyone wanting lovely House Plants. Plant now. (See Feb. 13 News) seedling. FREE—OUR BIG 1943 SEED AND NURSERY BOOK—Better Than Ever 18. DOMINION SEED HOUSE, GEORGETOWN, ONT.

HAT STYLES Riding High for Nineteen-Forty-Three

Charming Millinery in the styles of today are freshly new at Moore & McLeod's. Hat styles that will attract the attention of ladies who want to be right in every detail.

You'll approve the new "Off-the-Face" Pompadours so engagingly misted with veiling... And then, ageless in popularity seems the BERET... but in the new BERETS there's a real nineteen forty three touch that's original. Wear one anywhere, everywhere, fits every headsize, flatters every profile.

And there are large "off-the-face" hats... there are sailors to complete your tailored costume. Of course colour is a feature... the colours shown in New York are shown at Moore & McLeod's... some of them are Black, Brown, Navy, Red, Sunnibu, Horizon Rose, Country Beige.

Visit the MILLINERY DEPARTMENT at MOORE & McLEOD'S today.

Phone 49
Private Branch Exchange
Telephones in all Departments

MOORE & McLEOD Limited

SOUTHPORT W. I.

The January meeting of the Southport Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Lorne Kelly with the President in the chair. There were sixteen members and one visitor present. The Red Cross Committee reported that 2 sleeveless sweaters, 2 children's dresses with panties, 2 pairs seasonal stockings, 1 pair gloves, 1 pair socks, 1 pair boys stockings and 1 boys pullover had been passed in to the last meeting, also eight pairs of shorts had been cut out and given to members to be made.

School committee reported several articles were needed for school and a committee was appointed to see about buying these articles.

Sick committee reported having sent cards to several who were sick. It was decided to send $5.00 to Canadian Aid to Russia Fund. It was also decided that each member try to raise $1.00 as soon as possible.

Programme consisted of Questionnaires and a contest.

Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Hope Mutch.

A lunch was served by committee in charge assisted by the hostesses. Meeting closed with National Anthem.

Just what causes the vapor trails of these 10 American Flying Fortresses over England air experts can't decide, but pilots blame it on the Gremlins. The B-17's have blasted U-boat bases and other Nazi installations in occupied France with daylight raids of ever-increasing fury.