The bride was attended by Miss Florence Ramsay, sister of the groom, while Mr. James Phillips, brother of the bride, supported the groom. Promptly at eight o'clock the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, entered the parlour to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Hazel Phillips, cousin of the bride and after the couple had taken their place beneath a beautiful arch in the presence of about one hundred and twenty five invited friends and relatives were made man and wife by Rev. WEDDING BELLS.—St. Malachias Church Kinkora, was the scene of a happy event on Tuesday, October 10th, when Miss Patricia Hughes, one of the Island's most successful teachers was united in marriage to Mr. Thomas E. Noonan, a popular young man of Alberton. The bride was tastefully gowned in blue duchesse satin, with gold trimmings, and wore a white pluch hat trimmed with black willow plumes. She was attended by her sister Miss Mary A. Hughes, who wore a dress of blue silk with hat to match, while Mr. John Murray, Alberton did the honors for the groom. As the bridal party entered the Church, Miss Mary A. Monaghan, cousin of the bride made the organ send forth its sweetest strains of a beautiful wedding march. During the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Father McIntyre, Miss Monaghan accompanied by her brother Phil sang some beautiful hymns. After the marriage the happy couple accompanied by a number of their friends took advantage of the beautiful day, and enjoyed a very pleasant drive to Summerside. Returning to the home of the bride at six o'clock in the evening, they were soon surrounded by a host of friends and relatives eager to offer their congratulations and best wishes to the newly married couple. WEDDING BELLS.—On Tuesday, Sept. 26th a most pleasing event took place at St. Malachias Church, Kinkora, when Mr. Alfred Curley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. The bride becomingly attired was accompanied by her cousin Miss Margaret Callaghan of Charlottetown as bridesmaid, while Mr. Walter Curley of Freetown acted as groomsman. During the nuptial mass hymns appropriate to the occasion were beautifully sung by Mrs. P. A. McMahon, while Miss Kathleen McKenna, sister of the bride played the wedding march in fine style. After the ceremony the newly wedded couple drove to "Queen Hotel" Summer side where they partook of dinner. After a brief stay there they returned to the home of the bride's brother, Mr. G. S. McKenna where they were met by a large number of friends, when the usual routine of congratulations were gone through with, the party were ushered into the dining table, which was loaded with all the good things the most fastidious taste could desire. A portion of the evening was then spent by the company in dancing, singing etc., after which it was thought proper that a few of the customary toasts be drunk. This part of the festivities added very much to the enjoyment of the evening. The different toasts were responded to in appropriate and eloquent words by Messrs Michael McKenna, Edwin Dawson, Francis Hamill, Peter A. McMahon, Emmet Hughes and others. The toast "Our Host and Hostess" was responded to by Mr. G. S. McKenna who made the speech of the evening. It being well on in the "small hours" the company broke up after spending one of the most enjoyable days in their lives. The young couple were the recipients of many beautiful and useful presents, amongst them being a beautiful sideboard from a number of their friends in Freetown and a substantial cheque from her brother Mr. Jas. E. McKenna, Sydney, C. B. and Mrs. Curley will reside in Freetown. Congratulations.

Men of Military Age Barred From Government Jobs

OTTAWA, October 14.—During the war no man of military age may be appointed to either the inside or the outside civil service unless a badge has been issued to him, is the significant statement in an order-in-council which was issued today. The possession of such a badge means that the possessor has offered to enlist, and has been exempted from military service.

About a year ago the government instructed the heads of the various departments that preference was to be given in appointments to men who had been on service overseas. A further order has been passed to insure effective operation of the policy and to prevent the appointment of men in military positions except when necessary.

The new order says that in all appointments to either the inside or the outside civil service preference must be given to men of overseas service who have been honorably discharged, and more especially those who through disability are unable to resume their former occupations.

The heads of departments and the civil service commissioners are held responsible for carrying the order into effect.

In the case of women and men of non-military age or men to whom badges have been issued and have been temporarily appointed to the service the tenure of appointment may be extended to cover the period of the war.

Men of the overseas service are exempted from paying the examination fees.

CHURCH UNION

The Church's resources, where one cause would be more than self sustaining, and the resources that are now used in a measure wasted, might be applied to the opening up of new fields and the expansion of the Kingdom.

We are now perplexing the foreigner that we are anxious to Christianize and Canadianize by our manifold denominationalism. The United Church of Canada will be able to meet him with a united front, and concentrated energy bring to him the Gospel message of peace and good will.

There are great days awaiting us—days of reconstruction, readjustment, and assimilation—days so big with opportunity that to give time, thought or feeling to what is sectional or sectarian is the neglect of what is national and Christian would be little short of a crime. Christ sends us not to find or perpetrate "denominations" but to preach the Gospel, and it is written: "He that glorifies, let him glory in the Lord."

Mission Services in St. Peter's Cathedral

The Mission Services in St. Peter's Cathedral yesterday were largely attended. At 11 a. m. there was a choral celebration of the Holy Communion at which Rev. Mr. Little, presided and a powerful sermon was delivered and the resurrection. In the afternoon a meeting for men was held in the Opera House, Rev. Mr. Little taking as his theme: "The Power of Charity."

It was a very impressive discourse. Rev. Mr. Huban also delivered an excellent address at this meeting and will discuss the necessity of everyone doing his part in the church. In the evening at St. Peter's the service was very largely attended. The singing was all congregational and was very hearty, the hymns being old fashioned ones which appeal to nearly everyone. Rev. Mr. Little delivered a masterly sermon taking as his text the words of St. Luke 12: 4: "What man of you having one hundred sheep, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it?"

The speaker drew an apt simile showing how people like sheep in their stupidity and willfulness choose the wrong path, instead of the path of Eternal happiness. The Son of Man the Good Shepherd comes to seek and save that which was lost. One of the most wonderful things in the world, said the speaker is the way God deals with the son that has wandered away. It is wonderful how he comes up with us and brings us back to the fold rejoicing. The fold is the church, in the fold is found the fellowship of faithfulness; here we must be loyal to one another, pitying one another's weaknesses overlooking their faults and when the poor wandering sheep comes in put our arms around him and making him feel at home. It is necessary, continued Rev. Mr. Little, that we should get rid of that stiffness which is found too often in the church today. We need to get back to Jesus, create a happy family where if one is absent he is missed. Just let us follow day by day the Good Shepherd and by and by we will bring you to the Eternal home where his sheep never wander but see His face continually.

(Special to the Guardian.) LONDON, Oct. 15.—Serious fighting occurred Saturday along the entire Serbian front, according to a Reuters despatch from Salonika. The Bulgarians were expelled from some of their trenches on the left bank of Corina and their counter attacks were repulsed.

ATHENS, Oct. 15.—Control of the Greek port of Piræus, a seaport of Athens, has been taken over by the French. No passports will be issued in Piræus without being vised by the Allies.

STORM WAVE ABOUT MIDDLE OF OCTOBER

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 7.—Last bulletin gave forecasts of disturbance to cross continent Oct. 7 to 11, warm wave 8 to 10, cool wave 9 to 13. During this period temperatures will go from unusually high about Oct. 5 to below normal about 12. Heavy rains are expected with this storm and the storm intensities will be about normal. These rains will be very encouraging to those interested in winter grain and a large acreage will be sown on account of good conditions and present prices.

Next warm wave will reach Vancouver near Oct. 11 and temperatures will rise on all the Pacific slope. It will cross Rocky ridge by close of Oct. 12, plains sections 13, great lakes and Ohio valleys 14, eastern sections 15, reaching Newfoundland about Oct. 16. Storm wave will follow about one day behind warm wave, and cool wave about one day behind storm wave.

This will be one of the most severe storms of the month. It will also cause one of the three heaviest rains of October. Temperatures of the week will average lower than usual, and killing frosts will go south of the average line not far from Oct. 17.

ANOTHER WARM WAVE.

Another warm wave will reach Vancouver Oct. 17, and temperatures will rise on all the Pacific slope. It will cross Rocky ridge by close of Oct. 18, plains sections 19, great lakes and Ohio valleys 20, eastern sections 21, reaching Newfoundland near Oct. 22. Storm wave will follow about one day behind warm wave and cool wave about one day behind storm wave.

This storm will be the most severe in the far west and middle west, and will then lose force until it is out on the Atlantic about Oct. 24, where it will become a dangerous sea storm. About Oct. 26 a tropical hurricane will organize in the West Indies and will be an object of considerable interest for a week or ten days following. At that point we will deliver it to the U. S. Weather Bureau as it has telegraphed connections with all the West Indies sections, and can then make fairly good guesses as to its future route.

That hurricane will cause some heavy rains in the cotton states, not good for cotton, and it will cause a cold wave in the northwestern sections near last of October. Very dangerous storms are expected during last week of October, and a wave of relatively high temperatures. Heavy rains of the month will occur during week centering on Oct. 26.
