THERE is a harmony in dress quite as attainable as in music—and quite as desirable. There may be discordant notes that clash unless one is discriminating with that good taste which spells elegance and comfort.

Hosiery that is chosen without regard to fit and texture may be the jarring note that puts the whole scheme of dress out of tune.

Mercury Hosiery is manufactured not merely as an article of clothing that covers the limbs but with regard to the requirements of particular people. First of all, comes quality of material, then the careful designing that makes for perfect fitting, and added to these the refinements, such as lack of seams, that harmonize in the finest finished hosiery product in Canada.

A NEW ENGINE.—Engine No 1422, known to the railroad profession as a 30 per cent engine is the latest addition to the rolling stock of the P. E. Island Railway. This is the largest engine yet brought to the island and is for the wide gauge line. Some alterations had to be made at the entrance to the round-house in order to allow the engine to enter the building.

DEATH OF MR. CHARLES THORNE.—Many friends will regret to learn of the death at his home, 11 Park Street, at an early hour yesterday morning of Mr. Charles Thorne in the 31st year of his age. Deceased had been in failing health for about a year. Deceased previous his illness worked at photography and was also a well-known poultry fancier and took much interest in horses. He is survived by his parents and several brothers and sisters to whom deep sympathy is extended in their hour of bereavement. The funeral takes place this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

WEDDING BELLS.—In New York City on Sept. 1st, 1920, the marriage took place of Miss Sarah Elliot MacNeill, formerly of Crapaud, P. E. I., and Mr. Harvey Clyde Bedwin of Addis, Louisiana. The bride wore a wedding suit of midnight blue with large picture hat, and carried a shower bouquet of brides roses and sweet peas. The marriage is the culmination of a friendship started in France, when both were in the A. E. F. After visiting Providence, Boston, Baltimore, Washington, D. C., and St. Louis, they will be at home at Addis, La., after Oct. 1.

GOLDEN JUBILEE.—The North River Baptist Missionary Society held a jubilee celebration in the church edifice, Tuesday evening Sept. 14th. The building was beautifully decorated with golden colored flowers. One vase of purple flowers was placed in honor of the members of the society who have died. Mrs. Mellish presided very gracefully. The choir furnished excellent music. Miss Laura Bain gave a very interesting and instructive address on the life of Miss Norris. She compared the beginning of the women's mission societies with the v. s. organization which now exist with its Women's Aid societies, Mission Bands, Baby Bands and Young Ladies Guilds. This organization, now known as the Woman's Baptist Missionary Union will celebrate its fifty year anniversary on the 15th of October. Mr. Oliver Warren in a very interesting paper gave the history of the North River Society. It was organized 1871. Mrs. Peter Warren, mother of the late Rev. Henry Warren, was the first president and Miss Lottie McKinley, subsequently the wife of Rev. Henry Warren, was the first secretary. There are eight of the charter members still living. The Mission Band gave two choruses, and Mrs. Everett Stevenson and Mrs. Webster sang a duet very sweetly. A collection of $8.00 was divided between the Mission Band and Ladies Aid work.

RETURNED FROM THE WEST.—Mr. Weston Rollings of Rustico returned Tuesday night from Western Canada where he spent the past month visiting his brother, Mr. Guy E. Rollings, who is engaged in farming at Plato, Sask. Mr. Rollings is not particularly enamoured of the west and is firmly convinced that Prince Edward Island is good enough for him. He is also firmly convinced that many former Prince Edward Islanders, now in the west, would gladly exchange their privileges there for an opportunity to try their luck again in old P. E. I. land. Somehow, he says, things do not always pan out as expected in the west. Many farmers own immense tracts of land, some of them three or four sections. As much as possible of this land is cultivated and seeded and in the spring the prospects are bright for a bumper crop. Then, almost invariably, something happens. It is not a hail storm it is frost; if frost fails to come there is a drought. In almost every instance the promising crop turns out either less than half the expectation or fails utterly. He saw a number of men with large holdings, nominally valued at many thousands of dollars, whose crops were utter failures for three and four years in succession. The crop this year runs about at an average of half average, and many of those who had lost everything in the drought of the past three or four years just about recovered themselves and came out square. Mr. Rollings says he would not exchange his 110 acre farm at Rustico for a whole county of prairie land. One of the great enemies the western farmer has to contend with is a weed called "tumbling mustard." This weed is blown by the wind over miles of land, takes root and grows in a day or two to the size of a small spruce tree. It is exceedingly difficult to eradicate and is very injurious to growing crops. One of Mr. Rollings' great objections to the west is the quality of the water there. During his months stay he never had a drink of decent water, the only water available being from dug-outs saturated with alkali and almost unfit for human consumption. The conclusion of the whole matter, in Mr. Rollings' opinion is that those who are comfortably situated in this province will be very much better off if they remain here than if they go to western Canada.

The Pupils of Summerside, Link letter and St. Eleanor's participated, there being over 600 entrants and some splendid exhibits were shown. A good programme of field sports was a feature of the affair and it was well carried out.

A large number of friends and acquaintances were gathered to mourn the death of Mr. Frank Lang, of Tryon, which occurred on Thursday morning, at the age of 2 years. There passed away at Montague on August 20th ult., Norman Kenneth McLean, a well known farmer and boat builder, well known because of the superior products of his craftsmanship, but more because of his high moral character, built on the principles of Jesus Christ. His last request was that his favorite hymn, "Jesus Paid It All" should be sung at his funeral service. This was conducted on August 22nd by Rev. H. J. McKenzie at Cardigan, where his "Earthly Tabernacle" was laid to rest. He leaves to mourn a beloved wife, a sister, Mrs. Jas. Bruce, of Regina, Sask., two daughters and four sons, whose greatest treasure in this world is the memory of one whose life of seventy-five years was a verification of the truth, "An honest man is the noblest work of God."

Y. M. C. A. SOCIAL.—A very enjoyable social time was held at the Y. M. C. A. on Friday night last. The members of the Senior Young Men's Class were at home to their lady friends and the young ladies of the Y. M. C. A. The programme of the evening took the form of an Indoor Athletic Meet on the Gymnasium floor. The young people were divided into two teams, "The Reds" and "The Blues" captained by Mr. Ernest Harris and Miss Edith Jenkins respectively. There were relay races of various kinds and other group games and the last event of the evening was a song contest between the two groups. Points were awarded for first and second place in all events and the score resulted in a tie. During the evening Miss Jenkins and Mr. Taylor favored the company with violin and piano selections. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Jenkins and Mrs. Gorbey acted as chaperones. The National Y. M. C. A. Boys Work Secretary Taylor Statten was a guest of the evening. The success of the affair was largely due to the energetic work of some of the new blood of the Social Committee, Mr. D. Beathune is chairman of the committee and his able assistants for the Social were Messrs. E. Harris, Leigh Dingwell and Cecil Jenkins. It is planned to hold monthly socials for the Senior membership of the "Y." during the fall and winter months.

McDonald, President, Joseph O'Sullivan, Vice President, William J. McDonald, Secy. Treas., Peter L. Callaghan, Executive Committee, Merlin McCarthy, Peter Sullivan, Edward Clinton and Paul F. Hughes. The spirit of the meeting showed that St. Dunstan's boys still maintain that keen interest in athletic sports which has been so characteristic of them in many years past. Their work along that line so far is chiefly upon the foot-ball field and they hope to have the pleasure of meeting once more their old time rivals or any other team desirous of good clean sport.

WEDDING BELLS.—St. Columbia Church Fairfield was the scene of a very pretty wedding when on Wednesday, Sept. 15th, Miss Katie L. Beaton, East Point became the bride of Peter E. Holland, Elmira. The bride, one of East Point's most popular young ladies, and also a veteran of the great war, where she served as trained nurse with the A. E. F., was attended by her sister Miss Ella Beaton, while the groom was ably supported by Mr. Russel McDonald after the nuptial vows, which was celebrated by their pastor, Rev. R. J. McDonald, the happy couple motored to the home of the bride's parents, where about 150 invited guests were assembled. The day was pleasantly spent in music, etc., after which the newly wedded pair departed for an extended motor trip through the Maritime Provinces. The many expensive presents received testify to the esteem in which the young couple are held, while too numerous to speak special mention must be made of a gold headed walking stick and racoon coat presented by the Elmira Womens Institute. Their many friends at home and abroad join in wishing them every happiness in which sentiments the Guardian sincerely joins.

The many friends of Mr. Frank Haughy of Kelly's Cross will regret to hear of the sad death of his beloved wife aged 28 years who died Sept. 6th. Her death took place at the residence of her father, Mr. Patrick Hagen, of Westmoreland after an illness of 2 months. Mrs. Frank Haughy was a type of true heroic and noble womanhood, energetic and industrious, she responded heartily to the call of duty. Sympathetic, the poor the sick and the sorrowing found in her a friend of years and a stranger alike received a hearty welcome to her home. In early life she entered into that fellowship with good that beautified youth, adorns womanhood and crowns age. God to her was a reality. The consciousness of His presence, her unswerving faith in His love and His wisdom, were her stay in the trying experience of her short life. A member of the Catholic Church, she honored the name she bore, and it may be said in truth of her: "She rests from her labor and her works do follow her." The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. D. R. Curran, and the Rev. Dr. Monaghan.

She leaves to mourn besides her sorrowful husband, her father, Mr. P. Hagen of Westmoreland, three sisters, Mrs. J. T. Kelly of Stanchel, and Mrs. Philip Monaghan of Kelly's Cross and Mrs. J. A. Coady at home, who waited on her through all her illness. She also leaves 3 brothers: Emmet Hagen in Inkerman, Rich in Alberta and Amos at home.

Roderick of Charlottetown and Angus of Pine Hill Cottage, Halifax, and the daughter Miss Jessie of Charlottetown.
